THE UNIVERSITY

The University of Wisconsin, founded in 1848, has been recognized throughout its history as one of the nation's leading institutions of higher learning. U.S. News & World Report, in a 1993 issue, included UW-Madison in a list of the "Best College Buys."

From the initial class of 17, the student population has grown to a current enrollment of nearly 40,000 students, the seventh-largest in the U.S.

- Wisconsin is one of just 60 members of the Association of American Universities (AAU), the most prestigious organization of higher education in the U.S.

- University libraries house more than 5.5 million volumes, 13th-most in the nation according to the Association of Research Libraries.

- According to a Standard & Poor's survey, Wisconsin is one of the nation's top producers of corporate executives, ranking second in undergraduate degrees.

- U.S. News & World Report rated the UW's graduate-level sociology department as No. 1 in the nation. Additionally, the magazine ranked education 5th, livrary science 6th, social work 7th, psychology and political science 9th and computer science, history, nursing and chemistry 10th.

- The 1983 Assessment of Research-Doctorate Programs in the U.S. reported that 15 departments on campus were rated in the top 10 nationally.

- The UW boasts the top-rated education department in the nation according to 1990 and 1994 studies conducted at Illinois.

- Throughout its history, the UW-Madison has produced 13 Nobel Prize winners, 22 Pulitzer Prize winners, 45 members of the National Academy of Sciences, 15 members of the National Academy of Engineering and two members of the National Academy of Education.

THE CHANCELLOR ON ATHLETICS

"Athletics is a connecting point among the people of Wisconsin. Win or lose, people like to talk about and reflect on sports, and they like to be part of the excitement and camaraderie that college athletics inspires. The success of Badger athletics poses our university in the national spotlight and offers the country another window through which to view our mission."

David Ward, UW-Madison Chancellor

THE UW-MADISON

A Commitment to Academics & Athletics at Wisconsin

Achieving national recognition in both academics and athletics is a difficult challenge for universities today. The University of Wisconsin-Madison is one of the few institutions that has earned praise for its work in the classroom and on the field of play.

With its admittance to the Association of American Universities (AAU), the UW-Madison has been recognized for its solid reputation in the academic world. Indeed, only 60 schools nationally are in the AAU.

Balancing the academic requirements of an outstanding institution with the demands of collegiate athletic competition is difficult. However, the University of Wisconsin has attacked the challenge and succeeded.

Inclusion in the Association of American Universities and three recent bowl championships are evidence that academics and athletics do indeed mix at the UW-Madison.

GOLDMINE OF A SCHOOL

"A list of first-rate academic programs at Madison would be as complete as a college catalog elsewhere. All in all, it is a non-stop festival that students sum up as 'diverse, intellectual, fashionable and moderately hedonistic.' The UW-Madison remains one of life's goldmines for those willing to dig."

1994 edition of Fiske's Guide to Colleges

COSMOPOLITAN, YET HANG-LOOSE

"In many ways, UW-Madison provides an excellent college environment: rigorous academic standards, a competent hard-working student body, a diversity of political and social views passionately espoused, school spirit and a college town that is cosmopolitan, yet hang-loose."

WHAT OTHERS SAY ABOUT MADISON

July 1996 — Money magazine lists Madison as No. 1 among the 300 biggest U.S. metropolitan areas in the Best Places to Live in America ranking.

October 1995 — Bicycling magazine ranked Madison the fourth-best city in the U.S. and Canada for biking.

July 1995 — Swing magazine ranks Madison first in its top 10 places to live for "Generation X-ers."

April 1995 — U.S. News & World Report ranks Madison the third hottest city for growth.

August 1994 — Midwest Living magazine ranks Madison the best midsize city get-away and Wisconsin as the top state for vacation.

"Madison, Wis., is not the best place to live, it's the perfect place to live," says Donna Shalala, former UW-Madison Chancellor who is in her second term as President Clinton's Secretary of Health and Human Services.

MADISON

Capital city in an energetic setting

Madison's awesome beauty and laid-back style appeal to most everyone. Walk along State Street's thriving pedestrian mall and you'll see the elderly on bicycles and yuppies moving around the street vendors, New Age stores and coffee shops.

The 390,000 residents of Dane County, 80 miles west of Milwaukee, have a vibrant economy with plentiful jobs, superb health care and a range of cultural activities usually associated with bigger cities.

Mad City, as locals call it, is also Fun City, especially if you like boats and bikes. The Mendota and Monona lakes are separated by a half-mile wide isthmus that serves as downtown Madison. Add in three other large lakes, and Dane County can satisfy any type of boating preference.

Cyclers have more than 150 miles of trails and routes to pedal. Cross country skiers glide through more than 100 miles of trails. Saturdays in the fall are reserved for rooting on UW's revered Badger football team. Another popular May through October ritual is the farmer's market. Around the corner you can catch an earful at the Madison Civic Center where the Chamber Orchestra and Madison Symphony perform, and Pulitzer prize-winning plays are staged.

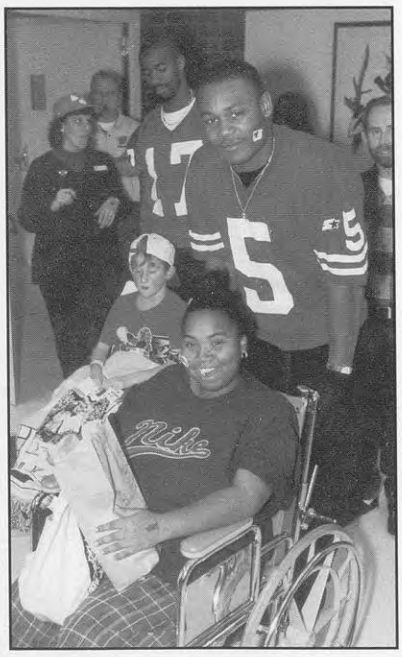
OUTREACH

Badgers pitch in to help out Madison and its residents

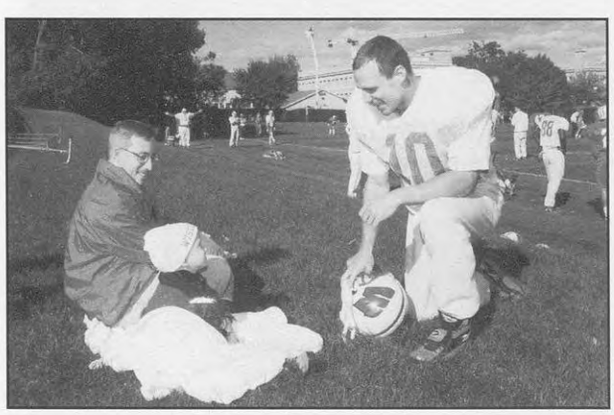
The Wisconsin Department of Athletics has a number of teams that regularly contribute to the city via its outreach programs. The Madison community is truly supportive of the UW athletic teams and its student-athletes. In appreciation of the support, many athletes participate frequently in community service projects.

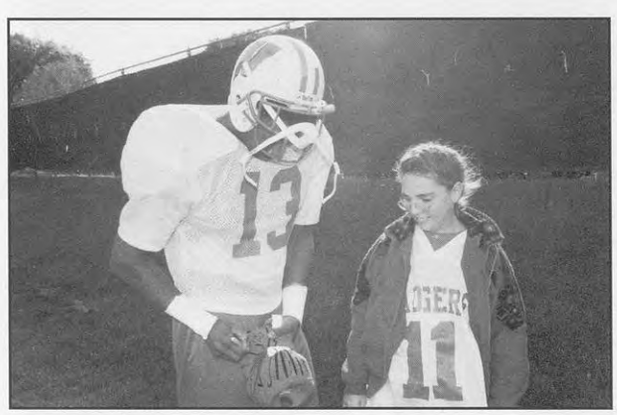
Every season, the football team works together on a community service project to give something back to the city of Madison. Among the projects that the Badgers have volunteered for recently were landscaping and cleanup days in the Eric Circle, Allied Drive and Vera Court neighborhoods. The team has also participated in several walk-a-thons for worthy causes.

Players and coaches make appearances throughout the year at the UW Childrens' Hospital, area schools and many other charity functions and organizations.



HELPING OUT





CAMPUS LIFE

SCENIC CAMPUS

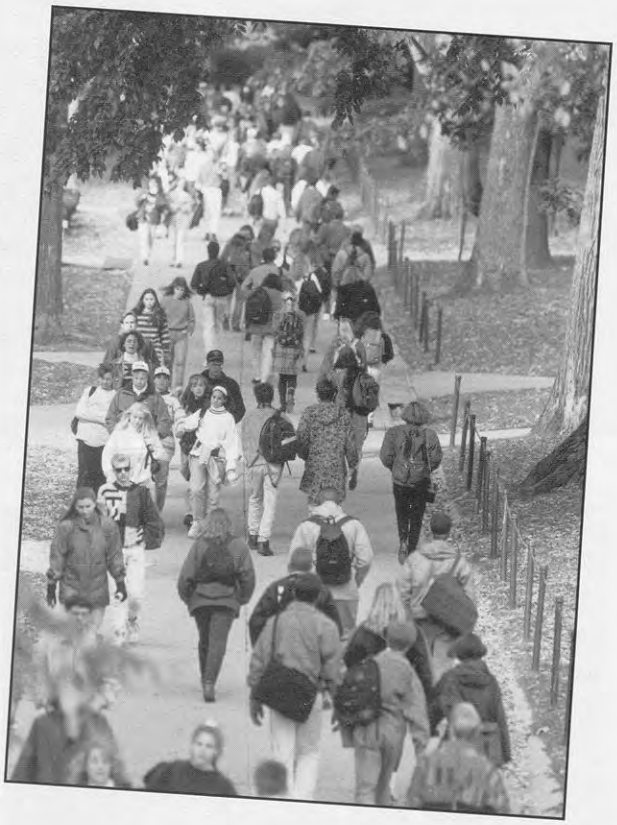
The city of Madison's lakes, rolling hills, architecture, parks and arboretum have enhanced the school's reputation as one of the nation's most picturesque campuses. A favorite gathering spot for students is the beautiful Memorial Union and its lakeside terrace.

STUDENT BODY

The UW's nearly 40,000 UW students come from every county in the state and every state in the union as well as 122 foreign countries. UW-Madison ranks fourth nationally in foreign enrollment and boasts one of the most diverse campuses in the United States.

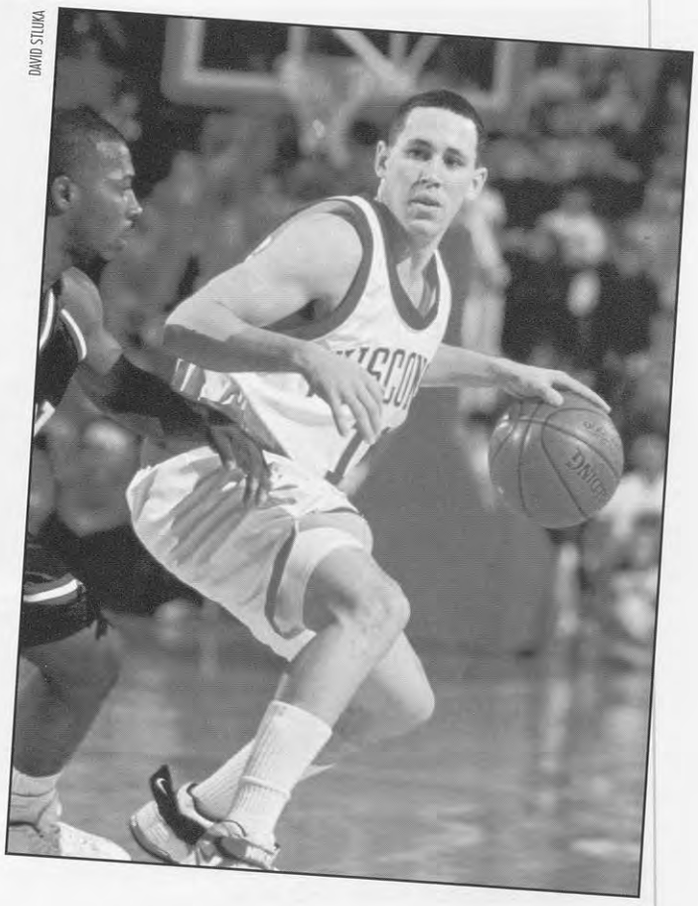
A CAPITAL CITY

Located in southern Wisconsin, Madison is home to the University and the state capital. With a population of 200,000, Madison offers "big city" excitement with "small-town" charm. It is an action-oriented community that is rich in the arts and entertainment.



ATHLETIC SUCCESS

Wisconsin athletics rank among the nation's best



DAVID STUKA

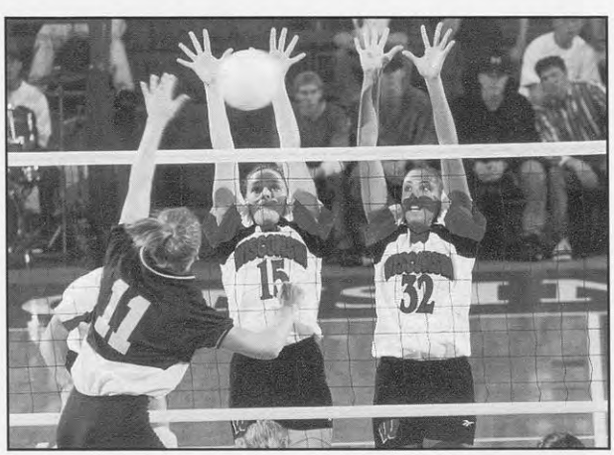
Participating in athletics at the University of Wisconsin guarantees an opportunity to compete at the highest level. The Badgers have developed a national reputation as one of the top all-around schools in Division I-A.

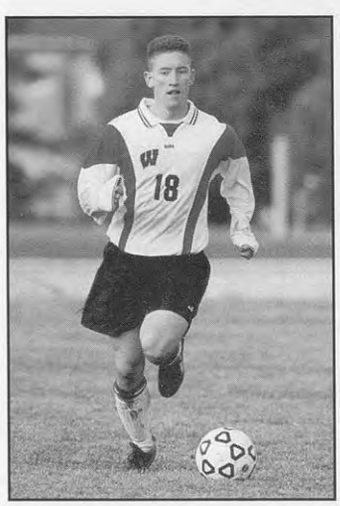
As a member of the Big Ten, Badger student-athletes receive the best in education, coaching, athletic competition, facilities and support.

Wisconsin demonstrated again in 1996-97 that it is one of the NCAA's top all-sports programs. The Badgers once again ranked nationally in the all-encompassing Sears Directors' Cup last year. Wisconsin has placed in the nation's top 20 for all-sports excellence in all four years of the Cup.

The Badgers alsocaptured 1996-97 league titles in men's and women's cross country, indoor and outdoor track plus women's soccer.

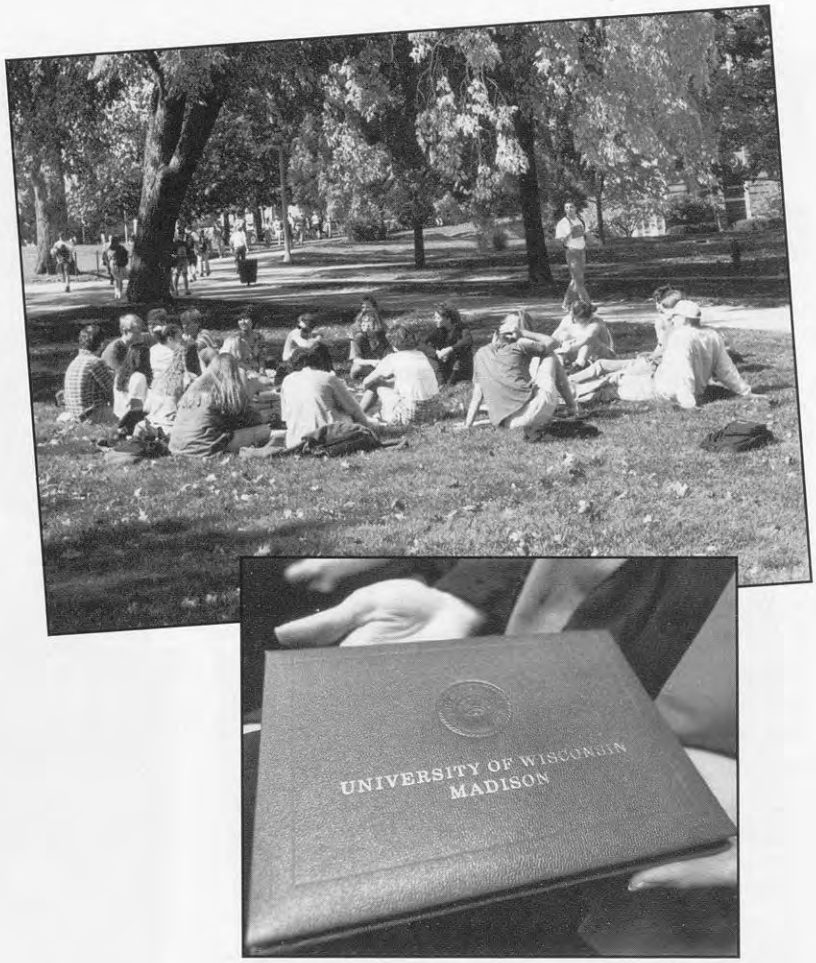
Additionally, the football team played in its third bowl game in four seasons and the men's basketball team earned an NCAA tourney appearance for just the second time in 50 years.





ACADEMICS

Student affairs office oversees academic progress



The primary objective of the academic and student affairs office is to ensure the academic success of all UW student-athletes. Counseling and advising services, plus a number of academic help programs, are offered to all student-athletes at the University.

The academic and student affairs staff assists the UW's 700 student-athletes in registration and course selection, monitoring progress toward degrees and career guidance.

Staff members work with student-athletes who desire extra academic help. The department utilizes the services of more than 100 tutors to provide one-on-one assistance or group study help.

The department arranges for exam proctoring, offers advice on resume preparation and coordinates the grant-in-aid program. Support groups are offered to students who become medically or academically ineligible for competition.

CONDITIONING

Strength program builds better Badger players

The strength and conditioning program is a sophisticated blend of science, technology and one-on-one attention to each athlete. Throughout the year, UW athletes spend more time working on strength and conditioning than any other aspect of their game.

During the off-season, football athletes work on strength improvement, speed, power, agility and conditioning. The in-season program is devoted to the continuation of strength gains and performance-related conditioning.

Each year when freshman players arrive, baseline measures of strength, speed, power, agility, flexibility and endurance are collected. Measures of body composition, weight and frame size are also recorded. With this information, goals are set for development and maintenance. Individual programs are established for each player.

The University also offers a sports nutrition program, which assists athletes in meeting their nutritional needs.

First-Year Gains

When Badger freshmen first report to campus, the UW strength and conditioning staff takes baseline measures of their physical abilities. Frequently, the players make the greatest gains during their first season on campus when they begin to work with the football program's strength staff. Shown below are several of the Badger freshmen and their physical gains from what they reported in August of 1996 to March of 1997.

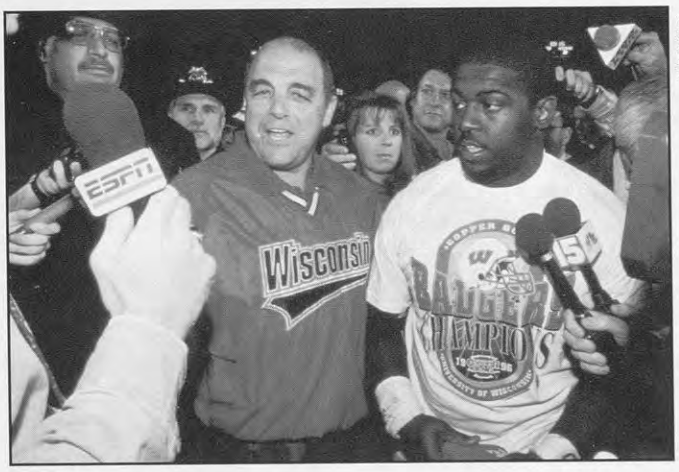
EXPOSURE



DAVID STUKA

A popular choice for TV executives

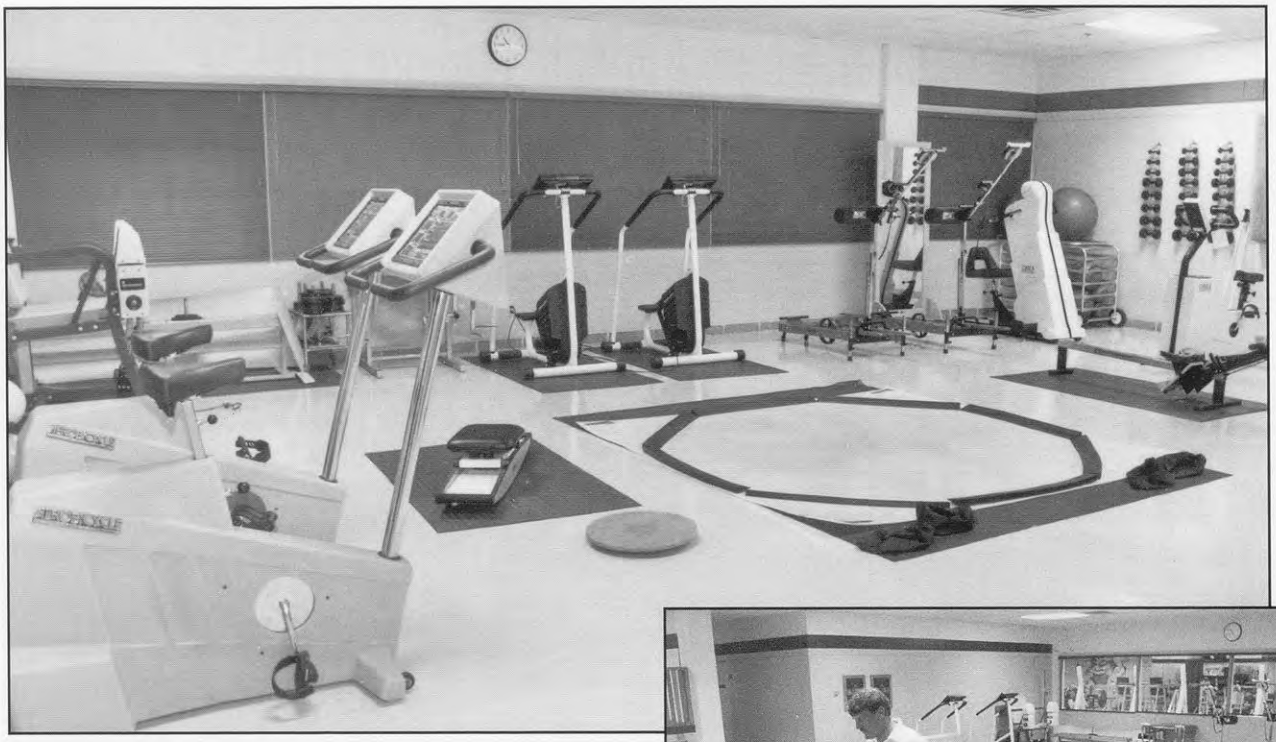
Playing college football in the Big Ten and at Wisconsin is an opportunity for success, excitement and exposure.

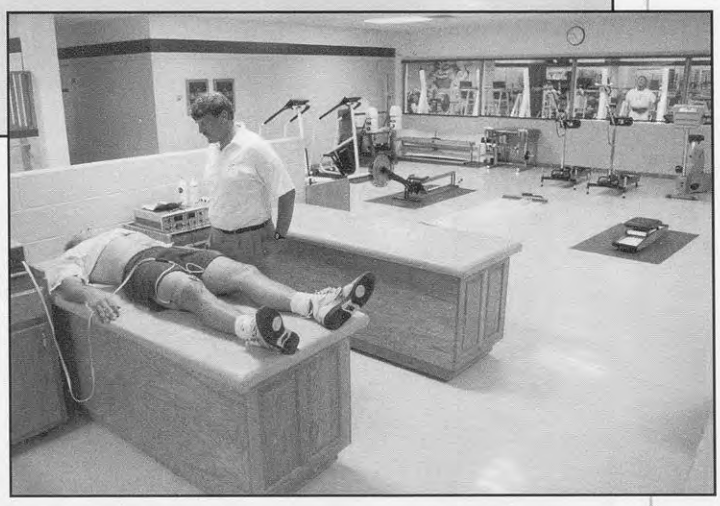
Badger football is unique with its intense media coverage. Among the many media outlets that cover Wisconsin football daily are three local television stations, two radio stations, three major newspapers — two in Madison and one in Milwaukee — two student papers and a specialty publication dedicated to UW sports.

Coach Alvarez and Badger players were featured in nearly every major metropolitan newspaper during their Rose Bowl run of 1993. The Badgers have performed on ABC or ESPN television 23 times since 1993.

All games are broadcast on a state-wide radio network of 43 stations. Home games are replayed on public television's state-wide network each week. Alvarez has a weekly media session that routinely draws 20-plus reporters. Local media members cover Badger football on a daily basis, interviewing players after every practice.

TRAINING ROOM





Sports medicine staff provides total health care & support

The Wisconsin sports medicine program features top-rate facilities and the outstanding services of sports and health care professionals.

The sports medicine program focuses on injury prevention. Staff members utilize Cybex strength-testing devices, provide dietary analyses, measure physiological capacity and outline programs to improve an athlete's flexibility.

The UW is one of a handful of schools with an on-site X-ray machine, enabling physicians to quickly and thoroughly evaluate injuries.

Athletic trainers and physicians work together to design rehabilitation programs for injured athletes. A wide variety of facilities and equipment, including a rehabilitation swimming pool, Cybex equipment, the Impulse Inertial Exercise System, Stairmasters, and Fitron Bicycles, help athletes rehabilitate injuries and minimize the loss of fitness during recuperative time.

THE BEST FANS

Camp Randall Stadium on a fall day is one of the most picturesque backdrops in the nation. The stadium is bordered by a wooded residential area and is within walking distance of Lake Mendota.

Besides exciting gridiron action, fans enjoy some of the most entertaining pre-game tailgating in the nation and a post-game band celebration called the "Fifth Quarter" that is unrivaled.

Wisconsin prepares its Badgers for a chance at professional football

If getting a chance to play in the National Football League is your dream, the Wisconsin football program can be your ticket to earning that opportunity.

Talent evaluators frequent the Madison campus to watch films, speak with coaches and rate the prospects of all team members.

Pursuing a pro football dream is up to you. The University of Wisconsin can enhance your chances.

CAMP RANDALL

Camp Randall Stadium is home to Badger football

Distinguished by its impressive double-deck structure and horseshoe design, Camp Randall Stadium has been the site of 428 Wisconsin games.

Besides the field, Camp Randall houses the athletic department offices, lounges and study areas for athletes, as well as film, training and weight rooms and a display of football memorabilia.

The Stadium is the centerpiece of the athletic complex. Located on the same block on the west side of campus are the McClain Athletic Facility and the UW Field House.

McCLAIN FACILITY

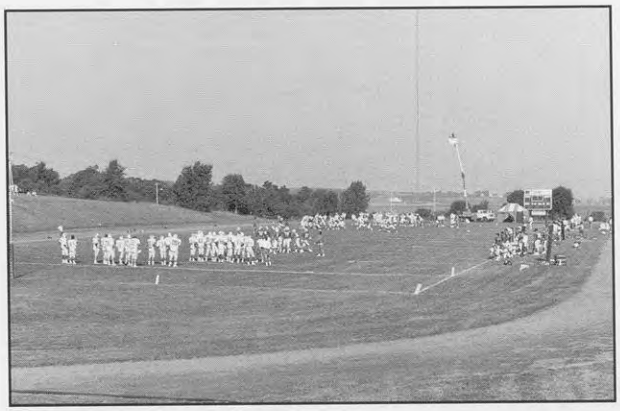
The Dave McClain Athletic Facility

The Dave McClain Athletic Facility, opened in 1988, is a symbol of the Athletic Department's commitment to maintaining a first-class sports program.

The 166,264-square foot facility compares favorably with the best indoor training centers in the nation. Named in honor of the late UW football coach Dave McClain, the structure provides a suitable environment for practice during inclement weather.

A 76,380-square foot main floor features an artificial surface field (90 yards) with a ceiling high enough for kicking. The lower level includes locker rooms, training facilities, the Fetzer Learning Center and a spacious weight room. The second level includes a theater-style auditorium (with seating for 150), classrooms for individual position meetings and a players' lounge. The facility cost $9.5 million to build.

GRID FACILITIES

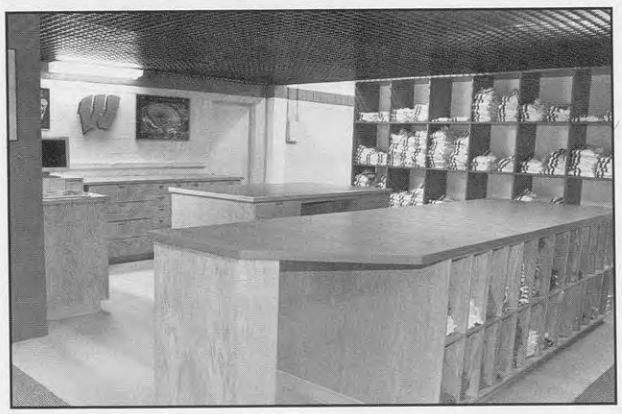


First-class facilities at the UW

Football practice facilities at the University of Wisconsin are first rate. The Badgers utilize Camp Randall Stadium as well as a grass field adjacent to the Stadium for outdoor workouts. In inclement weather, the UW squad moves into the climate-controlled McClain Athletic Facility.

Wisconsin is one of the few schools in the nation that has an off-campus facility for its fall camp. The Badgers spend their sessions at the Holy Name Catholic Center in Middleton, Wis.

With its multiple grass fields as well as dining, meeting and sleeping facilities, the Holy Name Catholic Center is the top fall training camp facility in the Big Ten.



WALK-ONS

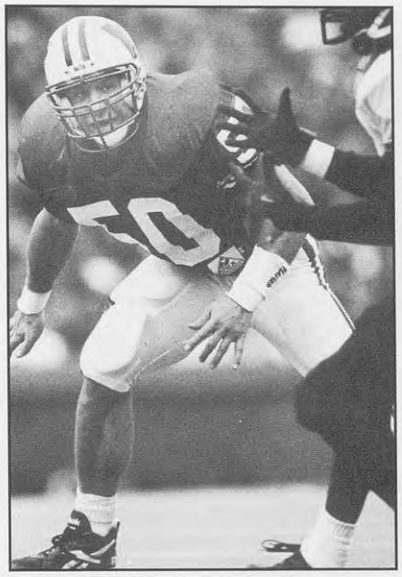
Walk-ons make their mark with the Badgers

Not all high school football players earn scholarships to compete in college. That doesn't mean there isn't an opportunity for those individuals, especially at the University of Wisconsin, where walk-on athletes have a history of contribution.

Joe Panos became a walk-on success story. Panos transferred from UW-Whitewater in 1991. He changed positions at UW, earned a scholarship, became a three-year starter, captained the Rose Bowl team and now plays for the Philadelphia Eagles.

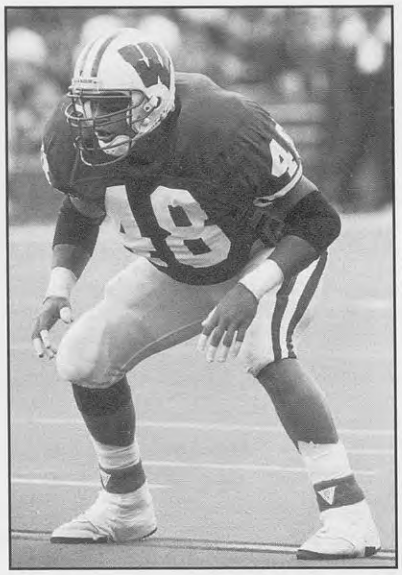
"Walk-ons have that extra drive because they're trying to prove something," says Coach Alvarez. "I love that spirit and determination in my players."

Among the walk-on success stories under Alvarez are academic all-Big Ten selections Korey Manley, Jeff Rasmussen, Sam Veit and Chad Cascadden. Aaron Norvell was the team's leading tackler as a senior and Chris Hein and Rick Schnetzky were starters on the Rose and Hall of Fame Bowl teams.



"I certainly appreciated the opportunity that the Wisconsin coaches gave me to prove my worth. There is a genuine attempt at helping walk-ons develop, both as players and people."

Joe Panos, Philadelphia Eagles



"Walk-ons are important to the success of our program. There is a history of walk-on success here. Without question, there is a very real chance to earn a scholarship through the program."

NCAA RULES

WHO IS A PROSPECTIVE STUDENT-ATHLETE?

You are a prospect if you have started classes for the ninth grade. Before the ninth grade, you may become a prospect if a university provides you any financial aid or other benefit that is not usually provided to prospects.

HOW DO I KNOW IF I'M BEING RECRUITED?

A coach is recruiting you if they try to convince you directly, or through your family, to attend their school and participate in intercollegiate athletics. There are several ways to be recruited: (1) the school may provide you with an official visit; (2) a coach may arrange an in-person, off-campus encounter with you (or your family) or (3) a coach or staff member may call you (or your family) on more than one occasion for the purpose of recruitment. Coaches and authorized institutional staff members are the only individuals who may recruit you. Representatives of athletic interests (boosters) may not call, write or make in-person contact with you for the purpose of attending the University of Wisconsin and participating in athletics.

WHEN CAN A COACH CONTACT ME?

OFF-CAMPUS CONTACT: A coach can arrange a face-to-face meeting, off the University's campus, with you beginning July 1st following the completion of your junior year in high school.

TELEPHONE CALLS: Phone calls from a coach or institutional staff member may not be made until August 15th following the completion of your junior year in high school. You may call a coach at your own expense at any time. However, unless it is after July 1st following your junior year, the coach may not return your call. Generally, a coach may only call you (or your parents or legal guardians) once a week, however unlimited phone calls are permitted under the following circumstances: (1) during the five days before your official visit; (2) on the initial date for signing the National Letter of Intent and the two days following; (3) on the day of a coach's off-campus contact with you; and (4) in the sport of football only, unlimited phone calls may be made during permissible off-campus contact periods and during the two days before and after the initial signing date for the National Letter of Intent.

LETTERS: Letters and recruiting information may be sent to you starting September 1st at the beginning of your junior year in high school.

WHAT CAN AN INSTITUTION OFFER ME TO ATTEND THEIR SCHOOL?

You (or your family) may not receive any benefit, inducement or arrangements such as cash, clothing, cars, gifts or loans to encourage you to sign a National Letter of Intent or to attend an NCAA school. The University of Wisconsin may offer you a one-year scholarship that covers room and board, tuition and fees, and required course-related books, or any part of these. The institutions can recommend that this aid is renewed each year, as is the general practice at the University of Wisconsin. In addition, they can offer you academic and medical support, as well as, the opportunity to compete for one of the top programs in the nation.

WHAT CAN I DO DURING THE PROCESS?

Enjoy your prep years — work hard both in the classroom and in your sport. At the beginning of your junior year, sign up for the NCAA Clearinghouse. Your high school guidance office can provide you with the information you need.

Young offensive line must provide time for talented skill position performers. Defense features new-look secondary and skilled, but untested, front seven.

The 1997 Wisconsin football team has both an air of familiarity and an element of newness.

Many of the team's skill position players on both sides of the ball are back again. On the other hand, player introductions may be required when the trenches line up to square off.

The familiar faces on offense are the ballhandlers. QB Mike Samuel, TB Ron Dayne, and receivers Tony Simmons, Donald Hayes and Kevin Huntley are the veterans.

The Badgers, however, return only one full-time starter on the line. He is sophomore left tackle Chris McIntosh.

The Wisconsin defense has a similar mix. There are three familiar faces in the secondary although several position shifts were made in the spring. The front seven, however, has only two — linebacker David Lysek and end Tom Burke — returning starters.

There were huge graduation losses from the 1996 team, which won eight games including a Copper Bowl triumph over Utah.

The departed seniors left a legacy as the winningest group in school history. The class won three bowl games.

Among the departed are Pete Monty (school's all-time tackle leader), Tarek Saleh (UW's career sack record holder), Jerry Wunsch (all-America tackle), Jamie Vanderveldt (all-Big Ten guard), Bryan Jurewicz (four-year starter on the defensive line), Daryl Carter (big-play defender at outside linebacker) and John Hall (all-league placekicker and punter).

Though the losses are large, Alvarez feels that many of the returning players are poised to assume larger roles.

Badgers seek offensive balance, although Heisman candidate Dayne will get his carries

Wisconsin relied heavily on the running game in its sprint to postseason play last fall. With a year of experience for Samuel and the return of Huntley to the offense, Alvarez hopes to balance his attack a little better. A year ago, the Badgers gained 65 percent of their yardage on the ground.

TAILBACK — Dayne, college football's second-largest tailback (261 pounds), broke nearly every NCAA freshman rushing mark and enters 1997 as one of the favorites for the Heisman Trophy. He joined only 10 other players in college history to rush for more than 2,000 yards in a season and eclipsed the all-time Big Ten rushing record in the process.

The bulldozing Dayne had five games over 200 yards, including a whopping 339-yard effort at Hawaii. That was just 58 yards short of the NCAA's single-game record, and he was lifted from the lineup in the third quarter of that contest. Dayne didn't start until the fifth game, but his emergence paralleled the team's late-season winning ways.

As the Badgers won five of their final six games, Dayne averaged 283 yards on the ground in those triumphs.

The Badgers, who have produced a different 1,000-yard rusher in each of the last four seasons, also return the services and experience of senior Carl McCullough (he had 1,038 yards in 1995) as Dayne's backup. The fifth-year senior added 534 yards to the Badgers' Big Ten-best running attack in '96.

FULLBACK — Strong blocking fullbacks have become a trademark of the UW rushing attack under Alvarez. Filling that role for the third consecutive season is athletic Cecil Martin, who has averaged nearly five yards per carry in his career. Martin, also a good receiver, gets support from Branden Cantrell, a 262-pound blocker.

QUARTERBACK — Samuel offers athleticism and strength to the QB position. He enters his junior campaign with a lot more experience than he had a year ago. Samuel guided an offense that registered more than 5,000 total yards in '96.

He completed 58.3 percent of his passes for 1,752 yards. Because of his ability to run the ball (155 yards and five TDs), Samuel was fifth in the Big Ten in total offense.

With teams expected to try and slow the ground game, it will be important for Samuel to mix things up with a dependable passing attack.

Sophomore Scott Kavanagh is No. 2 on the depth chart. The smooth-throwing Kavanagh recorded a 165.1 pass efficiency rating in limited action.

RECEIVERS — There probably isn't a team in the nation with a trio of receivers like Simmons, Hayes and Huntley.

Simmons, the Big Ten's fastest athlete after winning the '97 outdoor track title in the 100 meters (10.29), returns after an injury-plagued campaign. He suffered a foot fracture early in 1996 and played on it for eight games before re-injuring it in a November practice session.

Simmons needs 666 yards receiving to become the school's all-time leader. He is second in career TD catches, one shy of the UW record, and has averaged a touchdown for every 3.9 receptions in his career.

Hayes is gifted with height (6-foot-5) and all-around athletic excellence. He led the team with 44 catches for 629 yards.

Both Simmons and Hayes will make pre-season all-star lists in the Big Ten.

A third addition at wide receiver is Huntley, the team's starting free safety the last two years. Huntley started several games as a true freshman at receiver before a position change to the secondary in 1995. He recorded 187 tackles and six interceptions as a defensive back. Huntley provides another game-breaker on offense.

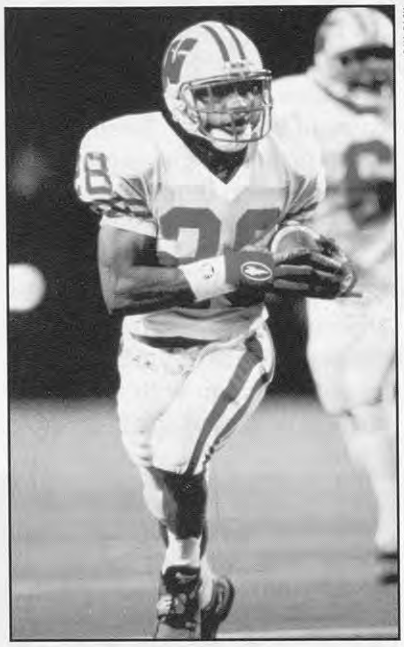
TIGHT END — Ryan Sondrup, who was expected to be the starter last fall before an injury, is the best pass-catching tight end on the club and ended spring camp as the starter.

Wisconsin native Eric Grams, a former walk-on, was a good addition last fall and is an emerging performer.

Wisconsin used two tight ends on occasion last fall and that could continue. A pair of redshirt freshmen — Dague Retzlaff (6-8, 271 pounds) and Mike Solwold — are in the mix.

OFFENSIVE LINE — The area hit hardest by graduation was the offensive line, where seven fifth-year seniors concluded their careers.

That contingent included four starters. Leadership also vanished as three of those blockers were captains.



C.W. PACK

All-league cornerback Jason Suttle is in his third campaign as a starter.

The leadership baton has been passed to McIntosh, a gifted 315-pound Wisconsin native. He started 13 times as a rookie and earned academic all-league honors.

Mark Tauscher and Pat Daley, a pair of sophomores, are the reserve tackles.

The center was supposed to be JC transfer Coleman Johnson. He claimed the starting spot early in spring training but a knee injury required surgery. His availability for the fall is a question.

Three redshirt freshmen will make up the interior of the line. Dave Costa and Bill Ferrario spent all spring as the starters at guard. Ferrario just moved to guard from the defense.

The losses from last season's defense are significant, but the staff feels a number of relatively inexperienced performers will prosper with a chance.

The secondary, which allowed more than 250 yards per game through the air, is the most-experienced segment of the stop troops.

DEFENSIVE LINE — The lone returning starter on the line is junior Tom Burke, who has played both tackle and end. Burke started the last six games at end and finished with 64 tackles, tops among the returning linemen.

girdiron after two seasons on the Wisconsin hockey team.

On the interior of the line, junior Brandon Williams is first-team at tackle. He will resume a fall battle with redshirt freshman Ross Kolodziej for the starting spot. Kolodziej was on the first unit but suffered an appendectomy in April. Marcus Carpenter, a versatile athlete, has worked at several spots in the trenches.

LINEBACKERS — Despite the loss of Monty, the Badgers will field a strong linebacking corps. Senior David Lysek is the team's top returning tackler (88). His partner will come from a quartet that includes senior Brian Flanigan, and sophomores Donny Eicher, Donnel Thompson and Chris Ghidorzi.

Eicher and Thompson shared starting duties in the spring. Eicher, a former state player of the year, was injured last year. Thompson, a former walk-on, made his mark on the special teams in 1996. Ghidorzi impressed observers as a true freshman, but was limited in spring drills because of injuries.

Former strong saftey Bob Adamov has moved to outside linebacker and is an able performer. Athletic Ed Hartwell and former quarterback Marcus White will also get looks.

DEFENSIVE BACKS — Many of the names in the secondary are familiar. Only one (Jason Suttle), however, will line up at the same position as a year ago.

Suttle, who led the team with five interceptions, is an all-star at cornerback. He is in his third campaign as a starter.

Former strong safety Leonard Taylor re-emerged as Suttle's mate at cornerback. Taylor started eight times at safety as a freshman in 1995.

Sam Elmore, a speedy redshirt freshman, and sophomore Onjai Bryant, who played as a rookie, are exciting prospects as reserve cornerbacks.

LaMar Campbell paced the UW with 12 passes broken up and picked off four other throws last year. The cornerback-turned-free safety will better utilize his anticipatory skills at his new position.

Bobby Myers and Tim Rosga are experienced safeties. Rosga returned punts and held on placements last fall.

The newest member of the secondary is former wide receiver Demetrius Brown. The physical Brown excelled in the spring and assumed a starter's role at strong safety.

Walk-on Jason Doering and Taylor are listed as back-ups at strong safety.

Hall is gone so replacements are needed on placements and punts

The Badgers must identify replacements for John Hall, a second-team all-league pick, who handled all kicking chores in '96.

Rugged Big Ten schedule and Kickoff Classic highlight slate

Wisconsin gets a chance to open the college football season early with its participation in Kickoff Classic XV vs. Big East-power Syracuse on Aug. 24.

The difficult Big Ten schedule will have a new look this fall. Four of the Badgers' opening five league foes — Indiana, Illinois, Purdue and Minnesota — have new coaches. Wisconsin closes the season with games against Iowa, Michigan and Penn State.

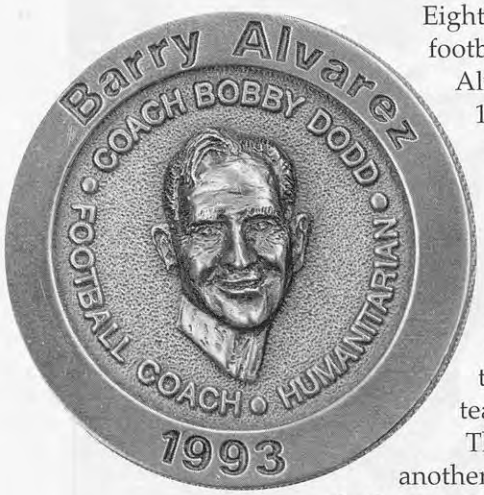
Aaron Gibson, who started five times at tight end in 1996, will work at right tackle this year. The 6-foot-7, 390-pound Gibson is the largest player in Div. I-A.

BARRY ALVAREZ

Head Coach, 8th year at Wisconsin



Eighth-year Wisconsin football coach Barry Alvarez begins the 1997 campaign with a lot of momentum. His club of a year ago finished with a flourish, and he likes the mix of youthful exuberance and star potential of his current team.

The '96 Badgers added another chapter in the football resurrection story at the UW with a 38-10 Copper Bowl triumph over Utah. That team became just the fourth in the last 50 years at the school to win at least eight games. Wisconsin also registered just its ninth winning season in the last 33 years (and the third for Alvarez in four seasons).

The bowl game victory over the Utes allowed Alvarez' program to join an elite group — Nebraska, Florida State, Tennessee, Penn State, Alabama and Colorado — of programs which have won three bowl games since 1993.

Alvarez, who enjoyed immense success as both a player at Nebraska and as an assistant coach at Iowa and Notre Dame prior to his appointment in Madison, has turned the football fortunes around at a school that produced just six winning seasons in the 26 years before his arrival.

Alvarez' clubs in the last four years have generated more wins, interest, fan support, TV exposure and honors than any prior era of Badger football.

Upon his arrival in Madison, Alvarez was handed the reins of a program in disarray.

There was fan apathy as the school was coming off its lowest attendance average in 45 years.

There was a losing attitude since the UW had finished no better than eighth place in the Big Ten and had won just 25 percent of its games in the previous five years.

There was a lack of resources as the school faced the elimination of sports to save money and pay the bills. The pressure was on the football program to prosper and rebuild the department's financial ledgers.

Alvarez, however, had a plan. Through it all, he preached togetherness, toughness, discipline, focus and a no-nonsense approach to winning.

A NEW LEVEL OF SUCCESS AT THE UW

What transpired was a dramatic turnaround that rallied the university, unified the state of Wisconsin and made it desirable to "be a Badger" once again.

During his tenure, Alvarez reversed the fortunes of a program that had hit rock bottom. After a 1-10 rookie season, Alvarez guided the UW to a Big Ten co-championship and Rose Bowl triumph in his fourth year.

Only two coaches in Big Ten history — Alvarez and Ohio State's Wes Fesler (1947-49) — took last-place programs their first year and turned them into eventual league champs.

The Badgers followed the '93 storybook season, which was the winningest in UW history, with a 1995 Hall of Fame Bowl win over Duke.

Over the last four campaigns, the Badgers have posted a 30-14-4 (.667) record. It took the Badgers 90 games (30-68-1, .308) to win that many contests prior to the '93 season.

Besides the obvious on-field improvement, home crowds have increased by an incredible 87.4 percent since his arrival. The Badgers have ranked in the top 10 nationally for attendance the last four seasons and have played in front of 20 sellouts in the last 22 games at Camp Randall Stadium.

COLLEGE COACHING RESUME

Alvarez was appointed the school's 27th football coach on Dec. 31, 1989, one day after his 42nd birthday. "My old coach, Bob Devaney, told me that I should set a goal for myself to take a head coaching job by the time I was 42," Alvarez said. "I missed it by one day."

For three seasons, Alvarez was an assistant for Lou Holtz at Notre Dame. He served as linebackers coach in 1987, was promoted to defensive coordinator in 1988 and to assistant head coach in 1989.

Notre Dame finished 17th, first and second in the final Associated Press poll the three seasons Alvarez was there. The Fighting Irish won an incredible 23 consecutive games in 1988 and 1989.

The 1988 Fighting Irish team won the national championship and posted a 12-0 record. As coordinator, Alvarez' defense ranked third nationally in scoring, 10th against the run and 13th in total defense.

Notre Dame was 12-1 in 1989 and the nation's No. 1 team for 11 weeks. Alvarez' defense keyed a 21-6 Orange Bowl victory over top-ranked Colorado.

Alvarez coached all-America linebackers Michael Stonebreaker (a consensus pick), Ned Bolcar, Cedric Figaro and Wes Pritchett at ND.

As an Iowa assistant, he coached linebackers from 1979-86. The Hawkeyes went to bowl games the last six years, after 17 seasons without a winning season.

Alvarez coached five first-team all-Big Ten linebackers at Iowa, where his prize pupil was two-time consensus all-American Larry Station. An academic all-American as well, Station set the Hawkeyes' career tackle record.

His first head coaching job was at Lexington (Neb.) High School from 1974-75. He compiled a 16-4 ledger and was the Nebraska prep Coach of the Year in 1974. Alvarez then coached at Mason City (Iowa) High School from 1976-78, compiling a 21-9 mark. Included was a 4A state title in 1978, when he was league and district Coach of the Year.

Barry got his coaching start in 1971 as an assistant at Lincoln (Neb.) Northeast High School. The squad won a state title in 1972.

PERSONAL INFORMATION

A three-year letterman as a Nebraska linebacker, Alvarez was the top tackler among linebackers (112) for the 1967 Cornhuskers. That club led the nation in total (157.6 yards) and passing defense (90.1), was third nationally vs. the run (67.5) and created a school-record 40 turnovers. Nebraska led the Big Eight in total defense all three of Alvarez' varsity years on the way to compiling a 25-7 record and gaining berths in the Orange and Sugar Bowls. He also played in the Blue-Gray game after his senior season.

Alvarez earned his bachelor of science degree in 1969 and a master of arts degree from Nebraska in 1971.

Barry and his wife, Cindy, have two daughters, Dawn (Mrs. Brad Ferguson) and Stacy; a son, Chad; and a grandson, Joe. Alvarez was born Dec. 30, 1946, in Burgettstown, Pa.

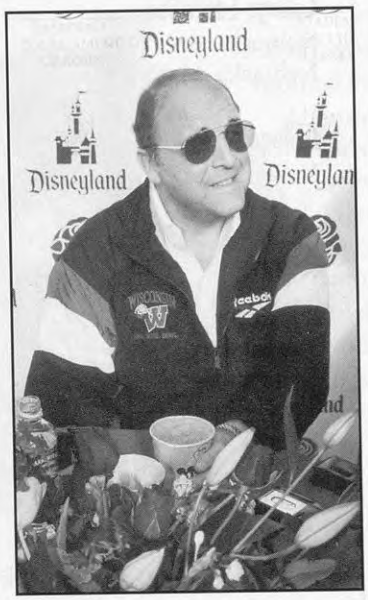
BOWL CHAMPIONS



A ROSY SEASON

The 1993 Badgers will be remembered as the squad that established new standards. The winningest team in UW history ...

- was co-champ of the Big Ten and won its first Rose Bowl.
- finished fifth (coaches) and sixth (media) in the final polls.
- posted the NCAA's largest attendance increase.
- improved its record by 5.5 games from '92, the largest gain in school history.

For those achievements, Alvarez was named national Coach of the Year by the American Football Coaches Association, the Bobby Dodd Foundation, College and Pro Football Newsweekly and College Sports magazine.

Alvarez also became the first Wisconsin coach to earn the Dave McClain Big Ten Coach of the Year Award. He received 94 percent of the first-place votes.

The team was led by Big Ten and Rose Bowl Most Valuable Player Brent Moss, who set a school-record with 1,637 rushing yards. Quarterback Darrell Bevell also set a Wisconsin standard with 2,390 yards passing and his top target, Lee DeRamus, bettered the school's season receiving record (920 yards).

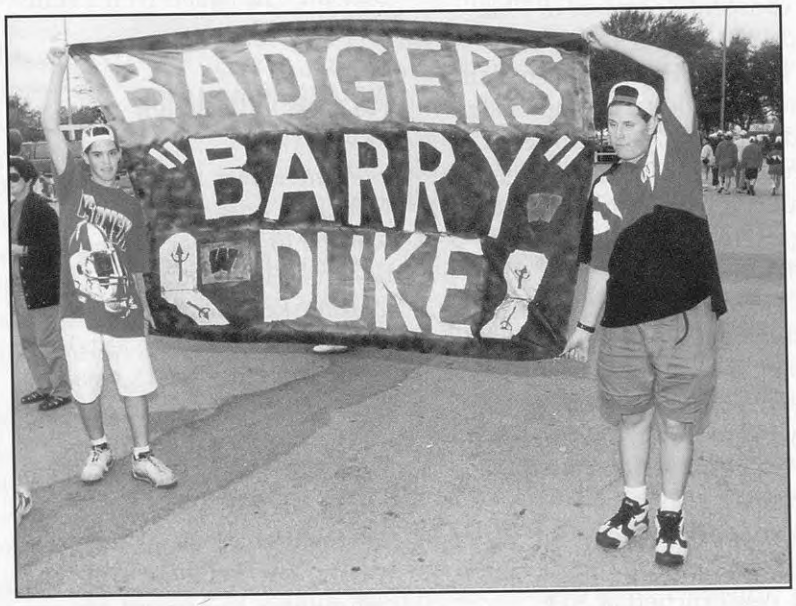
The season was also noteworthy because of the Badgers' Rose Bowl-clinching victory over Michigan State in a game that was played in Tokyo. It is the only game in Big Ten history to be played outside of the United States.

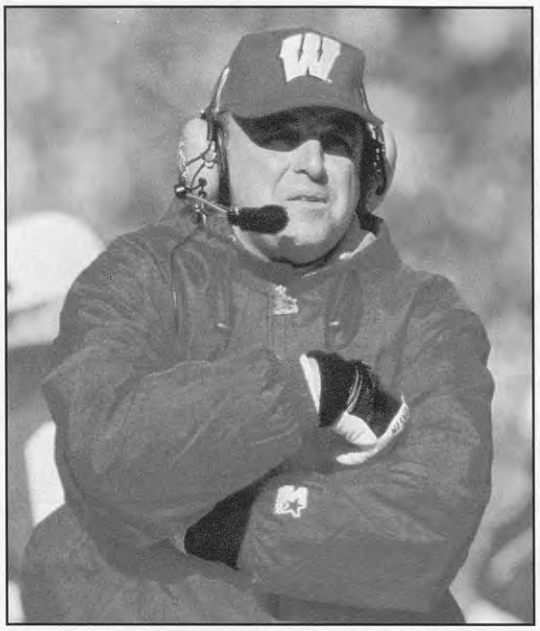
HALL OF FAME CAMPAIGN

The '94 club had to deal with increased expectations, a difficult road schedule and an unusual number of injuries to key players. Through it all, the Badgers met every challenge head on.

For the second year in a row, the Badgers finished strong, including the school's first win at Michigan since '62, a bowl-clinching victory over Illinois and the 34-20 win over Duke in the Hall of Fame Bowl.

The Badgers smashed all previous school attendance records, earned seven TV appearances and had seven NFL draft picks.





A COPPER CHAMPIONSHIP

Wisconsin's 1996 team closed quickly winning four times in the final five weeks to secure a bid to play in the Copper Bowl. The Badgers smashed Utah 38-10 to win their third bowl game in four seasons. Only six other schools — Tennessee, Colorado, Penn State, Alabama, Nebraska and Florida State — can make that claim.

The 1996 Badgers became just the fourth in the last 50 years at the school to win at least eight games, registering an 8-5 mark. Wisconsin also recorded just its ninth winning season in the last 33 years.

Tarek Saleh and Jerry Wunsch earned all-America honors after successful senior campaigns. Pete Monty led the Big Ten in tackles and became the school's career leader with 451.

Ron Dayne, a true freshman, broke nearly every rushing mark in UW history, and became just the 12th collegian to rush for more than 2,000 yards.

When the most successful seasons in Wisconsin history are discussed, one name is prevalent. COACH BARRY ALVAREZ. Did you know that ...

Barry, Year-by-Year

1996: 8-5 (3-5 BIG TEN)

The Badgers opened quickly with a 3-0 non-league slate before losing four games (three by a combined total of 10 points) to highly ranked foes. Wisconsin closed 4-1 and then ended the year with a 38-10 win over Utah in the Copper Bowl. Ron Dayne set an NCAA freshman rushing record with 2,109 yards, and Pete Monty became the school's career tackle leader.

1995: 4-5-2 (3-4-1 BIG TEN)

With the most inexperienced squad in the Big Ten and facing the nation's most difficult schedule (according to the Seattle Times), the Badgers posted a 4-5-2 campaign. Darrell Bevell broke nearly every passing record at the UW. The 17-9 upset at Penn State broke the NCAA's longest win streak (20).

1994: 8-3-1 (5-2-1 BIG TEN)

Wisconsin won its second straight January bowl game by defeating Duke in the Hall of Fame Bowl. The regular season featured a win at Michigan for the first time since 1962 and a school-record 632-yard total offensive output vs. Indiana. Center Cory Raymer was a consensus all-American. Seven players were drafted by the NFL and five others signed free agent contracts.

1993: 10-1-1 (6-1-1 BIG TEN)

The winningest team in UW history was Big Ten co-champ, beat UCLA in the Rose Bowl and was ranked as high as fifth (coaches) in the final polls. UW had the NCAA's largest attendance increase, and its .875 winning percentage was the best by a Big Ten team since '79. The 5.5-game improvement in the win column was the best in school history. A school-record eight players were named first-team all-Big Ten. Tailback Brent Moss was the Badgers' first Big Ten Most Valuable Player since 1962.

1992: 5-6 (3-5 BIG TEN)

The UW was 5-6 and climbed in the Big Ten standings for the third season in a row. The Badgers upset 12th-ranked Ohio State, the first win over a nationally rated foe in eight years. Wisconsin received votes in the polls and ended the year one win short of a bowl bid. Three of the losses were by a total of four points. Inside linebacker Gary Casper set the school's career tackle record.

1991: 5-6 (2-6 BIG TEN)

Wisconsin improved its win total by four games, the fourth-largest improvement in the NCAA. Troy Vincent was an all-American and runner-up for the Jim Thorpe Award. A victory at Minnesota broke a 23-game road losing streak.

1990: 1-10 (0-8 BIG TEN)

The UW was within striking distance entering the fourth quarter in 10 games, although its only victory was a 24-7 triumph over Ball State. Wisconsin had the third-best attendance gain in the NCAA.

BILL CALLAHAN
Assistant with Philadelphia Eagles

JAY NORVELL
Offensive Coordinator at Iowa State

MIKE CASSITY
Defensive Coordinator at Baylor

DAVID STILKA

BRAD CHILDRESS

Offensive Coordinator & Quarterbacks

PLAYERS COACHED BY CHILDRESS

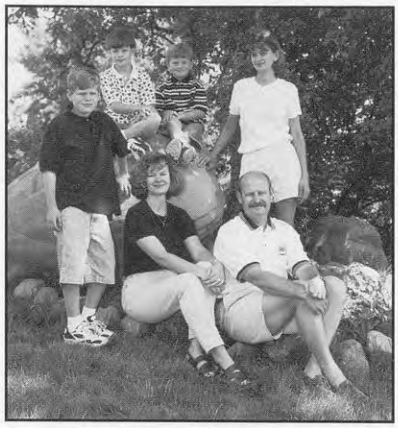
Darrell Bevell, Wisconsin — first-team all-Big Ten in 1993 ... fourth-leading passer (7,686) in Big Ten history ... set conference records for completion percentage in a game and season ... broke 17 school passing and total offense marks.

David Williams, Illinois — set a Big Ten record with 101 pass receptions in 1984 ... No. 1 in career receiving at Illinois (262 catches, 3,392 yards) ... set Fighting Illini school marks for catches (16) and yards (208) in a game ... drafted by the Bears (3rd round).

Greg Wyatt, Northern Arizona — passed for more than 10,000 career yards and completed 962 passes, the second-most in NCAA history at the time ... broke 60 Northern Arizona and NCAA records.

DAVID STLUKA

Coach Brad Childress



Brad Childress, offensive coordinator at Wisconsin since '92, is the man responsible for directing the two most-potent offenses in school history. Childress' units have been successful both on the ground and through the air during his tenure.

The '96 Badgers averaged 249.4 yards rushing per game, which led the Big Ten for the second time (1993 was the other) in four seasons. The '95 team averaged 221.7 yards through the air and completed 206 passes, both school records.

During his Wisconsin tenure, Childress has coached the Badgers' season leaders in rushing (Ron Dayne), passing (Darrell Bevell), receiving (Lee DeRamus) and scoring (Dayne).

Childress came to Wisconsin in 1991 as running backs coach and was promoted to offensive coordinator in charge of quarterbacks in his second season.

Among Childress' better Wisconsin offenses were ...

- the 1993 club, which set a Wisconsin record by averaging 455.2 total yards per game, then the fourth-highest mark in Big Ten history. That club ranked first in the league in rushing (eighth nationally) and total offense (12th), second in scoring (25th) and fourth in passing. The Badgers established a Big Ten record for completion percentage in a season (.675).
- the '94 Badgers were only the second team in UW history (the 1993 team was the other) to record more than 5,000 total yards. Wisconsin set a modern-era school record with 632 yards against Indiana. The Badgers were nationally ranked in rushing (ninth) and total offense (18th).
- the 1996 team, which led the Big Ten in rushing and featured Dayne, a 2,000-yard rusher.

Prior to joining the UW staff, Childress was wide receivers coach at Utah (1989) and offensive coordinator at Northern Arizona (1986-89). He coached quarterbacks and helped with the computerized scouting department of the Indianapolis Colts in 1985 after a seven-year stint (1978-84) at Illinois. He was a full-time assistant with the running backs and wide receivers his final five campaigns in Champaign after two years as a graduate assistant.

KEVIN COSGROVE

Defensive Coordinator & Inside Linebackers

PLAYERS COACHED BY COSGROVE

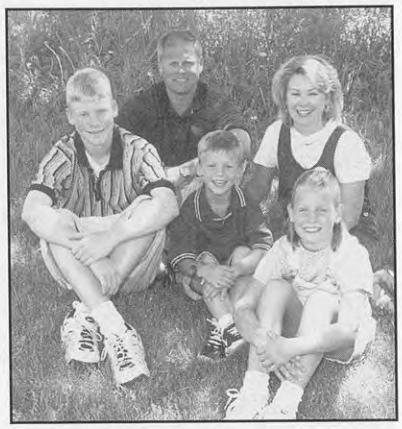
Darrick Brownlow, Illinois — Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year as a senior ... two-time first-team all-Big Ten ... Illinois' No. 3 career tackler (483) ... fifth-round pick of the Dallas Cowboys in 1991.

Pete Monty, Wisconsin — the Big Ten's leading tackler in 1996, when he made first-team all-Big Ten by the coaches ... two-time captain was MVP as a senior ... No. 1 career tackler in Wisconsin history.

Eric Unverzagt, Wisconsin — co-MVP as a senior when he led team in tackles ... ended Badger career with 296 stops, 15th-most in school history ... drafted by the Seattle Seahawks, he was allocated to the World League in 1997.

DAVID STLUKA

Coach Kevin Cosgrove



Kevin Cosgrove, the third-year defensive coordinator, is the only remaining coach of Barry Alvarez' original staff at the UW. Cosgrove joined the Badger staff as linebackers coach in 1990 and added coordinator duties prior to '95.

The long-time Big Ten assistant coach was in charge of linebackers at Illinois for eight seasons (1980-87). Cosgrove has been a coach on six Big Ten teams that played in bowl games.

He also served as defensive coordinator at SE Missouri State in 1988 and worked for Earle Bruce as a defensive assistant in 1989 before coming to Madison.

His defenses are characterized as strong against the run and are known for excellent linebacker play. A Cosgrove linebacker has been the club's leading tackler six times. That includes Pete Monty, the '96 Big Ten leader.

In both 1992 (Aaron Norvell and Gary Casper) and 1994 (Monty and Eric Unverzagt), Cosgrove's starting linebackers each recorded more than 100 tackles.

Wisconsin's 1996 defense surrendered just 116.2 yards rushing and 19.4 points per game, third- and fourth-best in the Big Ten. That defense also authored a shutout over Stanford, the third of the Alvarez era.

The 1995 defense allowed 22.2 points per game and held three opponents to single-figure scoring. The Badgers had a string of 100 consecutive shutout minutes vs. Stanford, SMU and Penn State. Wisconsin held five foes to fewer than 100 yards rushing for the first time since 1982.

One of the midwest's top recruiters, Cosgrove signed Jeff George, Moe Gardner and Darrick Brownlow at Illinois. George was the NFL's No. 1 draft pick in 1990, Gardner was a two-time consensus all-American and Brownlow was Big Ten Defensive MVP.

His UW recruits include Terrell Fletcher (Chargers), Lamark Shackerford (two-time all-Big Ten), Monty (career tackle leader) and Aaron Gibson (the largest player in Division I-A this season).

Cosgrove got additional coaching experience after the '95 season, assisting Alvarez as the defensive coordinator in the Blue-Gray Game.

TIM DAVIS

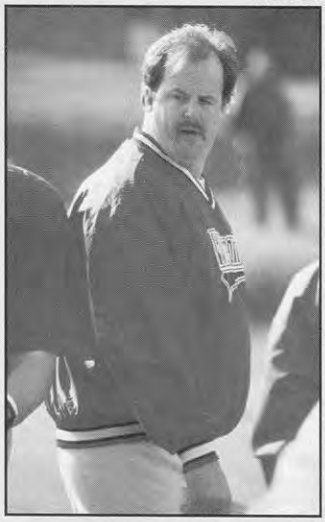
PLAYERS COACHED BY DAVIS

Henry Lusk, Utah — second-team all-Western Athletic Conference tight end ... named 1993 Freedom Bowl MVP ... drafted in the fourth round by the Redskins.

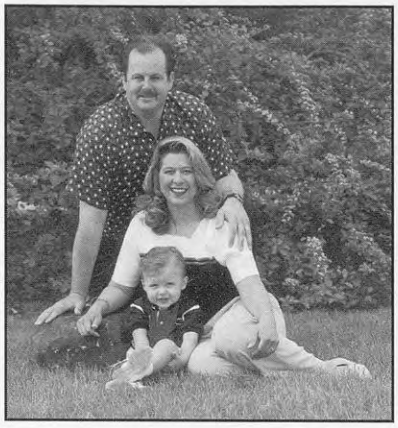
Lance Scott, Utah — two-time first-team all-WAC center ... UPI honorable mention all-America ... fifth-round draft pick of Arizona ... handled long snapping duties for the Cardinals.

Barry Sims, Utah — all-WAC offensive lineman in 1996 for the Utes ... helped offensive line surrender only 11 sacks, a school record ... selected to play in the Hula Bowl.

DAVID STLUKA



Coach Tim Davis



Tim Davis, a former graduate and volunteer assistant at Wisconsin, returns to Madison to assume a full-time post in charge of tight ends and tackles.

Davis has been a full-time staff member at Utah the past seven years, including the last three in charge of tight ends and tackles. The Utes played in four bowl games during his tenure, including a 1996 match-up with the Badgers in the Copper Bowl.

Utah also participated in the Weiser Lock Copper Bowl (1992) and the Freedom Bowl twice (1993 and 1994) while Davis was there.

Inheriting a porous offensive line at Utah in 1990, Davis quickly developed it into one of the WAC's top front lines. A number of Davis' former players made all-league squads and several were drafted by the NFL.

His line in 1993 protected QB Mike McCoy, who finished second nationally in total offense. The 1996 blockers surrendered just 11 sacks, a Utah record. The Utes' running game also made a resurgence while Davis was there. Jamal Anderson and Chris Fuamatu-Ma'afala are two of the backs that reaped the benefits of the line play coached by Davis. Utah rambled for 478 yards against New Mexico State in 1991, the school's all-time single-game record.

Prior to his hiring at Utah, Davis was offensive line coach at Idaho (1989), offensive coordinator at Walla Walla CC (1988), assistant coach at Arizona (1987) and a graduate / volunteer assistant at Wisconsin (1983-86). Walla Walla earned a Centennial Bowl berth during his tenure, and the 1984 Badgers played in the Independence Bowl.

Davis began his playing career at Chabot College, where he lettered for two years before transferring to Utah. He was the Utes' Most Inspirational Player in 1980 and played professionally with the CFL's Hamilton Tigers (1981) and the USFL's Los Angeles Express (1983).

PHIL ELMASSIAN

Defensive Backs

PLAYERS COACHED BY ELMASSIAN

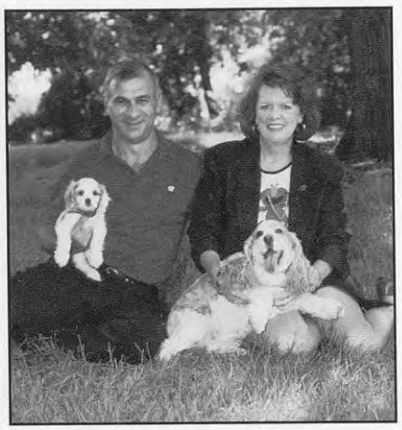
David Griggs, Virginia — second-team all-ACC linebacker as a senior for the Cavaliers ... four-year letterman was a team captain his final season ... started for the San Diego Chargers at linebacker in the Super Bowl.

Jeff Lageman, Virginia — 12th in career tackles at Virginia ... led the team in stops in both 1987 and 1988 ... Cavs' two-time tackle leader ... No. 14 overall pick by the New York Jets ... currently a captain for the Jacksonville Jaguars.

Lawyer Milloy, Washington — started in Super Bowl XXXI for the Patriots ... consensus all-America safety at Washington ... finished second in voting for the 1996 Jim Thorpe Award.

DAVID STLUKA

Coach Phil Elmassian



Phil Elmassian, a defensive coordinator at three previous schools, embarks on his first season as secondary coach for the Badgers.

Elmassian has served on coaching staffs that have participated in bowl games nine of the last 12 years. He worked last season as defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Boston College.

Prior to BC, Elmassian coached defensive backs and the punt return for Washington's 1995 Pac-10 runners-up that played in the Sun Bowl. Among his players was Lawyer Milloy, a first-team all-American and runner-up for the Jim Thorpe Award.

Elmassian worked with DBs and the punt return for two years (1991-92) at Syracuse. The Orangemen went to the 1993 Fiesta and 1992 Hall of Fame Bowls while he worked there. His 1992 secondary led the nation and set a school record with 27 interceptions. He helped revitalize football fortunes at Virginia Tech during two separate tenures. He was defensive coordinator for Frank Beamer (1993-94) and worked as secondary coach for Bill Dooley (1985-86) at Tech. The Hokies are still running the defensive scheme that Elmassian introduced as coordinator. Virginia Tech played in the Gator (1994), Independence (1993) and Peach (1986) Bowls during his two stints with the Hokies. The '86 Tech squad was the first in school history to win 10 games. The Hokies' 1994 total defense ranked in the nation's top 20.

Between assignments at Virginia Tech, Elmassian coached linebackers for George Welsh at Virginia (1987-90). The Cavaliers appeared in the 1991 Sugar, 1990 Citrus and 1987 All-American Bowls.

His Big Ten experience includes one year (1984) as secondary and punt return coach for Lou Holtz at Minnesota. He also served as secondary coach at East Carolina (1983), defensive coordinator and head track coach at Ferrum College (1979-82) and offensive backfield coach at both Richmond (1976-78) and William & Mary (1974-75).

JAY HAYES

Strong Safeties, Outside Linebackers & Special Teams

PLAYERS COACHED BY HAYES

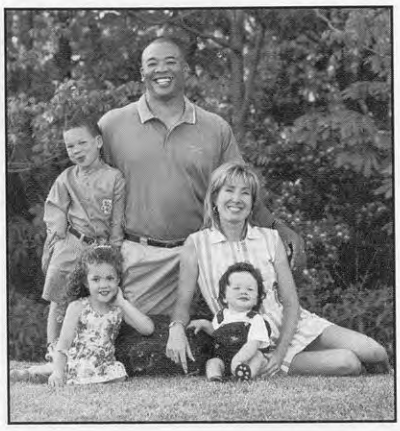
Daryl Carter, Wisconsin — former strong safety was a two-year starter at outside linebacker ... earned a national defensive player of the week award from Athlon's for his play in an upset win over Penn State in 1995 ... signed a free agent contract with the Chicago Bears.

John Hall, Wisconsin — second-team all-league kicker in 1996 ... finished career in the Badgers' top five in all placement categories ... an incredible 69.7 percent of his kickoffs as a senior were touchbacks ... free agent signee of the Jets.

Regan Upshaw, California — the Bears' all-time leader in career quarterback sacks (28) and No. 2 in tackles for loss (49) ... College & Pro Football Newsweekly all-American ... drafted in the first round by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

DAVID STLUKA

Coach Jay Hayes



Jay Hayes enters his third full campaign as an assistant coach at Wisconsin with responsibilities for the outside linebackers and special teams. Hayes' appointment in 1994 reunited him with Coach Barry Alvarez. Hayes worked previously with Alvarez while both were at Notre Dame.

Hayes aided the development of Badger Daryl Carter, a two-year starter at OLB. Carter made more than 150 tackles his final two years.

Hayes' special teams made dramatic improvement in '96. John Hall, a second-team all-league choice and a semi-finalist for the Lou Groza Award, was the team's second-leading scorer and became the first Badger in a decade to average more than 40 yards per punt. Aaron Stecker was fourth in Big Ten kickoff returns and his punt return norm (15.6 yards) would have led the league if he had enough attempts.

Two of the longest plays in UW history were authored by Hayes' 1995 special teams. Hall connected on a 60-yard field goal, the fourth-longest in NCAA history without the use of a tee. Stecker had a 100-yard kickoff return at Minnesota.

Prior to the UW, Hayes worked three seasons at Cal, overseeing outside linebackers in 1992-93 before adding special teams responsibilities in 1994. In his second season, the Bears posted a 9-4 record and played in the Alamo Bowl.

As a four-year member of the Fighting Irish coaching staff, Hayes helped Notre Dame to a 41-7 record and New Year's Day bowls each season. Hayes was a graduate assistant on the '88 national championship team before a promotion to full-time status (OLBs and special teams) from 1989-91.

Hayes was a two-time (1980-81) first-team all-league pick at Idaho. He received his B.S. degree in history from Idaho in 1984. Hayes played professionally for the Lions and Redskins (1982-83) prior to stints with the Michigan Panthers and Memphis Showboats of the USFL (1984-86).

Hayes is the older brother of NFL veteran Jon Hayes, who was recruited by Alvarez at Iowa. Jon Hayes was a TE with the Chiefs for 10 years before joining the Steelers in 1994. Jon played in the 1996 Super Bowl.

JIM HUEBER

Guards & Centers

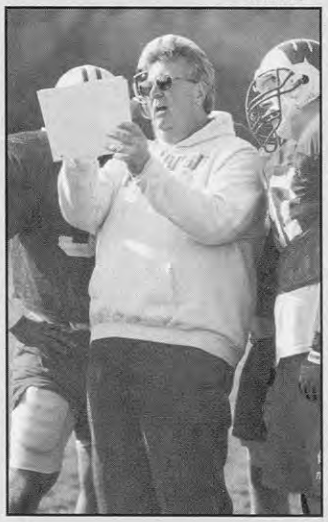
PLAYERS COACHED BY HUEBER

Brent Moss, Wisconsin — Big Ten and Rose Bowl MVP in 1993 ... rushed for 1,637 yards that season, the second-most in UW history ... rushed for at least 100 yards in 17 consecutive games.

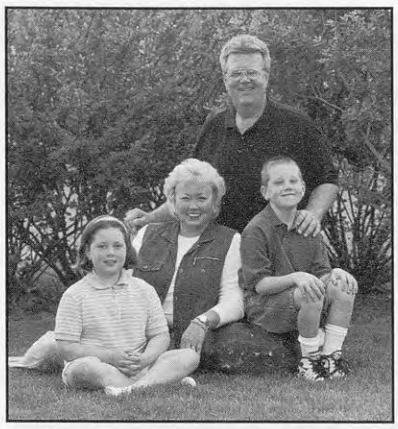
Cory Raymer, Wisconsin — consensus first-team all-American ... four-year starter allowed one-half of a sack his final three seasons ... drafted early in the second round (37th pick overall) by the Washington Redskins.

Brian Williams, Minnesota — three-time letterman was Gopher team captain his senior year ... drafted by the New York Giants (1989) ... still active on New York's roster.

DAVID STLUKA



Coach Jim Hueber



Jim Hueber, who has developed one of the top rushing offenses in college football, starts his sixth season at Wisconsin and his third campaign in charge of the interior offensive line. Hueber coached running backs for three years before switching to the line in 1995.

With a veteran line in 1996, which included seven fifth-year seniors, Hueber's blockers paved the way for Ron Dayne's record-breaking season. The tailback rambled for 2,109 yards as the Badgers led the Big Ten and finished 12th nationally in rushing.

In Hueber's five years in Madison, the Badgers have led the Big Ten in rushing twice and finished second once. In the two seasons prior to Hueber's arrival, Wisconsin averaged fewer than 100 yards on the ground.

The 1996 Badger line was spearheaded by all-America tackle Jerry Wunsch and first-team all-Big Ten guard Jamie Vanderveldt. All five starters weighed more than 300 pounds, making it the largest line in Division I-A.

Hueber has coached a number of Badgers who moved onto professional careers. The list includes Cory Raymer (Washington), Mike Verstegen (New Orleans), Joe Rudolph (San Francisco) and Jerry Wunsch (drafted by Tampa Bay).

As running backs coach from 1992-94, Hueber worked with Brent Moss and Terrell Fletcher, the school's No. 2 and No. 3 career rushers. The Moss-Fletcher duo combined for 2,633 yards in the Rose Bowl championship season, then the eighth-highest total for a backfield tandem in NCAA history.

Hueber came to Wisconsin after an eight-year stint at Minnesota, where he was assistant head coach, offensive coordinator and an assistant coach (line and backs). Eight of his Gopher linemen were drafted by the NFL.

Hueber's lengthy resume before Minnesota includes offensive coaching positions at Memphis State (1983), Temple (1981-82), Wichita State (1979-80), Dodge City Community College (1975-78) and Cincinnati (1974). He was recruiting coordinator at Temple, Wichita State and Dodge City.

HENRY MASON

Wide Receivers

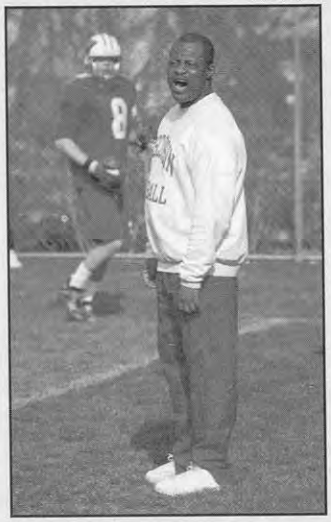
PLAYERS COACHED BY MASON

Donald Hayes, Wisconsin — honorable mention all-Big Ten after making 44 catches in '96 ... 12th in career receiving at Wisconsin ... 13th in the Big Ten in receiving yards per game in 1996.

Tony Simmons, Wisconsin — just missed the '96 Olympic Trials in the 100 (10.15) ... fifth in career receiving at the UW, 666 yards behind leader Al Toon ... a TD for every 3.9 catches in his career ... only receiver in UW history to average better than 20 yards per catch for a career.

Andre Wallace, Western Michigan — the top receiver on the Broncos league-leading pass offense in 1994 ... Wallace made 68 catches for 758 yards to earn all-MAC honors.

DAVID STLUKA



Coach Henry Mason

Henry Mason enters his third season at Wisconsin in charge of potentially one of the nation's best pass receiving groups. Despite the Badgers' emphasis on the run last fall, Mason aided the development of all-Big Ten wide receiver Donald Hayes.

Hayes caught 44 passes, the seventh-most in Wisconsin annals. Mason also welcomes back Tony Simmons, a former Big Ten champ in the 200 meters, who broke his foot last fall. Simmons is the only player in Wisconsin history to average better than 20 yards per catch for an entire career, and he needs 666 yards receiving to become the UW's all-time leader.

In Mason's first season at Wisconsin, the Badgers established school records for average yards per game (221.7) and completions (206). Michael London, who had 10 career catches entering that '95 season, led the club with 41 grabs.

Prior to his appointment at Wisconsin, Mason handled wide receivers and kick returners at Western Michigan (1991-94). WMU led the Mid-American Conference in passing three of his four seasons.

The Broncos had more than 2,700 yards passing his final season. Three of his receivers had at least 40 receptions, including Andre Wallace, who caught 68 passes for 758 yards in 1994.

Mason was head coach at Smith-Cotton High School in Sedalia, Mo., for six years. Mason's mark at Smith-Cotton was 31-31, and his 1988 club became the first team at the school in 13 years to post a winning record and make the playoffs. Mason was also offensive coordinator at Smith-Cotton for three seasons (1982-84) .

Mason was an assistant at Baker University (1981) in Baldwin, Kan. after beginning his career as an assistant at Lexington (Mo.) High School. Mason worked with running backs and defensive backs on clubs that posted a 21-0-1 record and won one state championship.

The 1979 graduate of Central Missouri State earned all-America mention in football and baseball. Mason was drafted by the Baltimore Colts, where he played one season (1978). He also played one year (1979) with St. Louis.

JOHN PALERMO

Assistant Head Coach & Defensive Line

PLAYERS COACHED BY PALERMO

Bryan Jurewicz, Wisconsin — earned league praise on the field and in the classroom as a senior ... second-team academic all-American ... started 44 times in career ... signed as a free agent with the Carolina Panthers.

Tarek Saleh, Wisconsin — Big Ten leader in tackles for loss and sacks as a junior ... second-team all-American in '96 ... left UW as the career leader in all season and career tackle for loss and quarterback sack categories.

Chris Zorich, Notre Dame — earned consensus all-America honors as a senior at Notre Dame ... named the 1989 College Lineman of the Year ... plays for the Chicago Bears.

DAVID STLUKA

Coach John Palermo

John Palermo returns for his seventh year at Wisconsin and his third season in charge of the defensive line. Palermo handled UW outside linebackers for four years (1991-94) before moving to the defensive line (1995-present).

The Badgers' defensive front last year was a key element in limiting opponents to 115.2 rushing yards per game. That figure was third in the Big Ten and No. 2 in Wisconsin history. Ten opponents in the last two years have failed to reach 100 yards rushing against the UW.

Palermo, the Badgers' assistant head coach, holds a number of administrative duties for the football program and coordinates the Badgers' in-state recruiting efforts.

Palermo has coached several honored players at the UW, including Tarek Saleh, a two-time first-team all-Big Ten pick. Saleh is one of only two defenders in the Barry Alvarez era (Lamark Shackerford was the other) to make first-team all-Big Ten two years in a row. Bryan Jurewicz also flourished in his final season, breaking a school mark for passes tipped by a lineman (nine).

Three of Palermo's Badgers — Jurewicz, Chad Cascadden (New York Jets) and Jason Maniecki (Tampa Bay) — were academic all-Big Ten picks at the UW-Madison.

The Rose Bowl team of 1993 surrendered just 16.3 points per game, the lowest average since 1963. Palermo's two-deep lineup at outside linebacker on that team included a pair of walk-ons and two first-year freshmen.

Before joining Alvarez' staff at the UW, Palermo was head coach for one year (1990) at Austin Peay. In two seasons (1988-89) at Notre Dame, Palermo and Alvarez designed the Irish defense, which ranked 13th and 14th nationally in total defense. The Irish won the national title in 1988 and registered a 24-1 mark during his tenure.

Palermo worked from 1984-87 at Minnesota, helping the Gophers to the 1985 Independence and 1986 Liberty Bowls. He was also an assistant coach at Appalachian State (1983), Memphis State (1980-82) and Austin Peay (1979).

BRIAN WHITE

Running Backs

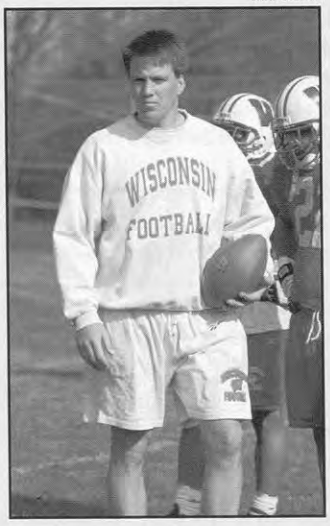
PLAYERS COACHED BY WHITE

Ron Dayne, Wisconsin — set five NCAA records (including most yards gained by a freshman) and earned Heisman Trophy votes as an 18-year-old rookie ... bettered 21 Wisconsin records ... registered three of the top six rushing games in NCAA freshman history.

Randy Gatewood, UNLV — credited with 92 catches his senior year at UNLV ... set a single-game NCAA record with 23 catches for 363 yards against Idaho.

Chris Vargas, Nevada-Reno — the national leader in total offense at Nevada-Reno in 1993 ... school averaged 589 yards of total offense per outing, No. 1 in the college ranks.

DAVID STLUKA



Coach Brian White

Third-year coach Brian White made his mark at the UW last fall after his rushing attack led the Big Ten. In his two years with the Badgers, White has coached a pair of 1,000-yard rushers and a 100-yard runner in 16 games.

White's tutoring last season helped true freshman Ron Dayne break Herschel Walker's national freshman rushing mark by more than 300 yards and record the greatest season in Big Ten history.

Wisconsin averaged 249.4 yards per game in '96 to lead the conference and rank 12th nationally. That included a 499-yard effort at Hawaii, the third-best in school annals. Under White's guidance in 1995, Carl McCullough became just the third sophomore in UW history to run for at least 1,000 yards.

White coached at UNLV in 1994 with Jeff Horton, one of the nation's top teachers of the passing game. The Rebels captured the Big West championship and won the Las Vegas Bowl.

As the UNLV passing game coordinator in '94, White worked with Randy Gatewood (92 catches as a senior). He set NCAA records with 23 receptions and 363 yards against Idaho. White worked previously (1990-92) at UNLV, where he coached runners.

Between assignments at UNLV, White was an assistant to Horton at Nevada-Reno in 1993. As coordinator of the pass offense, he helped Chris Vargas lead the nation in total offense and Bryan Reeves rank second nationally in receiving (92 catches). Reno led the nation in total offense (589.0 average).

White also spent two years (1988-89) at Notre Dame as a graduate assistant. He worked with the running backs, including pro players Ricky Watters, Tony Brooks, Mark Green, Anthony Johnson and Rodney Culver. His first coaching job was at Fordham, where he tutored runners (1986-87).

White quarterbacked Harvard to a 7-3 record in 1985. He was second-team all-Ivy League and finished his career as the school's second all-time leading passer. White has a B.A. in history from Harvard (1986), an M.A. from Fordham (1988) and an MBA from Notre Dame (1990).

BERNIE WYATT

Director of Football Operations

PLAYERS COACHED BY WYATT

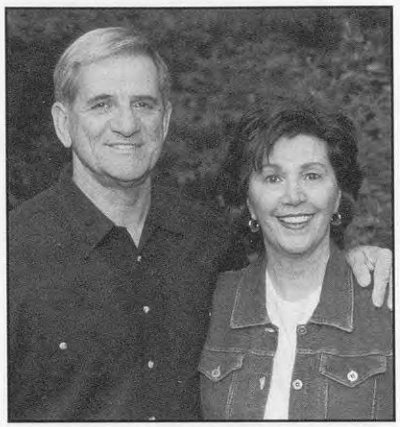
Matt Nyquist, Wisconsin — a four-time academic all-Big Ten pick (the third in school history) ... set a school record with 13 catches vs. Iowa ... free agent tryout with the Houston Oilers.

Michael Roan, Wisconsin — first-team all-Big Ten for the Badgers' 1993 Rose Bowl champs ... drafted by the Houston Oilers ... sixth in career receiving at the UW, second among tight ends.

Andre Tippett, Iowa — consensus all-America defensive end at Iowa ... NFL All-Pro and league defensive Most Valuable Player for the Patriots ... currently works in that club's administrative offices.

DAVID STLUKA

Bernie Wyatt



Bernie Wyatt starts his first campaign as the Director of Football Operations and on-campus recruiting coordinator for the Badgers after a lengthy and highly successful coaching career.

Wyatt, who joined Barry Alvarez' original staff as recruiting coordinator, coached tight ends from 1992-96 before moving into his current administrative post.

One of the nation's most respected East Coast recruiters, Wyatt brought a number of outstanding preps to Madison. Among them are tailback sensation Ron Dayne, Lee DeRamus (the school's second all-time leading receiver), Baltimore starting safety Donny Brady and 1995 co-MVP Eric Unverzagt.

As tight ends coach, Wyatt worked with four-time all-Big Ten choice Michael Roan. Under Wyatt's guidance, Roan had 92 career receptions (sixth-most in Wisconsin history). Roan plays for the Houston Oilers.

Wyatt also tutored Matt Nyquist, who finished with 37 catches in 1995. He set a UW record with 13 catches vs. Iowa.

Wyatt, who has 22 years of experience coaching in the Big Ten, worked 16 seasons at Iowa before rejoining Alvarez in Madison. The duo was on Hayden Fry's staff together at Iowa.

Wyatt was the Hawkeyes' first full-time recruiting coordinator (1979). He worked with Hawkeye OLBs and coached several of his own recruits — Andre Tippett and Joe Mott — who went on to pro careers. Tippett, a perennial NFL All-Pro with the Patriots, was a 1981 consensus all-American. Wyatt signed many eventual NFL players at Iowa, including Ronnie and Kevin Harmon, Bob Kratch, Mike Devlin, Quinn Early, Devon Mitchell and Owen Gill.

Before joining the Iowa staff, Wyatt was a high school coach at Iowa City (Iowa) Regina and Lindenhurst (N.Y.) high schools.

The former high school all-American at Amityville (N.Y.) High School broke many of NFL Hall of Famer Jim Brown's prep records. He was inducted into the Suffolk County Hall of Fame in 1995.

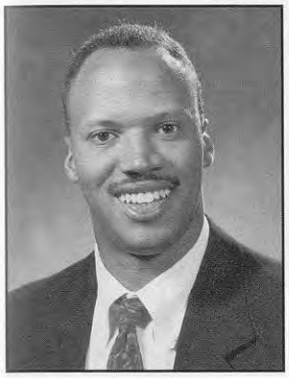
FOOTBALL SUPPORT HEADS



Anthony Adams
Dir. of Athletic Compliance

Anthony Adams begins his third year as Director of Athletic Compliance for the UW.

Adams came to the Badgers after serving in the same capacity at Rhode Island from 1992-94. In his role, Adams is responsible for rules compliance with both the Big Ten and NCAA, plus educational training for staff and students.

He is a member of the National Association of Athletic Compliance Coordinators.

The '89 graduate of Rhode Island also served as academic coordinator for athletics at Hofstra University and as compliance assistant for the East Coast Conference for one year each.

Adams was a three-year starter on the gridiron at URI and made the Dean's List.

John Chadima
Dir. of Facilities & Events

John Chadima, formerly the Director of Football Operations at the UW, begins his first year as Director of Facilities and Events.

He will work primarily with capital improvements, facility operations and event management.

One of the original members of Barry Alvarez' staff at the UW, Chadima was responsible for coordinating all off-the-field activities (budget, team travel, camp, summer job program and scheduling) for the gridiron squad from 1990-96.

Prior to Wisconsin, he was a football manager at Iowa from 1983-87. Chadima was a graduate assistant in administration at Iowa (1987-89).

The 1988 graduate of Iowa earned a B.S. degree in athletic administration. The 32-year-old native of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, is single.

John Dettmann
Strength & Conditioning Coordinator

John Dettmann is in his sixth year as director of the strength and conditioning program at Wisconsin and his eighth campaign serving the Badger football program.

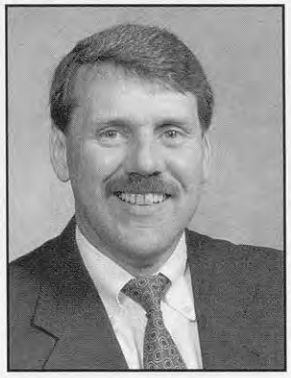
Dettmann directs the conditioning programs and facilities for all Badger athletic teams.

Prior to the UW, he worked in administration at the Houston (1984-86) and Ft. Lauderdale (1988-89) YMCAs. Between those assignments, he was employed at the Enron Corporation.

He earned his B.S. degree in corporate fitness from UW-Oshkosh.

Dettmann was an honorable mention all-American, team Most Valuable Player and Athlete of the Year as a senior at UW-Oshkosh. He was inducted into that institution's Athletic Hall of Fame in '93.

Dettmann is single and lives in Madison.



Dennis Helwig
Head Athletic Trainer

Dennis Helwig is in his 22nd year at the University of Wisconsin and his 13th season as head football trainer. Helwig also supervises the Sports Medicine Program for the school.

Helwig was the UW hockey trainer for 10 seasons, earning four NCAA championship rings, before becoming the head athletic trainer in 1984.

He is president of the Wisconsin Athletic Trainers Association and an advisor to USA Hockey. He worked at the 1984 Winter Olympics and the 1987 World University Summer Games.

A 1974 graduate of the UW in physical education and dance, he was an assistant trainer with the Philadelphia Eagles (1975) before returning to Madison.

Helwig and his wife, Jan, have a son, Chris.

John Kvatek
Video Coordinator

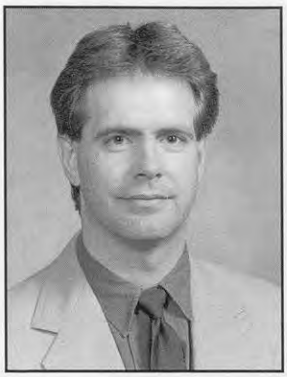
John Kvatek begins his 10th year as a video coordinator for a Div. I-A Athletic Department and his third campaign in charge of those duties at the UW.

He came to Wisconsin to help develop and implement the nation's first video network for sports applications.

Kvatek worked previously at Virginia Tech, where he served as athletics videography director in 1993-94. Kvatek produced the "Virginia Tech Basketball" TV show and established a department-wide video support system.

He also served as football video coordinator for five years (1988-92) at Miami (Ohio).

Kvatek, a member of the Collegiate Sports Video Association, graduated from Miami with a B.S. degree in mass communications. His wife's name is Michelle.



Jim Roberts
Technical Systems Director

Jim Roberts is in his 11th year working at the UW and his third as the director of technical systems (coordinating the computer and video needs of the department).

Additionally, Roberts and his staff, launched the department's website last year which attracted more than a half-million hits each month.

Roberts came to the UW from Tulsa, where he was the school's equipment manager and director of athletic dorms.

A graduate of North Dakota State, Roberts served that school as equipment manager for all athletic teams, the recreation department and the P.E. office.

Roberts was named Manager of the Year by the Athletic Equipment Managers Association in 1985. He is a past chairman of the certification committee for AEMA.

Roberts is single.

John Sheffield
Ticket Director

John Sheffield is in his second season as Ticket Director for the Athletic Department. He worked previously at Florida State, serving from 1983-95 as the chief administrator for the Athletic Ticket Office.

Sheffield oversaw annual ticket sales of more than $8 million at FSU. He also handled advance team travel arrangements for Seminole football.

Sheffield implemented the Seminole Booster ticket priority seating plans for football and basketball, and he is working closely with the ticketing procedures for the Kohl Center.

The former Tampa Bay Buccaneer ticket director (1978-83) has served as a special assistant for ticket operations at the last 18 Super Bowls.

He and his wife, Peggy, have two sons (John, Jr. and Sam).

Academic Affairs Director

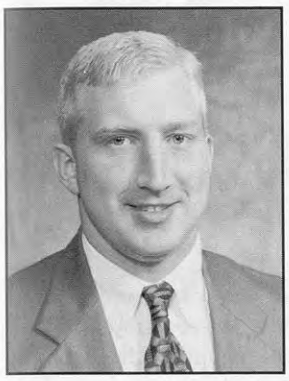
As Director of the Academic Affairs Office, Alan Zussman oversees a staff of 11 full-time employees who have academic support responsibilities for 625 students. He has worked in the department since 1976.

In the last year, Zussman oversaw a facility move for his office to the multi-million dollar Wade Fetzer Academic Learning Center.

Zussman previously worked as an Assistant to the Dean of the College of Letters and Science at the UW.

A member of the National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletics, he served for three years as an officer and member of its Executive Board.

Zussman earned his B.S. and M.S. degrees from the UW in communication arts and has completed coursework for his doctorate in educational administration.

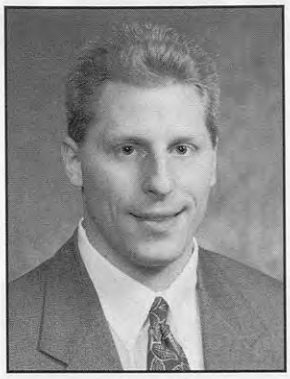


Jeff Wirth
Graduate Assistant

Jeff Wirth, a four-year letterman at fullback at Wisconsin, rejoins his alma mater as a graduate assistant coach on offense.

Wirth, a former walk-on, lettered from 1990-93 as a back-up fullback and special teams performer. He was named Special Teams Player of the Year on the Badgers' Rose Bowl team of '93.

Wirth, who finished his career with 34 tackles, was an all-league football and track performer as a prep at D.C. Everest High School.



Matt Sheldon
Graduate Assistant

Matt Sheldon, a former high school star at D.C. Everest High School, begins his first season as a defensive graduate assistant.

Sheldon, a running back as a prep, helped his school become just the second in state history to earn a national ranking from USA Today. Sheldon played collegiately (strong safety) at Minnesota.

He came to Madison after helping the New Orleans Saints with computer game analysis, video and other quality-control needs.

Gary King
Administrative Assistant

Gary King begins his first season as an administrative assistant in the Badger football office with in responsibilities centered on organizing many off-the-field activities.

King will handle fall / spring camps, away game travel / set-up, team scheduling, the football budget, and coordinating the team managerial staff.

The 1993 graduate of the UW-Madison worked three years (1990-92) as a football manager and two years (1993-94) as a program assistant for the Badgers.

King graduated with academic honors (J.D. degree) at the William Mitchell College of Law this spring. He earned a Dreves Scholarship (1997), served a two-year term with the Law Review and did independent research for Harmon, Ltd., while at William Mitchell.

King graduated from Stevens Point (Wis.) High School in 1988 before attending the UW-Madison.

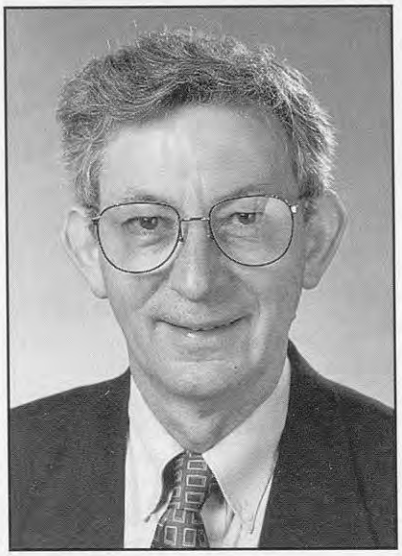
DAVID WARD

UW-Madison Chancellor



David Ward
Chancellor, UW-Madison

David Ward was named chancellor of the University of Wisconsin-Madison in June 1993, becoming the 25th individual to serve as the university's chief executive. Ward had served as interim chancellor since January 1993.

For the past eight years, Ward has provided strong leadership for efforts to improve the quality of undergraduate education. Changes inspired by Ward include: enhanced student advising, particularly for freshmen and sophomores; expanded course access; a core curriculum; and increased opportunities for undergraduates to conduct research.

The next step, says Ward, is to redefine undergraduate education, not simply through improvements of existing programs and processes, but by developing new ways for learning to occur on college campuses. To that end, he recently published a comprehensive strategic planning document, outlining priorities for the next decade as the university works toward balancing its teaching, research and outreach missions. One way the university can unify its activities, Ward says, is by emphasizing learning as a central goal.

This development of campus learning communities recently was echoed by the Kellogg Commission on the Future of State and Land-Grant Universities. In its first report, this 25-member group of university chief executives, on which Ward serves, called on public institutions to become "genuine learning communities" that are student-centered, support and inspire learners of all kinds, and sustain a healthy learning environment.

During his tenure, Ward has given new expression to The Wisconsin Idea, the venerable philosophical framework for the university's public service role. The Wisconsin Idea is embodied by a vast array of partnerships between the university and both the public and private sectors, says Ward, from economic development activity and sharing of faculty expertise, to educational collaborations with K-12 schools.

"The university's commitment to the citizens of Wisconsin is stronger than ever as we approach the 21st century," says Ward, who looks forward to marking the university's sesquicentennial in '98-99.

Ward was born in Manchester, England, and received bachelor's and master's degrees from the University of Leeds. He earned a Fulbright Travel award to the United States in 1960 and received a doctorate from UW-Madison in 1963.

Ward served as chair of the geography department from 1974 to 1977 and as associate dean of the Graduate School from 1980 to 1987. He became vice chancellor for academic affairs at UW-Madison in 1989, and in 1991, he was also named provost, chief deputy to the chancellor. His UW-Madison faculty career spans more than 30 years, and he holds the Andrew Hill Clark Professorship of Geography.

As a scholar, Ward is a recognized authority in historical urban geography and has pioneered research on English and American cities during their rapid growth of the 19th and early 20th centuries. He is a past president of the Association of American Geographers. He has authored two books, edited two books and contributed many articles in leading academic journals. In recognition of his postdoctoral research, Ward was awarded the degree of Litt.D. by his undergraduate alma mater.

PAT RICHTER

Director of Athletics

Director of Athletics Pat Richter, the former Badger all-America gridiron star, three-sport letterman and successful business executive, is the man in charge of one of the NCAA's most thriving athletic departments.

During a time of budget tightening, presidential reform and gender equity concerns, the dean of Big Ten Athletic Directors has built a model intercollegiate program.

As Director of Athletics, he is responsible for 21 sports, nearly 700 student-athletes and more than 160 employees. Consider that during his administration, he ...

- inherited a division that was $2.1 million in debt in 1990 and eliminated the red ink on the ledgers in less than four years.
- watched the football, basketball and hockey squads set season attendance marks during his administration. Football attendance has placed in the top 10 nationally the last four years.
- oversaw plans for significant facility improvements, most notably the construction of the $76.4 million Kohl Center. That state-of-the-art facility will open in January of 1998.

On the field of play, the Badgers have been highly successful during Richter's administration. The football squad has enjoyed unparalleled success during the Barry Alvarez era. Both the men's and women's basketball clubs, under the direction of Dick Bennett and Jane Albright-Dieterle, have made post-season play the standard instead of the exception.

The varsity sports teams have continued the long-standing excellence that Badger fans have come to expect. Wisconsin has ranked among the nation's top all-sports programs in the Sears' Director's Cup in all four years of its existence. The Badgers have claimed two — hockey (1989-90) and men's soccer (1995) — NCAA championships during Richter's tenure.

Perhaps Richter's most satisfying season as Director was the 1993-94 campaign when his alma mater won the Rose Bowl and qualified for its first NCAA men's basketball tourney in 47 seasons.

As a player, he earned all-America (1961-62) and academic all-America (1962) honors as an end. He led Wisconsin to the 1963 Rose Bowl and set a game-record with 11 receptions.

In the first ever college football game between No. 1 and No. 2 ranked teams, Richter and his Badger teammates dropped a 42-37 decision to USC in Pasadena.

Richter led the Big Ten in receiving twice and is still the third-leading receiver in school history. As a senior, Richter won Wisconsin's 1963 Big Ten Medal of Honor.

Richter was recognized for his gridiron exploits last year with his induction into the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame.

He also earned all-league honors in baseball and led UW in hits, homers and RBI three times. The 6-foot-5 center received his scholarship for basketball.

After earning his B.S. degree from the UW in landscape architecture (1964), Pat was a first-round draft pick of the Washington Redskins. He played from 1963-71.

Upon retirement from the NFL, he returned to Wisconsin to earn his law degree (1971). After working at a Madison law firm, he climbed his way to vice president of personnel at Oscar Mayer.

Richter was honored with an NCAA Silver Anniversary Award for post-college achievements in 1988. He is a member of the Wisconsin State Athletic and Madison Sports Halls of Fame, the NFL Player and Alumni Associations and the American Bar Association. Pat was enshrined in the Athletic Department and Rose Bowl Halls of Fame in '91 and '94, respectively. In 1995, he became the second Badger to gain induction into the GTE Academic All-America Hall of Fame.

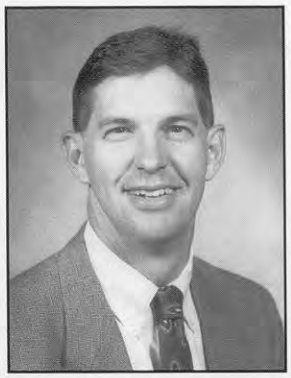
MANAGEMENT TEAM



Al Fish
Administrative Officer

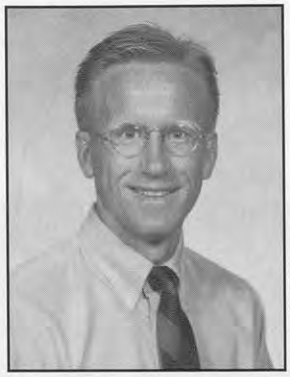
Al Fish, Administrative Officer at the Athletic Department since 1989, oversees several internal units in the Division and serves as a liaison to campus and state governments and the Athletic Board.

He oversees facility planning, event management, personnel, sports medicine, strength and conditioning, technical and equipment services and University Ridge golf course for the Department.

Fish, who came to the Department after three years (1987-89) as the Director of Policy and Budget for the DHSS, is coordinating the construction of the $76.4 million Kohl Center. Future projects now being planned include the Goodman softball complex, new and expanded crew facilities and Camp Randall Stadium turf and seating renovations.

He worked previously as a liaison for Gov. Tony Earl to the State Assembly, a budget analyst for the State Budget Office and a program evaluator for the Legislative Audit Bureau.

The 1973 graduate of Luther College is married to Susan Goodwin. They have three children: Cassie, Molly and Nick.



Scott Jenkins
Kohl Center General Manager

Scott Jenkins, a four-time cross country all-American at Wisconsin, is in his first year as General Manager of the Kohl Center. Jenkins will also serve on the Department's management team.

In his new role, Jenkins will oversee management of the school's 16,500-seat facility which will open in January of 1998.

Jenkins had served three years (1994-96) as the department's Director of Facilities and Events.

Before joining the Department, he directed the Space Management and Leasing Bureau at the Department of Administration.

He also was director of the Wisconsin Bureau of Building Management and was a facility manager at the Trammell Crow Company in Milwaukee.

Jenkins, who earned a B.S. degree in construction administration, made the Dean's List seven times during his career. He was a member of two NCAA champion cross country teams at the UW.

Cheryl Marra
Assoc. AD / Sports Administrator

Cheryl Marra begins her eighth year as an Associate AD / Sports Administrator at Wisconsin in charge of volleyball, basketball, soccer, tennis, swimming and golf.

She is the Badgers' primary women's athletic administrator to the Big Ten and NCAA.

Marra came to Wisconsin after serving as the women's athletic director at Denison University from 1983-90. She was an assistant professor (seven years) for physical education as well as head soccer (11 years) and track (nine) coach at Denison.

Marra serves on the NCAA subcommittee for post-graduate scholarships. She also chaired the NCAA women's soccer committee, and the NCAA committee on women's athletics.

A 1977 graduate of Slippery Rock State, Marra received her M.A. from Ohio State in 1983.

Mike Moss
Assoc. AD / Sports Administrator

Mike Moss starts his second year at the UW-Madison as an Associate Athletic Director / Sports Administrator. He is responsible for overseeing the Badger football, hockey, track, cross country, rowing, softball and wrestling programs. He also oversees the academic affairs office and chairs the department's wellness program for student-athletes.

Moss came to the UW after serving as Director of Sports Operations for the Atlanta Committee of the Olympic Games. He was the chief administrator for archery, boxing, cycling, equestrian, modern pentathlon and tennis.

Prior to that stint with the Olympic organizing committee, Moss was an associate athletic director at California. He was in charge of the business office operation for the Bears until 1986 when he was named associate AD for student services.

Moss, a 1961 graduate of Ohio University, received his M.A. from California State Hayward. He is also a retired lieutenant in the U.S. Naval Reserve.

Nancy Seifert
Chief Financial Officer

Nancy Seifert has been a member of the UW Department of Athletics since 1992.

As Chief Financial Officer, Seifert is responsible for overseeing financial planning, budgeting, accounting and business functions for the division.

She and her staff are instrumental in updating and enhancing the department financial systems and business management techniques.

Prior to her appointment with the Athletic Department, she was Chief Financial Officer for Wisconsin Public Power, Inc. (1989-92) and the World Council of Credit Unions (1983-89).

Seifert is a graduate of the UW with a B.B.A. in accounting and an M.B.A. in finance and accounting. She is a licensed Certified Public Accountant.

Vince Sweeney
Assoc. AD / External Relations

Vince Sweeney, in his seventh year at UW-Madison, begins his third season as an Associate Athletic Director in charge of external relations.

In that role, he oversees marketing, promotions, licensing, sports information, ticketing, special events and fundraising. He was instrumental in selling corporate suites and developing ticket strategies for the Kohl Center, set to open in January of 1998.

Sweeney was named 1994 "Marketer of the Year" by the Madison Chapter of the American Marketing Association. His department won two "Awards of Excellence" from Athletics Management magazine in '95.

Prior to joining the UW, Sweeney worked for 13 years in sports journalism, where he earned several awards as a reporter and editor for the Madison Press Connection, Milwaukee Journal, Milwaukee Sentinel, Capital Times and the Los Angeles Times.

He and his wife, Sharon, have two daughters, Kelsey and Keara.

Joined a prestigious group of 10 other players in college football history to rush for more than 2,000 yards (bowl games included) in a season ... totaled 2,109 yards and 21 touchdowns despite not getting his first start until the fifth game ... averaged 162.2 yards per game, breaking the Wisconsin record (136.4 by Brent Moss, 1993) by more than 25 yards ... averaged 195.8 yards rushing per game once he became a starter ... Dayne's personal average as a starter would have placed fourth in the Big Ten and 29th nationally among teams ... '96 Badgers led the Big Ten and ranked 12th nationally in rushing.

WHAT'S AHEAD — one of the leading candidates for the 1997 Heisman Trophy and Maxwell Award ... top returning rusher in the nation (364 yards more than East Carolina's Scott Harley) ... trying to become the first sophomore in history to win the Heisman Trophy ... second-leading returning vote getter from the '96 Heisman Trophy race ... serving as a spokesperson for the Dane County Humane Society in its efforts to encourage people to give shelter to homeless animals.

NCAA HONORS — most prolific freshman runner in college football history ... gained 1,863 yards (the NCAA does not recognize bowl yardage) in 12 regular season games to break Herschel Walker's (Georgia) mark of 1,616 yards in 1980 ... tied Walker's NCAA mark for 200-yard games (four) by a freshman ... broke NCAA record for yards gained in consecutive games ... Dayne totaled 628 vs. Illinois (289) and Hawaii (339) ... broke the old mark of 626 established by Cal State Fullerton's Mike Pringle against New Mexico State (357) and Long Beach State (269) in 1989 ... set NCAA rookie records for attempts in a game (50 vs. Minnesota) and season (295) ... the old marks were 45 carries in a game by James McDougal (Wake Forest, 1976) and 292 in a season by Steve Bartalo (Colorado State, 1983) ... per-game rushing average (155.3) is second in national freshman history, just behind Marshall Faulk's (San Diego State) mark of 155.8 set in 1991.

BIG TEN DATA — broke Lorenzo White's (Michigan State) single-season Big Ten rushing record ... Dayne's 2,109-yard total bettered White's mark of 2,066 set in 1985 ... only the fourth Badger in the modern era to lead the conference in rushing (Brent Moss, 1993; Billy Marek, 1974; Alan Ameche, 1951-52) ... first-team all-Big Ten by the media and second-team all-league by the coaches ... Big Ten co-Freshman of the Year (with Ohio State's Andy Katzenmoyer) by the coaches ... recorded the fourth- (339 yards at Hawaii), ninth- (297 yards vs. Minnesota) and 13th-greatest (289 yards at Illinois) rushing games in Big Ten history ... Big Ten offensive Player-of-the-Week three times (only player to do so).

HONORS & RANKINGS — finished fourth in the nation in rushing (155.3) ... his average per carry was second-best among the NCAA's top 20 rushers (Air Force quarterback Beau Morgan averaged 6.6 yards) ... No. 1 in the Big Ten in rushing with an average of 162.2 yards per game (the Big Ten counts bowls) ... a 30.2-yard lead over Darnell Autry (Northwestern) for the Big Ten rushing title ... third-team Associated Press all-American ... first-team Freshman all-America by The Sporting News ... honorable mention all-America by Football News ... captured 11 percent of the vote in an ESPNet survey of fans to determine the nation's top runner.

FRESHMAN CAMPAIGN — school-record 339 yards rushing at Hawaii, the second-best mark for a freshman in NCAA history (Marshall Faulk of San Diego State had 386 yards vs. Pacific in 1991) ... Dayne's total was achieved in just under three quarters (he left with 1:46 left in the third period) ... broke a UW record for yards rushing in a half (250) at Hawaii ... prior to last season, that total for the half would have ranked second in UW history for an entire game ... also gained more than 200 yards (212) in the opening half at Illinois ... ran for more than 100 yards in five different quarters this season ... averaged 195.8 yards in his nine starts ... as an individual, he outrushed eight Badger opponents, including two games when he played only in the fourth quarter ... gained 1,231 yards in the month of November (244 vs. Purdue, 297 vs. Minnesota, 62 at Iowa, 289 at Illinois and 339 at Hawaii) ... those games (except Iowa) rank first, third, fourth and fifth in Wisconsin history ... set Wisconsin bowl game records with 246 yards and three TDs in the Copper Bowl victory over Utah ... scored four TDs, one off the school record, at Illinois and at Hawaii ... 71-yard run on the first play at Hawaii was the longest carry by a back at the UW since Joe Armentrout had a 78 yarder in 1985 ... Badgers' offensive MVP seven times ... broke UW freshman marks for yards rushing in a game and season held previously by eventual Heisman Trophy winner Alan Ameche (1951) ... rushed for 65.1 percent of the team's rushing total and accumulated 42 percent of the total offense ... registered 100-yard games vs. No. 14 Northwestern (139) and No. 3 Penn State (129) ... season total of 2,109 yards rushing ranks seventh in UW career history ... 325 carries in 1996 rank tied for 13th and 21 rushing TDs are tied for sixth in Badger career annals ... 50 carries (UW record) against Minnesota ... ran on 31 of the team's 41 first-half plays ... Dayne's 31 first-half carries were just short of the NCAA mark of 34 carries in a half set by Tony Sands of Kansas in 1991 ... registered 52 carries of at least 10 yards ... gained 218 yards in first three games of the season despite getting just one carry prior to the fourth quarter in those contests.

PERSONAL — born 3/14/78 ... undecided major ... guardians are Rob and Debbie Reid.

NCAA Records

True freshman Ron Dayne, who joined the Badgers' starting lineup in the fifth game of 1996, put together the best rookie rushing season in NCAA history. He gained 339 yards at Hawaii (Nov. 30), 297 yards vs. Minnesota (Nov. 9) and 289 yards at Illinois (Nov. 23). Those efforts are the second-, fourth- and sixth-best days in NCAA history for a freshman. His 1,863-yard season (bowl game not included) broke Herschel Walker's NCAA freshman season mark. A 246-yard effort vs. Utah in the Copper Bowl boosted his total to 2,109 yards. He is the NCAA's top returning rusher from '96. Listed below are the NCAA records that Dayne eclipsed last fall.

Category	Dayne in '96	Former NCAA record

Copper Bowl Champs

The Wisconsin football team finished its 1996 season with an 8-5 record and claimed its third bowl championship in four seasons with a 38-10 triumph over Utah in the Copper Bowl.

SEASON REVIEW — Wisconsin's 1996 football team (8-5 overall) finished strong, winning five of its final six games, including an impressive triumph over Utah in the Copper Bowl. That surge let the team become just the fourth UW club in the last 50 years to win at least eight games. The Badgers also registered just their ninth winning season in the last 33 years (and third in four seasons).

It was a tale of three distinct seasons for the Badgers in 1996. Wisconsin opened the year with consecutive non-conference victories over squads from the MAC (Eastern Michigan), the WAC (Nevada-Las Vegas) and the PAC-10 (Stanford). The 14-0 win over Sun Bowl-champ Stanford was the only regular-season victory over a school with a winning record.

What followed that 3-0 start was the toughest stretch of games during the Barry Alvarez era, as the Badgers faced No. 3 (at the time) Penn State, No. 2 Ohio State and No. 14 Northwestern. The results included three-point losses to the Nittany Lions and Buckeyes, and a four-point defeat to the Wildcats. Those three clubs managed a 31-6 overall mark in 1996. A 30-13 loss at Michigan State left the Badgers 0-4 in the league.

Alvarez then challenged his club to finish the season strong. The Badgers responded favorably, and it coincided with the emergence of a powerful running game. Wisconsin averaged 367.6 yards on the ground in its final five triumphs and ended the season with a Big Ten-best 249.4-yard norm.

All year long, Alvarez pointed to the heavy (five games in November) workload at season's end. He aimed to have his club finish with a flourish. With Ron Dayne rushing for 1,231 yards in the month (246.2 per game), Wisconsin captured four of its final five regular season contests.

That strong finish allowed the Badgers to receive a bid to play in the Copper Bowl when the Big 12 couldn't offer a bowl-eligible team for that league's guaranteed slot in Tucson. The Badgers' invite was their ninth bowl in school history and the third for Alvarez. Four interceptions and a punishing ground game keyed the 38-10 bowl win over Utah.

RATINGS GAME — Wisconsin ended the year receiving votes in both national polls. The Badgers placed 30th in the Associated Press poll (14 votes) and finished 31st in the CNN/USA Today poll (15 votes).

WINNINGEST SENIOR CLASS — The 1996 senior class left the UW as the winningest in school annals. The group compiled a 30-14-4 (.667) mark and won three bowl games. The seniors from the '84 team registered a 28-18-1 mark, previously the best record for a senior class at Wisconsin.

1,000 IS STANDARD FARE — Wisconsin is the first school in Big Ten history to produce four different 1,000-yard rushers in as many seasons. Ron Dayne joined Brent Moss (1993), Terrell Fletcher (1994) and Carl McCullough (1995) as Wisconsin's

Q&A

What do the following college football teams — Wisconsin, Florida State, Alabama, Colorado, Nebraska, Penn State and Tennessee — share in common?

They are the only teams in Division I-A that have won at least three bowl games in the last four years.

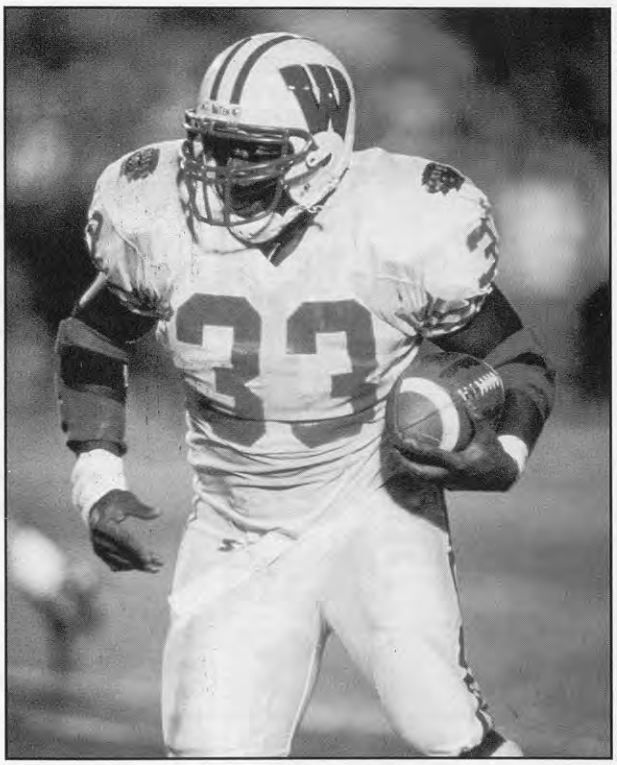
Player	Att.	Yards	Avg.	TD
Brent Moss, '93	312	1,637	5.2	16
Terrell Fletcher, '94	244	1,476	6.0	12
Carl McCullough, '95	236	1,038	4.4	3
Ron Dayne, '96	325	2,109	6.5	21

DEFENSIVE NUMBER CRUNCHING — The Badgers allowed just 115.2 yards on the ground, the second-lowest average in UW history ... only the "Hard Rocks" team of 1951 allowed fewer rushing yards (66.8) per game ... five UW opponents failed to reach 100 yards rushing ... Wisconsin was 4-1 in those games ... the Badgers' shutout over Stanford was their third of the Alvarez regime ... Wisconsin surrendered just 35 points (11.7) in the final three games against Illinois, Hawaii and Utah ... the Badgers allowed just 20 points (6.7) per game in the opening three contests ... the UW defense created 27 turnovers (2.07 per game), which helped the school enjoy a plus-9 turnover margin ... the Badgers had more than twice as many sacks (39-19) and passes broken up (63-29) as their opponents ... the Badgers' 18 interceptions were the second-most at the UW in 12 years (only the Rose Bowl team of '93, which led the nation with 23 pickoffs, had more) ... the defensive scoring average of 18.7 was an improvement of 4.3 points from 1995.

INSPECTING THE OFFENSE — The Badgers averaged 29.0 points per game ... that is the third time in four seasons that the club has averaged at least 29 points per contest ... prior to this stretch, only three other UW squads (1983, 1974 and 1962) averaged more points per game ... Wisconsin's 1996 offensive statistics show an emphasis on the running game ... just like the bowl teams of 1993 and 1994, the Badgers had a powerful rushing attack in '96 ... the 249.4-yard rushing average was fourth-best in school history ... the 1993 club (which ranked eighth nationally in rushing) and the 1994 team (ninth) had the third- and fifth-best averages in UW annals ... the ratio of rushing yardage to passing yardage in the last four seasons is below:

Year	Rush. Avg.	Rush. Ratio	Pass. Avg.	Pass. Ratio
1996	249.4	.645	137.2	.355
1995	128.9	.368	221.7	.632
1994	244.5	.577	179.1	.423
1993	250.8	.551	204.4	.449



DAVID STUVAK

Ron Dayne became the fourth different Badger in as many seasons to rush for more than 1,000 yards.

GAME #1, @ MADISON

E. MICHIGAN	0	0	0	3	—	3
WISCONSIN	7	0	10	7	—	24

MADISON — Wisconsin got an efficient performance from its offense and a stingy run defense to defeat Eastern Michigan 24-3 in the season opener. Mike Samuel, in his first college start, completed 12-20 passes, and the Badgers got 235 yards rushing on the way to building a 24-0 lead.

Four of Samuel's passes were dropped, including a sure TD bomb to Tony Simmons. "He played a sharp game," Coach Barry Alvarez said of Samuel's debut as a starter. Samuel also demonstrated some skill in running the option as 57 of the club's 71 first-half rushing yards came via option pitches from Samuel.

Carl McCullough rushed for 107 yards and one TD, his sixth game over the century mark in his career. Ron Dayne added 53 yards on eight carries. Dayne electrified the crowd, carrying the ball on five straight plays en route to his first TD.

The UW defense posted a shutout for more than 56 minutes before the Eagles tallied on a 35-yard field goal with 3:31 left. Eastern Michigan netted just 44 yards rushing, and Wisconsin's defense was credited with five sacks. EMU penetrated the Badger "Red Zone" twice, but failed to score each time after missing short field goals.

End Tarek Saleh was credited with three tackles behind the line to lead the defense. Strong safety Giscard Bernard registered a team-best 10 tackles in his first college start.

Game-time temperatures were recorded at 80 degrees, but 67 percent humidity raised field level temperatures to more than 100 degrees.

GAME #2, @ LAS VEGAS

WISCONSIN	7	14	17	14	—	52
UNLV	0	7	10	0	—	17

LAS VEGAS — Wisconsin netted 366 yards rushing, its first game over 300 yards since the Northwestern game of 1994, and intercepted four passes to defeat UNLV, 52-17.

Aaron Stecker (135), Ron Dayne (90) and Carl McCullough (71) powered the Badger rushing attack. Stecker scored on a pair of short touchdown runs, but his carries of 45 and 40 yards in the first half ignited the partisan Badger crowd.

More than 30,000 Wisconsin fans made the trip to Las Vegas. It was the largest sporting event in the state of Nevada's history. The crowd of 40,091 was the first sellout at Sam Boyd Stadium since a 1986 football game between UNLV and Wisconsin.

The four interceptions by Wisconsin included a 14-yard return for a TD by Daryl Carter. UNLV freshman quarterback Jon Denton passed for 293 yards, but three pickoffs hampered Rebel drives. Jason Suttle made two of the interceptions in the end zone to end UNLV marches.

Badger defenders allowed just one first-half TD, and it occurred on a 45-yard desperation pass on the final play of the first half. Suttle nearly intercepted his third pass of the half, but the ball popped out of his hands when teammate Bobby Myers collided with Suttle in the end zone and Todd Floyd made the touchdown catch.

The UW run defense limited the Rebels to 110 yards on the ground. Wisconsin upped its mark to 9-0 during the Barry Alvarez era when it outrushed the opponent by 200 yards or more. The Badgers had a 256-yard advantage on the ground.

Mike Samuel completed just nine passes but averaged 22 yards per connection while throwing for 198 yards. The Badgers' total offense (578) tied for the sixth-most in school history.

WISCONSIN	0	7	0	7	—	14

MADISON — Wisconsin got a strong effort from its defense and registered the third shutout of the Barry Alvarez era at the UW on the way to a 14-0 win over Stanford.

Despite suffering four turnovers — three in the third quarter — the Wisconsin defense kept Stanford off the scoreboard. "When you can shut out someone who can do the things Stanford can do, you have to have a team effort," Coach Barry Alvarez said of his defense.

The Badgers limited the Cardinal to 211 total yards, including only 50 on the ground. Wisconsin defenders accumulated five quarterback sacks, including three by Tarek Saleh. Bryan Jurewicz tipped three Cardinal passes at the line and forced a fumble. It was the UW's third shutout since '94, but probably the most impressive considering the PAC-10 opposition.

Mike Samuel set career highs with 21 completions, 30 attempts and 236 yards through the air. Donald Hayes caught seven of those aerials for 90 yards. Hayes scored the game-winning TD on a diving 23-yard reception.

Freshman Ron Dayne sparked the rushing game with 75 yards in the fourth quarter. Wisconsin's rushing attack netted just 101 yards in the entire game. Dayne carried eight times on the game-clinching scoring drive in the fourth period, which ended on Samuel's one-yard dive.

The victory boosted the Badgers' record to 3-0, its third undefeated non-conference campaign under Alvarez. Wisconsin's defense surrendered just 20 points (vs. Eastern Michigan, UNLV and Stanford), the best three-game defensive stretch since John Jardine's 1977 club allowed 10 points to Oregon, Northwestern and Illinois.

GAME #4, @ MADISON

PENN STATE	10	10	0	3	—	23
WISCONSIN	3	7	0	10	—	20

MADISON — Wisconsin battled third-ranked Penn State to the final whistle before falling 23-20 in front of a large and enthusiastic crowd at Camp Randall Stadium.

John Hall's 58-yard field goal attempt, which had plenty of distance, was wide left by five feet as time expired. The Badgers fought back from a 17-3 deficit and tied the game at 20-20 with 3:22 left. Hall's 24-yard field goal was the equalizer.

Penn State roared back and drove to the UW seven-yard line, much of the yardage gained on a 40-yard reception by Joe Jurevicius, to set up Brett Conway's game-winning 25-yard field goal with 1:23 remaining.

The Badgers started the ensuing drive from their seven-yard line, but QB Mike Samuel piloted a 10-play march that reached the Penn State 40-yard line. Hall's long field goal attempt, which would have sent the game into overtime, was barely wide.

Samuel set career highs for the second game in a row by completing 26 of 40 passes. Donald Hayes caught nine of those throws, a personal best. Freshman Ron Dayne was the Badger offensive star with 129 yards rushing and two TDs.

Coach Barry Alvarez was happy with his team's performance. "I thought we did a lot of good things," Alvarez said of his club which bounced back from 14- and 10-point deficits. "But we made some mistakes, and you can't afford to do that against a quality opponent."

Pete Monty was credited with a career-best 21 tackles, and Kevin Huntley added 13 stops to key the defensive charges.

A crowd of 79,607 was the third-largest in Camp Randall Stadium history.

GAME #5, @ COLUMBUS

WISCONSIN	0	7	0	7	—	14
OHIO STATE	0	3	7	7	—	17

COLUMBUS — Wisconsin held the nation's highest-scoring offense 35 points below its season average before falling to No. 2 Ohio State 17-14.

"We played well and had a chance," Coach Barry Alvarez said of his club, which entered the game as a 26-point underdog.

The Badgers unveiled a new offensive front that featured 378-pound Aaron Gibson, and it resulted in a powerful attack that rushed (155) and passed (206) with efficiency. Carl McCullough (81) and Ron Dayne (65) led the rushing attack and QB Mike Samuel passed for 206 yards against the Buckeyes' much-publicized pass rush.

The Badgers gained a 14-10 lead early in the fourth quarter after Kevin Huntley returned a fumble 36 yards for a touchdown. Wisconsin limited OSU's big-play capability all day until the Buckeyes scored the game-winning TD on a 48-yard pass play midway through the final period. Dimitrious Stanley eluded a couple of potential tacklers in the secondary and scored the winning points with 8:51 left.

Samuel suffered two interceptions, the club's only turnovers of the game, as they tried to rally in the fourth quarter. Samuel was effective with the passing game early completing 43- and 44-yard throws in the first quarter. Ohio State, which entered the game with a 310-yard rushing average, netted just 78 yards against the Badgers' stingy defense. Wisconsin was credited with 10 tackles for loss, including three by Tarek Saleh.

GAME #6, @ MADISON

N'WESTERN	7	7	6	14	—	34
WISCONSIN	10	3	3	14	—	30

MADISON — Wisconsin dropped a 34-30 decision to Northwestern, its third straight close defeat to a nationally ranked opponent. The tightly contested Big Ten battle featured six lead changes and a wild final minute of play.

The Badgers led the defending Big Ten champion Wildcats 30-20 before a furious fourth-quarter Northwestern rally. Wisconsin took its 10-point lead on runs by Ron Dayne and Cecil Martin in the final stanza.

Northwestern fought back to within 30-27 on an Adrian Autry score. After Northwestern's desperation 55-yard field goal attempt (which would have tied the score at 30) missed with 1:33 left, the Badgers took over on their own 38-yard line.

QB Steve Schnur was forced out of the pocket on the first play and rambled for 21 yards. Schnur then connected with D'wayne Bates (10 catches for 131 yards) on a 20-yard scoring play with 0:37 left.

Prior to the fumble in the fourth quarter, Dayne had exploited the Wildcat defense for a career-best 139 yards. Before that play, Dayne had not lost a fumble in 105 previous collegiate carries.

Northwestern's win was its 12th straight in the Big Ten and was accomplished without the service of Darnell Autry, who got hurt in the first quarter.

GAME #7, @ EAST LANSING

WISCONSIN	0	13	0	0	—	13
MICH. STATE	7	13	3	7	—	30

EAST LANSING — Wisconsin was outscored 20-3 in the last two-and-a-half quarters in losing a 30-13 decision at Michigan State. "They beat us soundly in all phases of the game," Coach Barry Alvarez said.

The Badgers battled back to a 10-10 tie on Mike Samuel's 12-yard run in the second quarter before the Spartans sandwiched Chris Gardner's third field goal with a pair of Sedrick Irvin TDs.

The Badger defense surrendered a season-high 471 total yards, and the UW offense gained a season-low 290 total yards.

Spartan QB Todd Schultz completed 18-25 throws for 269 yards and never faced much of a rush from a defense, which entered the game with 20 sacks. Michigan State also rushed for 202 yards against the No. 1 rush defense in the league. "This wasn't a magical scheme," Alvarez said. "They executed their offense better than we executed our defense."

Ron Dayne rushed for 81 yards and Donald Hayes led the club in receiving (79 yards) for the fifth time in six games. Much of the Badgers' passing yardage came on a 42-yard heave to Hayes, which set up Samuel's 12-yard TD run.

John Hall connected on two-of-three field goals, including a season-long 51 yarder to pull the Badgers within 20-13 at the half. Wisconsin, however, did not score in the second half and gained only five first downs in the final 30 minutes.

GAME #8, @ MADISON

PURDUE	0	10	7	8	—	25
WISCONSIN	10	14	9	0	—	33

MADISON — Wisconsin roared to a 24-0 first-half lead and made a pair of fourth quarter interceptions to hold on for a 33-25 victory over Purdue.

The Badgers got a school freshman rushing record 244 yards and two touchdowns from Ron Dayne to record their first Big Ten triumph of the season. Dayne's yardage total broke Alan Ameche's Wisconsin freshman record of 200 yards and was also the second-best total on the school's all-time single-game list.

"This was a good win," Coach Barry Alvarez said. "Our kids certainly needed one. Everyone needed one. Our systems needed it."

Dayne carried the Badger offense as Mike Samuel completed just four passes. Two of the completions — 43 yards to Tony Simmons and four yards to Cecil Martin — were touchdowns. John Hall also made a big contribution, hitting a pair of 44-yard field goals and averaging 49.5 yards on four punts.

The Badger defense was on the field for 104 scrimmage plays but was credited with four turnovers. Wisconsin got interceptions to end the Boilermakers' final two drives. Because of the extensive work, five Badger defenders — Bob Adamov (16), Kevin Huntley (16), Pete Monty (15), Bryan Jurewicz (10) and Daryl Carter (10) — had double-digit tackles. Additionally, Tarek Saleh added nine stops (three for losses), one fumble recovery and a fumble caused.

Purdue won all of the statistical battles except the bottom-line scoring total. The Boilermakers had advantages in first downs (38-16), total offense (540-365) and time of possession (36:19-23:41).

GAME #9, @ MADISON

MINNESOTA	7	0	6	15	—	28
WISCONSIN	7	21	14	3	—	45

MADISON — Wisconsin rode its freshman tailback Ron Dayne to a 45-28 victory over Minnesota in the final home appearance for its senior class.

Dayne rumbled for a Big Ten freshman record 297 yards on 50 carries. He scored three TDs. Dayne's attempts set a UW record and his yardage total was the second-most in school annals. He carried 31 times in the first half, just short of Tony Sands' (Kansas) NCAA record of 34 rushes.

Dayne's record-breaking performance allowed him to become just the fourth true freshman in league history to go over 1,000 yards. He broke the NCAA freshman record for carries in a game set previously by Wake Forest's James McDougal. Dayne nearly joined Billy Marek as the only Badgers to register a 300-yard game, but Coach Barry Alvarez pulled his prize freshman in the fourth period.

"I couldn't care less about records, statistics or anything else," Alvarez said. "We came here to win the football game, and we did."

The Badgers registered a 261-yard advantage in rushing and received a pair of TD passes from Mike Samuel as they maintained possession of the Paul Bunyan Axe. Dayne gained 61 percent of the club's total offense as Wisconsin recorded a 14-minute advantage in time of possession.

The Badgers scored TDs on six of their first seven possessions. The only drive that didn't end with a touchdown was a failed field goal attempt. Bryan Jurewicz was credited with three of the Badgers' five quarterback sacks. Golden Gopher receivers Ryan Thelwell (142) and Tutu Atwell (105) had big games, but the Minnesota running game netted just 88 yards.

GAME #10, @ IOWA CITY

IOWA	10	14	7	0	—	31

IOWA CITY — Wisconsin could not get its running game on track and turned the ball over five times in a 31-0 loss at Iowa. It was the Badgers' largest margin of defeat in the series against Iowa since 1968.

"It's obvious that we didn't play very well," Coach Barry Alvarez said. "We were beaten in every phase of the game. Credit Iowa. They had a lot to do with how we played."

The Hawkeyes raced to a 24-0 halftime lead with an efficient performance on both sides of the ball. Wisconsin had three-play drives on five of its six first-half possessions. Iowa registered 199 total yards in the opening half and converted on 7-10 third-down conversions.

Sedrick Shaw did much of the damage for the Hawkeyes gaining 143 yards and scoring three TDs. Shaw had scoring runs of 29 and 33 yards in the opening half.

Ron Dayne was the focus of the Badger offense, accumulating 79 percent (62 rushing, 39 receiving) of the total offensive yardage. Dayne, who gained 541 yards the two previous weeks, had his Big Ten season low. "We couldn't establish the run and couldn't get anything going offensively," said Alvarez.

Iowa's Bill Ennis-Inge was a thorn in the Badgers' side with four quarterback sacks, two fumbles forced and a fumble recovery. Wisconsin suffered five turnovers as the Hawkeyes boosted their record to 17-0-1 vs. the Badgers since 1976.

GAME #11, @ CHAMPAIGN

WISCONSIN	14	14	7	0	—	35
ILLINOIS	0	7	0	8	—	15

CHAMPAIGN — Wisconsin got a 200-yard rushing performance from freshman Ron Dayne for the third time in four weeks as the Badgers ended their Big Ten season with a 35-15 win at Illinois.

Dayne set a UW record with 212 yards rushing in the first half as the UW built a 28-7 halftime lead. Dayne gained 82 percent of the team's first-half yardage. He scored a career-high four TDs, including a career-long 54-yard run.

"Dayne makes a lot of things happen," said Alvarez. "He is not just a big plow horse." Dayne scored on runs of 30, 54, 19 and 23 yards.

Wisconsin ended the day with 365 yards rushing and attempted just 12 passes. Dayne's exploits once again overshadowed Wisconsin's defense, which limited Illinois to just 256 total yards, its second-best performance of the league season. The Badgers held Illinois to 93 yards on the ground and 163 (its second-best effort of the year) through the air.

The Fighting Illini got both of their scores from Ty Douthard, who tallied on a run and a reception. Coach Lou Tepper's last game as coach was witnessed by just 37,814 fans.

GAME #12, @ HONOLULU

WISCONSIN	21	7	17	14	—	59
HAWAII	3	7	0	0	—	10

HONOLULU — Ron Dayne ran for a school-record 339 yards and four touchdowns as the Badgers closed the regular season with a 59-10 win at Hawaii.

The Badgers, who needed a dominating performance to impress bowl scouts, got one from the unstoppable Dayne.

Dayne bettered three NCAA and six Wisconsin records in the victory. He became the NCAA's most prolific freshman runner, passing Georgia's Herschel Walker. Dayne's TD runs covered four, three, 48 and 22 yards.

His longest run of the season (71 yards) came on the game's first recorded play. Dayne ran for 67 yards on his first try of the game, but the play was called back for illegal motion. Hawaii was offside on the next play followed by two more illegal motion penalties on the UW. Finally, Dayne ripped off his 71-yard run. He scored on a two-yard run three plays later.

Dayne was removed from the game late in the third period needing only 58 yards to break the NCAA's all-time single-game mark. His yardage total broke Billy Marek's Badger record (304 vs. Minnesota). The 18-year-old freshman broke his own record with 250 yards rushing in the first half going over the century mark in both the first and second quarters.

Aaron Stecker scored two TDs and returned punts for 122 yards in a splendid performance.

The UW defense limited the Rainbows to 183 total yards. The defense's performance simply gave Dayne more opportunities to dominate the undersized Rainbow Warriors.

GAME #13, @ TUCSON

WISCONSIN	14	17	0	7	—	38
UTAH	3	0	7	0	—	10

TUCSON — Ron Dayne ended his freshman campaign as the only first-year player in NCAA history to rush for more than 2,000 yards as the Badgers smashed Utah 38-10 in the Copper Bowl. The win was the Badgers' third bowl triumph in four seasons for Coach Barry Alvarez. Only six other teams in the NCAA can make that claim.

Dayne also became the all-time season rushing leader in Big Ten history (passing Michigan State's Lorenzo White) and made his claim as one of the nation's top candidates for the 1997 Heisman Trophy with his 246-yard, three-touchdown performance.

The Badgers were outgained in total yardage (430-365), but an opportunistic secondary intercepted four Utah passes. The key pickoff was a second quarter theft by Cyrill Weems, which he returned 82 yards for a TD. That return gave the Badgers a comfortable 21-3 lead.

The expected running battle between Dayne (a 260 pounder) and Chris Fuamatu-Ma'Afala (a 275 pounder) never materialized. Dayne more than lived up to his advance billing, but Utah's top runner gained five yards before departing in the first half with an ankle injury. Dayne's yardage total was the second-most in Copper Bowl history.

Whenever the Utes made a comeback attempt, the UW defenders came up with a big play. Besides Weems' interception, the Badgers stopped three other drives on pickoffs by Pete Monty, Pete Diatelevi and Jason Suttle. Tom Burke had his best game of the season on the defensive front with 10 tackles, including two for losses.

Dayne was the game MVP and Tarek Saleh (six tackles, one tipped pass which was intercepted and a blocked field goal) was the defensive player-of-the-game.

BIG TEN CHAMPS

1896 BIG TEN CHAMPS

Coach Phil King

After opening the season with seven victories, the Badgers tied Northwestern 6-6 and lost to the Carlisle Indians. Despite the late-season swoon, the Badgers claimed the inaugural Western Conference title. The Badgers' tough defense registered shutouts in six of its seven victories. The season-ending loss to the Carlisle Indians was the first night game in school history. It was played indoors at the Chicago Coliseum.

1897 BIG TEN CHAMPS

Coach Phil King

Wisconsin won its second straight conference title and registered eight shutouts on the way to a 9-1 mark. The only loss was a 6-0 decision to the UW Alumni. Victories over Minnesota, Chicago and Northwestern propelled the Badgers to the Western Conference title. Australian kicker Pat O'Dea, the famed "Kangaroo Kicker," booted 14 field goals to lead the club. It was the second of four league titles for Coach Phil King.

1897

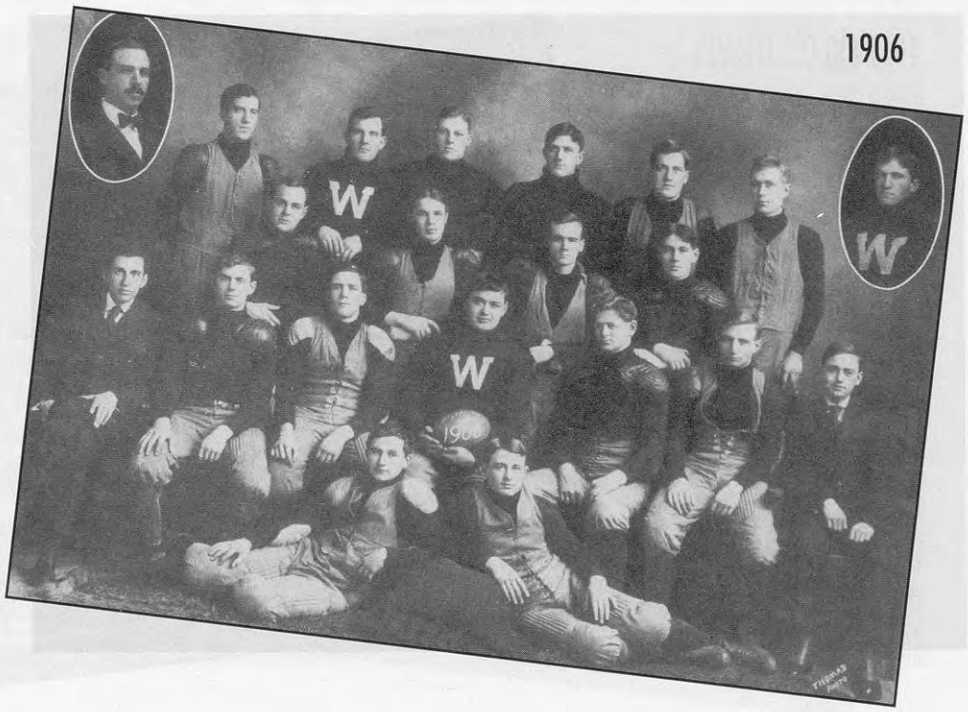
Coach Phil King

Phil King's Badgers won nine straight games to become the first undefeated team in school history. Using a potent offense and stingy defense, Wisconsin defeated every opponent by at least three TDs and recorded eight shutouts to claim a share of the Big Ten title. The Badgers outscored the opposition 317-5. Wisconsin's slate included two wins over high school teams and conference wins over Chicago and Minnesota.

1906 BIG TEN CHAMPS

Coach Phil King

Although traditional league powers Minnesota, Michigan and Chicago were missing from the schedule due to a faculty reform movement that limited the number of games, Wisconsin claimed a share of the conference championship with the Gophers. Center Ewald Stiehm, Wisconsin's first all-league performer, helped the Badgers to a 5-0 slate. Coach C.P. Hutchins' team posted Western Conference wins over Iowa, Illinois and Purdue by a combined score of 63-15.



1912 BIG TEN CHAMPS

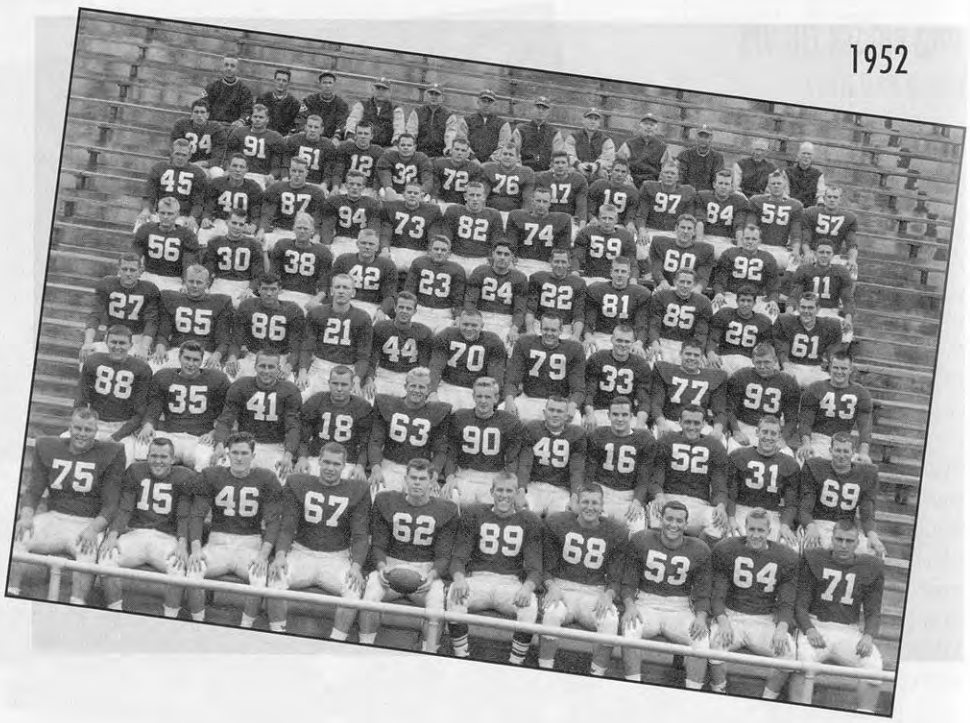
Coach William Juneau

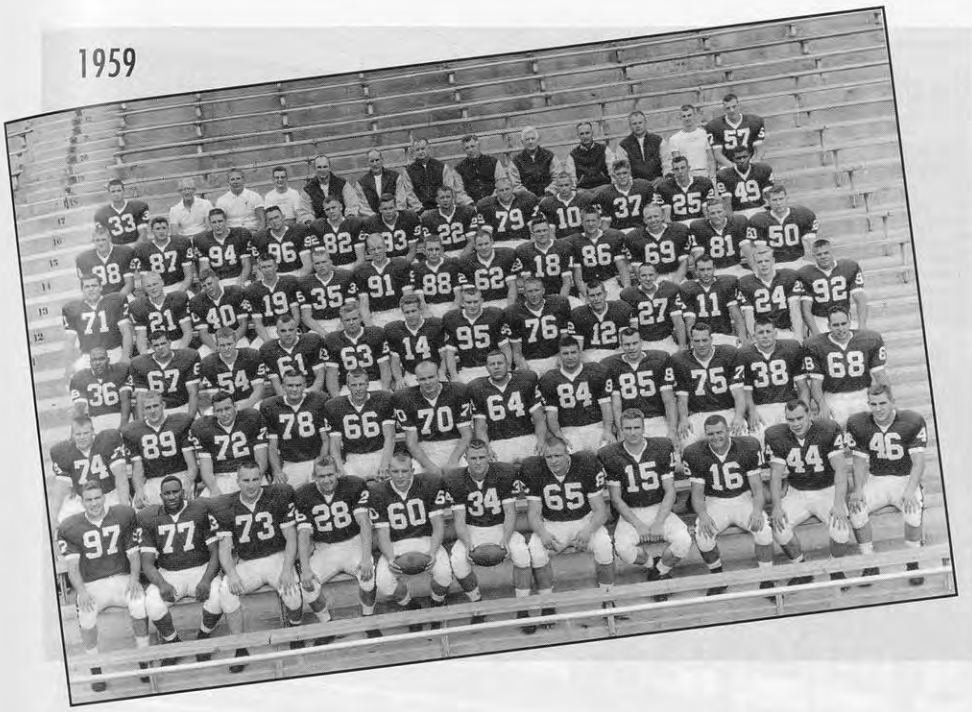
The Badgers ended their third undefeated (7-0) season with a 28-10 win at Iowa. Coach William Juneau's squad was the last Badger team to post a perfect record. Led by consensus all-America tackle Robert "Butts" Butler, the Badgers placed a school-record nine players on the all-Western Conference team. Wisconsin registered four shutouts and allowed only 29 points the entire season.

1952 BIG TEN CHAMPS

Coach Ivy Williamson

Following a 20-6 win over Illinois in the second game of the season, Wisconsin sat atop the polls as the nation's No. 1 team. It is the only time in school history that the Badgers were ranked first. Wisconsin lost the following week, but went on to a 6-3-1 record and the school's first Rose Bowl appearance. After losing to USC 7-0 in Pasadena, the Badgers ended the season ranked 10th by UPI and 11th by AP.





1959 BIG TEN CHAMPS

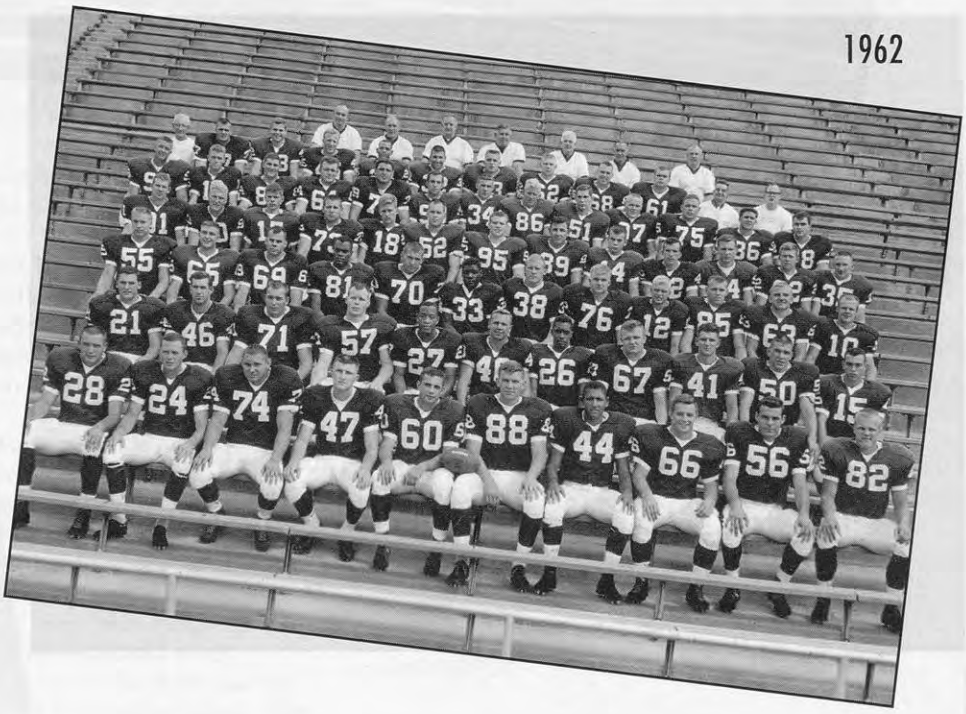
Coach Milt Bruhn

Needing a victory in the regular-season finale to clinch a league title, Wisconsin recovered from an early deficit and beat Minnesota 11-7. It was the Badgers' first undisputed title since 1912. At the Rose Bowl, Washington scored 17 points in the first quarter on the way to a 44-8 win. All-Big Ten QB Dale Hackbart and all-Big Ten guard Jerry Stalcup were stars on a club that finished the season ranked sixth by AP and UPI.

1962 BIG TEN CHAMPS

Coach Milt Bruhn

Opening the season with a 69-13 rout of New Mexico State, the Badgers rolled to an 8-1 record and the Big Ten title. Although USC defeated Wisconsin 42-37 in perhaps the most exciting Rose Bowl ever, the Badgers finished the storybook campaign ranked second in both the AP and UPI polls. Ron Vander Kelen set a Rose Bowl record with 401 yards passing as the UW scored 23 straight points in a fourth quarter rally. Pat Richter was a consensus all-American after catching 49 passes.



1993

Coach Barry Alvarez

The 1993 Badgers established a new standard of excellence, shattering school records and earning numerous honors. After claiming Wisconsin's first Big Ten title in 31 years (a co-championship with Ohio State), the Badgers defeated UCLA 21-16 in the Rose Bowl. The 10-1-1 club became the winningest in school history and boasted eight first-team all-Big Ten players, including Big Ten and Rose Bowl Most Valuable Player Brent Moss. Wisconsin ended the season ranked fifth and sixth by the coaches (CNN/USA Today) and media (Associated Press), respectively.

Badgers in Bowls

1953 Rose

PASADENA, Calif. — Southern Cal scored the game's only points on a 22-yard pass from Rudy Bukich to Al Carmichael in the Trojans' 7-0 win over Wisconsin in the Rose Bowl.

The Badgers dominated the game from a statistical standpoint, outgaining USC by 120 yards. Led by Alan Ameche's 133 yards rushing, Wisconsin had a 211-48 advantage on the ground. However, both defenses rose to the occasion when necessary.

One of Wisconsin's best scoring chances came in the opening minutes of the third quarter. Ameche broke loose for a 54-yard run as the Badgers got to the USC 21-yard line. On third down, Archie Ray Burks fumbled on an end run and USC recovered.

The Trojans then put together the game-winning drive (73 yards), which ended with Bukich's TD pass. Wisconsin countered with a 13-play, 84-yard drive that ended at the Trojan 2-yard line when Jerry Witt was stopped a yard short of a first down on a fake field goal play.

1960 Rose

PASADENA, Calif. — Washington scored the game's first 17 points en route to a 44-8 Rose Bowl victory over Wisconsin.

Washington tallied the first TD on a 6-yard run by Don McKeta 10 minutes into the game. George Fleming booted a 26-yard field goal after the Huskies recovered one of four Wisconsin fumbles. Fleming then returned a punt 53 yards for a score on the final play of the period for a 17-0 Husky lead.

Badger fullback Tom Wiesner tallied Wisconsin's only points on a 4-yard run with 5:27 left in the opening half. Dale Hackbart connected with Al Schoonover for a two-point conversion that cut the lead to 17-8.

Washington quarterback Bob Schloredt, who shared game MVP honors with Fleming, tossed a 23-yard TD pass to close first-half scoring. Schloredt completed four passes for 102 yards and rushed for 81 yards.

Wisconsin mounted a challenge in the third quarter, but four plays inside the Husky 10-yard line failed. The Badger defense entered the bowl with a defensive average of barely 10 points per game for the regular season.

1963 Rose

PASADENA, Calif. — A 23-point fourth quarter explosion wasn't quite enough as the Badgers dropped a 42-37 Rose Bowl encounter to Southern Cal. The Trojans had claimed a 42-14 lead on the first play of the fourth quarter before the huge Badger comeback.

USC raced to a 21-7 halftime lead and extended it on the first play of the third stanza, before Ron Vander Kelen led one of the biggest charges in bowl history.

Vander Kelen reached paydirt on a 17-yard scamper to reduce the margin to 28-14. USC responded with a pair of TD passes by Pete Beathard and the Trojans led 42-14.

Lou Holland (13-yard run) and Gary Kroner (4-yard reception) tallied for the Badgers within three minutes. A bad center snap on a punt resulted in a UW safety. After the free kick, Vander Kelen hit three straight passes, including a 19-yard score to Pat Richter for the final 42-37 margin.

Vander Kelen, the game MVP, set both Wisconsin and Rose Bowl records with 401 yards passing. Richter caught 11 of those aerials for 163 yards. The 79 total points was a Rose Bowl record that stood for 28 years.

'81 Garden State

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. — Tennessee scored 18 straight points in the first half and held on to defeat Wisconsin 28-21 in the Garden State Bowl.

The Badger defense limited UT to 89 yards rushing, but Volunteer QB Steve Alatorre unleashed a potent passing attack. Alatorre threw for 315 yards. WR Anthony Hancock caught 11 passes for 196 yards.

After Fuad Reveiz booted a field goal in the first quarter, Wisconsin assumed its only lead of the game on a 3-yard run by Jess Cole. Willie Gault returned the ensuing kickoff 87 yards to give Tennessee a lead it never lost.

Reserve quarterback Randy Wright came off the bench to throw a pair of second-half touchdown passes for the Badgers. Wright hit Jeff Nault and Thad McFadden on scoring tosses in the final period.

The game featured two high-powered offenses that combined for 49 points, 793 total yards and 49 first downs.

Wisconsin's fourth bowl in school history and first non-Rose Bowl drew a crowd of 53,220.

1982 Independence

SHREVEPORT, La. — Wisconsin won its first bowl game with a 14-3 decision over Kansas State in the Independence Bowl.

Randy Wright threw a game-record two TD passes and the Badger defense set a scoring record before 24,684 fans. The anticipated crowd was more than 49,000, but a 23-mile-per-hour wind dropped temperatures to 10 below zero.

Wright, the game offensive MVP, completed nine of 24 throws. However, his 87-yard pass play to Tim Stracka was the longest in UW and Independence Bowl history. The UW defense limited Kansas State to 192 total yards in the Wildcats' first-ever postseason appearance.

KSU had taken a 3-0 lead on Steve Willis' 29-yard field goal before the Badgers scored 14 straight points. Tim Krumrie was the game Defensive MVP. He helped limit the Kansas State running attack to less than two yards per carry.

Game totals showed five turnovers, 14 punts, 22 completions in 59 attempts and 14 penalties.

1984 Hall of Fame

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. — A fumbled snap on a 26-yard game-winning field goal attempt was the deciding play in Wisconsin's 20-19 loss to Kentucky in the Hall of Fame Bowl.

Todd Gregoire's field goal with 1:55 left never materialized after holder Bob Kobza dropped the center snap. Gregoire, a freshman, had tied a school record with four field goals earlier in the game.

Wisconsin assumed a 13-0 lead on a pair of Gregoire three pointers and a 3-yard TD pass from Mike Howard to Thad McFadden. The Badgers outgained their SEC foe both on the ground and through the air.

However, UW was assessed 13 penalties for 133 yards, both Hall of Fame Bowl records. The Badgers threw two interceptions. Kentucky, which was making its second straight postseason appearance in Birmingham, had no turnovers.

1994 Rose

PASADENA, Calif. — The Wisconsin defense forced six turnovers, while the offense churned out 250 yards rushing as the Badgers downed UCLA 21-16 in the Rose Bowl. It was the Badgers' first-ever New Year's Day bowl victory.

More than 70,000 Badger fans attended the game and provided a distinct home field advantage in the Bruins' home facility.

Tailback Brent Moss, the Rose Bowl MVP, helped the UW to a 14-3 halftime lead by scoring on a pair of short runs. Moss rushed for 158 yards on 36 carries.

Wisconsin extended its lead to 21-10 when Darrell Bevell provided the game's most unlikely play. On second-and-eight from the UCLA 21-yard line, Bevell broke containment and weaved his way to the end zone for the game-winning points.

Trailing 21-16, UCLA's final drive made it to the Badgers' 18 before Wayne Cook was stopped and the clock expired before the Bruins could run another play.

"The win, as much as it was for our players and coaches, was for our fans," said Coach Barry Alvarez. "They supported us all the way."

1995 Hall of Fame

TAMPA, Fla. — Senior Terrell Fletcher rushed for a Hall of Fame Bowl-record 241 yards as Wisconsin won its second January bowl game in as many years with a 34-20 triumph over Duke.

Fletcher gained 190 yards and scored two touchdowns in the second half to ice the win. Wisconsin intercepted three passes in the opening half. Jeff Messenger's 19-yard return of one of those pickoffs resulted in the Badgers' first TD.

Duke eventually tied the game in the third period before Fletcher took over the contest. Fletcher broke the deadlock with a one-yard run late in the third period. Jason Burns extended the margin to 27-13 with an 11-yard reception from Darrell Bevell.

After the Blue Devils cut the margin to seven (27-20) on Robert Baldwin's second score, Fletcher turned a critical third-and-one play into a 49-yard touchdown run to clinch the win.

More than 30,000 fans made the trip to Tampa as Wisconsin won its third game in a row to close the season 8-3-1.

1996 COPPER

TUCSON, Ariz. — Freshman tailback Ron Dayne concluded his remarkable freshman season with a 246-yard, three-touchdown performance in Wisconsin's 38-10 win over Utah in the Copper Bowl.

Dayne was named the game's Most Valuable Player. He totalled 152 yards by halftime as the Badgers opened up a commanding 31-3 lead. QB Mike Samuel got the UW on the board with a 38-yard run. After Utah kicked a field goal, Dayne scored (two carries for 77 yards) to give the Badgers a 14-3 lead.

The Utes were driving again when Cyrill Weems intercepted a pass and returned it 82 yards for a TD and a 21-3 bulge. Wisconsin's secondary picked off four Mike Fouts' passes.

The featured matchup between Dayne and Utah's Chris Fuamatu-Ma'afala never materialized. The Ute ballcarrier hurt his ankle and gained just five yards.

Badger defensive end Tarek Saleh was game defensive MVP with six tackles, one for a loss, one pass broken up and a blocked field goal. It was the Badgers' third bowl championship in four seasons.

ALL-AMERICANS

First-team selections only

Robert "Butts" Butler was the Badgers' initial first-team all-American. He was named to Collier's elite squad in 1912.

Robert Butler (1912)

First-team all-America honors by Collier's

A member of Wisconsin's last undefeated team in 1912, "Butts" Butler was the school's first consensus all-American. He was named to Walter Camp's all-America team as a junior (first-team) and senior (second-team). In the 1912 season finale against Minnesota, the tackle and his 10 teammates played the entire game in a 14-0 victory. He went on to compete professionally for the Canton Bulldogs and played with the legendary Jim Thorpe. Butler was later named to the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1972.

Ray Keeler (1913)

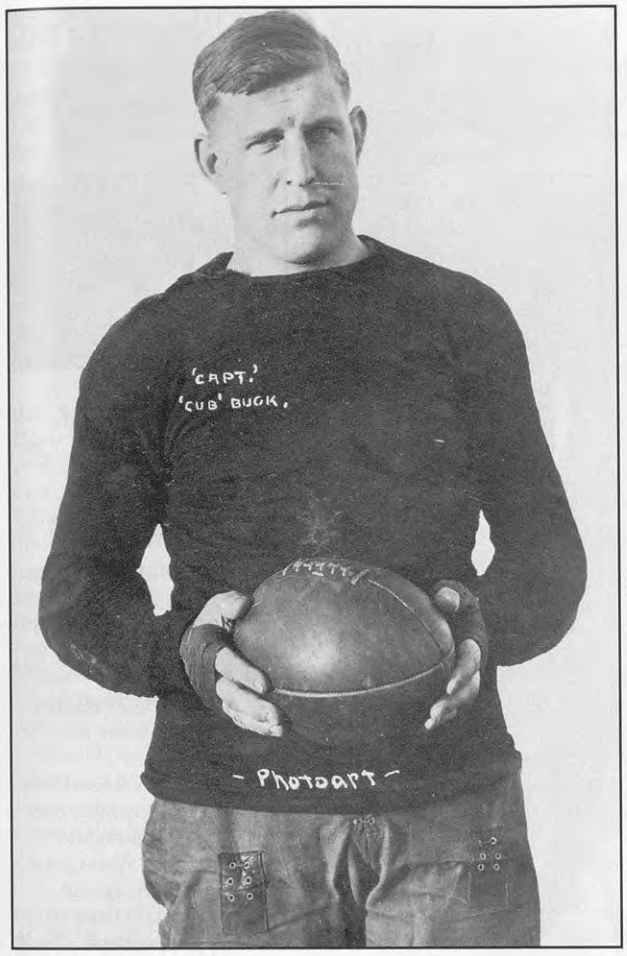
First-team all-America honors by International News Service / Frank Menke

Consensus all-America lineman Ray "Tubby" Keeler was a three-time letterman in both football and track and field at Wisconsin. Despite just a 185-pound frame, he earned all-America recognition in his junior season from the International News Service. He captained the 1914 Badger squad and served on the Athletic Board in 1914 and 1915. Keeler went on to coach the UW-La Crosse football team to a 45-24-15 (.625) record from 1917-1929.

Arlie Mucks (1914)

First-team all-America honors by International News Service / Frank Menke

One of Wisconsin's truly great athletes, Arlie Mucks was probably best known for his success as a discus thrower. The 1914 football all-American (as selected by INS / Frank Menke) placed second in the discus in the 1912 Olympics as a high school athlete. He was undefeated in college in the discus and shot put and set a then-world record discus mark of 155-2 in 1916. He is the only person to win national track titles in two events three consecutive years. Selected in 1969 to Wisconsin's all-time football team, Mucks officiated Big Ten football games following his playing career. He is a member of the State of Wisconsin and University of Wisconsin Athletic Halls of Fame.



Howard "Cub" Buck

Howard Buck (1915)

First-team all-America honors by Newspaper Enterprise Association; International News Service / Frank Menke and Walter Eckersall

A consensus all-America pick, Howard "Cub" Buck was labeled by many as the best college lineman of his era. He also played "roving center" on defense and was credited by many observers with making half of his team's tackles. Former Canton teammate Jim Thorpe called Buck the finest lineman he ever played with. Buck also played for Green Bay (1921-25) and is a member of the Packers' Hall of Fame. After his playing career, he became the first head football coach at Miami (Fla.) in 1926.

Paul Meyers (1919)

First-team all-America honors by Walter Eckersall

End Paul Meyers earned first-team all-America honors from Walter Eckersall as a senior. Meyers was an all-Big Ten choice in both 1916 and 1919. The three-year letterman, who played for three different coaches, was Badger team captain and a third-team all-America choice by Eckersall in 1916.

Charles Carpenter ('19)

First-team all-America honors by Frank Menke

The two-time all-America center made Walter Eckersall's honor squads in both 1916 (third-team) and 1919 (first-team). Carpenter, the first all-America center at the UW, captained the 1919 squad. He was a recipient of the Big Ten Medal of Honor in 1919. The Madison native later served as president of the UW Athletic Board.

George Bunge (1920-21)

First-team all-America honors by Consolidated Press

Center George Bunge earned all-America honors in 1920 and 1921. He was accorded first-team recognition in 1920 by Consolidated Press. Bunge earned third-team honors by both Charles Parker and INS in 1921. The Badgers posted a three-year mark of 16-4-1, including a second-place Big Ten finish in 1920, during his career.

Frank Weston (1920)

First-team all-America honors by Frank Menke

One of the truly great multi-sport athletes of his era, Frank "Red" Weston also carried his talents beyond the sports arena. A letterwinner three times in football and twice in basketball, he was a member of the UW Medical School faculty for more than 40 years. Weston served as senior class president in 1921. On the gridiron, he was captain of the 1920 team and was named all-America by four organizations. He was a member of the school's Athletic Board and was enshrined into the Madison Sports and Wisconsin Athletic Department Halls of Fame.

Paul Meyers

Ralph Scott (1920)

First-team all-America honors by Collier's

An all-conference and Walter Camp all-America tackle in 1920, Scott was noted for his outstanding blocking ability on offense. The giant 210 pounder also played tackle on defense for the '20 Badgers who were 6-1 and finished second in the Big Ten.

Marty Below (1923)

First-team all-America honors by International News Service; Athletic World & Walter Eckersall

A transfer from UW-Oshkosh, Marty Below played tackle for the Badgers and was a first-team all-American by INS, Athletic World and Walter Eckersall in 1923. Inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1988, he was praised by Red Grange who once said, "Marty was the greatest lineman I ever played against." At UW-Oshkosh, Below was a four-sport star after serving in the Marines during World War I.

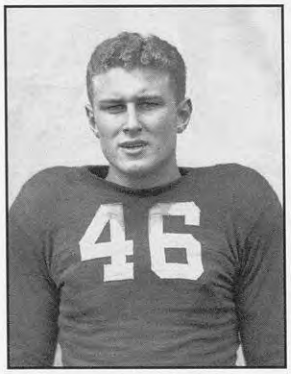
Marty Below, a transfer from UW-Oshkosh, earned high praise from Hall of Famer Red Grange who called him "the greatest lineman I ever played against."

Milo Lubratovich

Milo Lubratovich (1930)

First-team all-America honors by News Enterprise Association; United Press; Hearst & Central Press

A tackle, who broke his leg against Alabama as a sophomore, Milo Lubratovich rebounded two years later to become a consensus all-American and play in the East-West Game. Lubratovich received all-America mention from 10 different publications, including first-team honors from NEA, UP and Hearst. He also played professional baseball in the Brooklyn Dodgers organization from 1931-35.



Howard Weiss (1938)

First-team all-America honors by International News Service

After converting to fullback from halfback three games into his sophomore year, Howard Weiss went on to earn Big Ten MVP and all-America honors in 1938. He was a first-team choice by INS and was a second-team choice by four organizations. He is perhaps best remembered for his 41-yard touchdown run through the entire Northwestern defense in a 1938 upset win at Evanston. Elected class president, Weiss was sixth in the 1938 Heisman Trophy balloting and later played two years with the Detroit Lions.

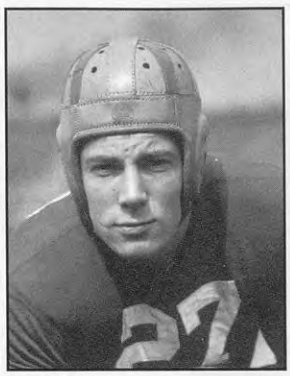
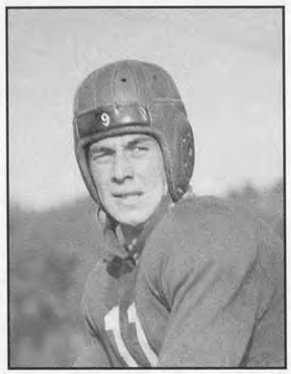
Wisconsin's first two-time first-team all-American, Dave Schreiner was considered one of the finest ends to ever play college football. Schreiner was a two-time AP all-America choice. He was named conference MVP in 1942, the year he caught three touchdown passes in one quarter against Marquette. He was drafted by the Detroit Lions. A member of the National Football Foundation and Wisconsin State Athletic Halls of Fame, Schreiner died in World War II in 1945.



Dave Schreiner

Marlin "Pat" Harder



Earl "Jug" Girard

Marlin Harder (1942)

First-team all-America honors by All-American Board

Junior all-American Marlin "Pat" Harder was one of Wisconsin's greatest fullbacks. Despite a college career that was cut short by his enlistment with the Marines, Harder teamed with Elroy "Crazylegs" Hirsch to lead the Badgers to an 8-1-1 record that included a 17-7 win over eventual national champion Ohio State. Also a placekicker, he led the conference in scoring in 1941 and 1942. He was named MVP of the 1943 College All-Star Game. The second pick in the 1943 NFL draft, Harder played for the Chicago Cardinals and the Detroit Lions. He led the NFL in scoring three years and later served as an NFL official for 17 years.

Earl Girard (1944)

First-team all-America honors by Look

A multi-sport star, Earl "Jug" Girard played two seasons at the UW (1944 and 1947) and earned all-America recognition as a 17-year-old freshman. Regarded as a "triple-threat" quarterback, he was proficient at running, passing and punting. Girard was drafted by the U.S. Army after his freshman season and returned to school in 1947. He holds the school record for most punt return yards in a game with 158 when he scored two touchdowns against Iowa in 1947. Girard was drafted in the first round by the Green Bay Packers, and he also spent time in the Cleveland baseball farm system.

Ed Withers (1950)

First-team all-America honors by Look

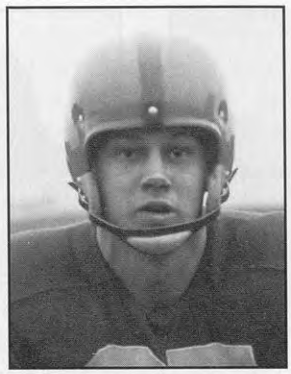
An all-city football and basketball player at Madison Central High School, Ed Withers came to the UW after serving a year in the Army. The aggressive defensive back had eight career interceptions and probably would have had more if opposing quarterbacks weren't instructed to avoid throwing in his direction. Withers' three interceptions helped lead Wisconsin to a 14-0 victory over Iowa in his all-America year. His 103 interception return yards in that game are tied for the most in UW history. The school's first black all-American, Withers was drafted by the Green Bay Packers in 1951.

Harold Faverty (1951)

First-team all-America honors by International News Service

Like so many other Wisconsin athletes during his era, Harold Faverty sandwiched his playing days around service in the Armed Forces. As a 25-year-old senior, he was one of the most experienced players on the 1951 squad. A roommate of fellow all-American Pat O'Donahue, Faverty played on both sides of the ball. He was a linebacker on the "Hard Rocks" defense, which allowed a school-record 5.9 points per game.

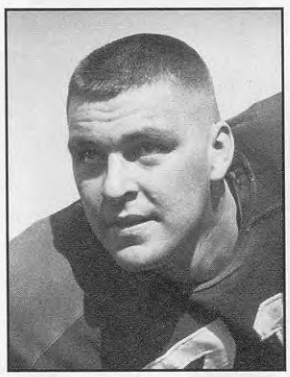


Harold Faverty

Pat O'Donahue (1951)

First-team all-America honors by Associated Press; News Enterprise Association & Look

A senior on the 1951 team that went 7-1-1 and finished eighth in the Associated Press poll, Pat O'Donahue was a fixture on Wisconsin's top-ranked defense. He was a quiet player who led by example. A penetrator on the line, O'Donahue played on the 1949-51 teams and was named all-American as an end in his final season. He played with the 49ers and Packers and was inducted into the UW Athletic Hall of Fame in 1993.

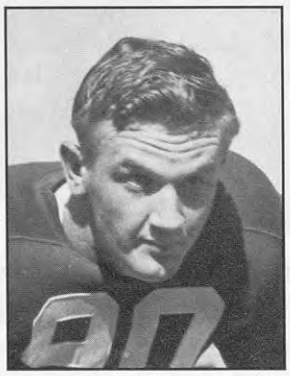


Dave Suminski

Dave Suminski (1952)

First-team all-America honors by Associated Press

All-Big Ten choice and all-American Dave Suminski earned those honors in his first year as a defensive tackle. An anchor on Wisconsin's 1953 Rose Bowl defensive unit, he started the previous two seasons on the offensive line. In his last college game, the Badger defense held USC to just 48 yards rushing. Suminski was taken by the Redskins in the 1953 NFL draft and later played with the Chicago Cardinals and the CFL's Hamilton Tiger Cats.



Don Voss

Don Voss (1952)

First-team all-America honors by Look

Don Voss was one of the top ends in Wisconsin history, even though his football career was ended by a knee injury suffered in the Rose Bowl his sophomore year. In his first year, he was named to the AP freshman all-America team and was a member of Wisconsin's "Hard Rocks," the best defensive unit in the country. A year later he helped guide the Badgers to Pasadena and their first-ever bowl game and was the youngest member of the 1952 Look all-America team.

Dan Lanphear (1959)

First-team all-America honors by Associated Press; United Press; News Enterprise Association; The Sporting News; American Football Coaches Association & Look

Madison native Dan Lanphear rebounded from an injury-plagued junior season to gain all-America honors in his final year. Also a captain of the UW track and field team, his best game on the gridiron may have been Wisconsin's 12-3 victory over Ohio State in 1959. In that contest, Lanphear recovered a fumble, blocked a punt for a safety, and knocked two Buckeye running backs out of the game with strong hits. He went on to play defensive end for the AFL's Houston Oilers and was a member of their league championship teams in 1960 and 1961.

Alan Ameche (1953-54)

Won 1954 Heisman Trophy; First-team all-America honors by News Enterprise Association; Football Writers' Association; Paramount News; Gridiron Record; Associated Press; Look; United Press; Collier's; The Sporting News; International News Service; All-American Board; Central Press; Boston American; Athletic Publications; N.Y. Metropolitan Newspapers; Pitts Smith News & Jet

The school's most famous player, Alan "The Horse" Ameche, was a first-team all-American in both 1953 and 1954. He is also the only player in Wisconsin history to win the Heisman Trophy (1954). Ameche set numerous records as a fullback, including the NCAA and Big Ten mark for career rushing yardage.

A two-time academic all-American, he was selected in the first round of the 1955 National Football League draft by Baltimore. Ameche ran for a 79-yard touchdown on his first NFL carry and also scored the winning TD in overtime of the 1958 NFL title game against the New York Giants.

A member of the Wisconsin State and National Football Foundation Halls of Fame, Ameche was voted Wisconsin's all-time greatest player in 1969. Ameche was also inducted into the GTE Academic All-America Hall of Fame in 1992.

Alan "The Horse" Ameche, the University of Wisconsin's lone Heisman Trophy winner, was also an academic all-America honoree as an undergraduate. He went on to a distinguished National Football League career and scored the winning touchdown in the 1958 NFL title game.

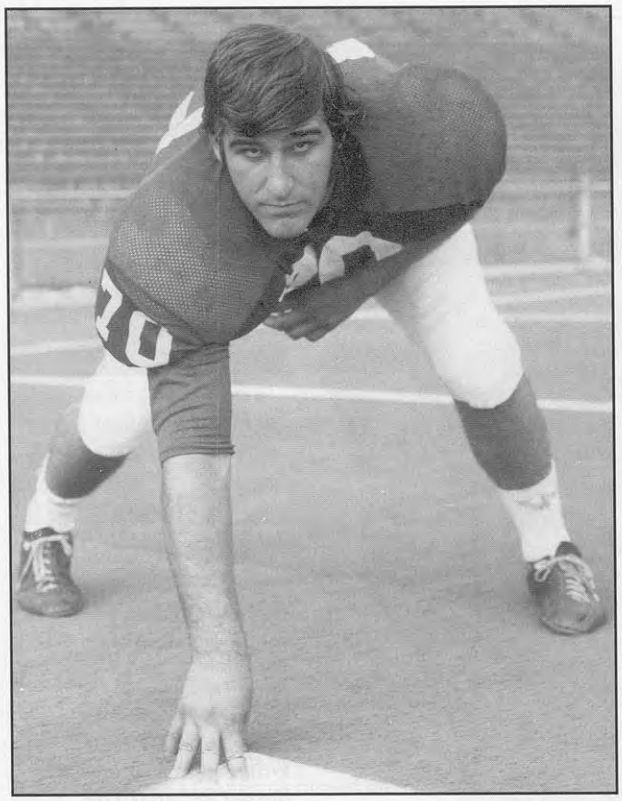
First-team all-America honors by United Press International; ABC; Associated Press; N.Y. Daily News; The Sporting News; American Football Coaches' Association; Football Writers' Association; CBS; Boston Record & Fox-Movietone

Madison native Pat Richter was a two-time all-America end, earning consensus honors in 1962. He led the Big Ten in receiving in 1961 and 1962 and topped the conference in punting his senior year. He set Rose Bowl records in 1963 with 11 catches for 163 yards, marks that stood for 31 years. A first-round draft choice of the Redskins, Richter played for eight seasons. He is a member of Wisconsin's all-time team and won an NCAA Silver Anniversary Award in 1988. Richter was named the school's Director of Athletics in 1989 and still holds the post. Richter was inducted into the CoSIDA Academic All-America Hall of Fame in 1994 and the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame in 1996.



Dennis Lick (1975)

First-team all-America honors by United Press International; American Football Coaches' Association; News Enterprise Association; The Sporting News; Time & Walter Camp Foundation

One of the UW's most punishing offensive linemen, Dennis Lick earned consensus all-America status as a junior despite missing the last three games due to injury. He blocked for Billy Marek, UW's all-time leading rusher. He was selected in the first round of the 1976 NFL draft by the Bears.

Ray Snell (1979)

First-team all-America honors by The Sporting News

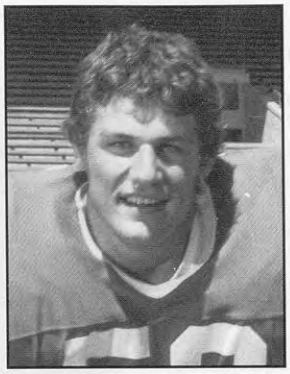
Baltimore native Ray Snell was a first-team all-America pick by The Sporting News as an offensive guard in 1979. The 295-pound lineman, known for his speed and agility, blocked for Ira Matthews and Dave Mohapp at Wisconsin. Snell was the 22nd pick overall (by Tampa Bay) in the first round of the 1980 NFL draft.



Tim Krumrie

Tim Krumrie (1981)

First-team honors by Associated Press; United Press International; Walter Camp Foundation & Football News

An all-Big Ten pick at noseguard his last three seasons, Tim Krumrie earned consensus all-America recognition his junior year. He is second on Wisconsin's career tackles list with 444, more than 100 stops ahead of the closest defensive lineman. Krumrie was a member of UW's 1981 Garden State Bowl team and earned 1982 Independence Bowl Defensive MVP honors. A 10th-round draft pick by the Cincinnati Bengals, he enjoyed a lengthy NFL career and played in Super Bowl XXIII.

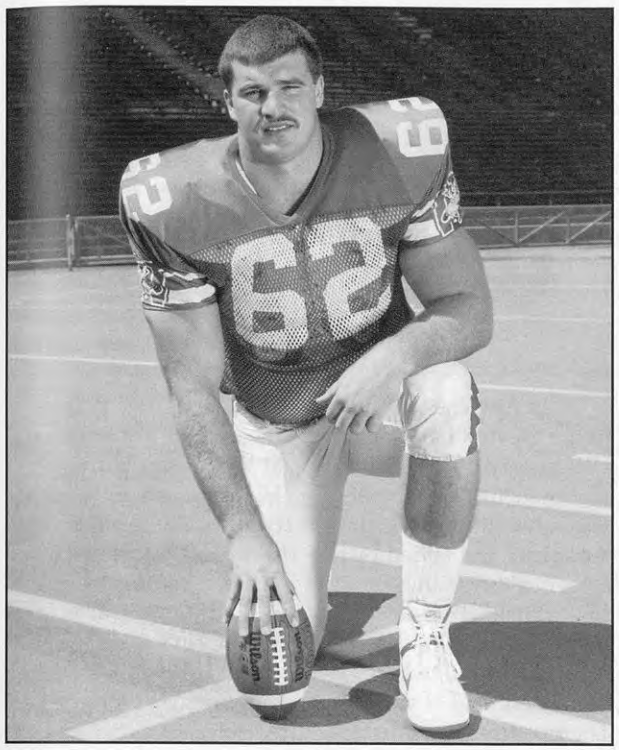
First-team honors by Football Writers' Association

A speedy defensive back, Richard Johnson was named to multiple all-America lists in 1985. He also set the UW career mark for blocked kicks (nine). Johnson was named Sports Illustrated's national defensive player of the week after Wisconsin's 35-34 victory at Missouri in 1984. Johnson blocked two kicks, intercepted a pass and recovered a blocked punt for a TD. Houston picked him in the first round of the 1985 NFL draft.



Paul Gruber

Paul Gruber (1987)

First-team all-America honors by The Sporting News

Wisconsin native Paul Gruber left Wisconsin as one of the school's best offensive linemen. A player with tremendous size, strength and speed, he was regarded by some as the top college offensive lineman in '87. Gruber graduated to the pro ranks in 1988 when he was taken fourth overall by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Gruber earned All-Pro honors several times with the Bucs and at one time played six consecutive seasons without missing an offensive snap.

Troy Vincent (1991)

First-team all-America honors by Football News; The Sportings News; United Press International & Football Writers' Association

After playing just one year of high school football, Troy Vincent blossomed into one of the country's best cornerbacks and punt returners. A 1991 all-America selection, Vincent was honored as the Big Ten's co-Defensive Player of the Year after setting Badger season and career records for passes broken up (13 and 31). The UW's record holder for career punt return yards returned punts for TDs his final three seasons. He was taken by Miami as the seventh overall choice in the 1992 draft.

Cory Raymer (1994)

First-team honors by Associated Press; United Press International; American Football Coaches' Association; Walter Camp Foundation; Football News; College Sports & The Sporting News

The most celebrated player of the Barry Alvarez era, Cory Raymer was Wisconsin's first consensus all-America pick in 13 years. Raymer earned first-team all-America mention by AP, UPI, AFCA, Walter Camp, The Sporting News, Football News and College Sports magazine. He was a four-year starter who allowed just one-half of a sack in his last three seasons. A two-time first-team all-Big Ten pick, he played a large role in increasing the team's rushing average from 94 to 244 yards per game during his career.

Tarek Saleh (1996)

First-team all-America honors by Football News

A two-time consensus first-team all-Big Ten selection, Tarek Saleh earned all-America honors from Football News after his senior season. Saleh paced the Big Ten in quarterback sacks in both 1995 and 1996. He also topped the conference in tackles for loss as a junior and finished third as a senior. Saleh, a 240-pound defensive end, concluded his Wisconsin career as the school's career record holder in tackles for loss (58), yardage (283), quarterback sacks (33) and yardage (227). He also established UW season marks for sacks (14) and yardage (97) during the '96 campaign. Saleh, who participated in the East-West Shrine Game, was named Copper Bowl defensive Most Valuable Player in his final game with the Badgers.

Tarek Saleh, who led the Big Ten in quarterback sacks as a junior and senior, was named a first-team all-American by the Football News in 1996.

RETIRED NUMBERS

Alan Ameche was one of the greatest backs in UW history. The 1954 Heisman Trophy winner was a two-time all-American and ended his career as the NCAA's career rushing leader. He led the Badgers to the 1953 Rose Bowl, where he rushed for 133 yards. The five-time Pro Bowl pick was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1975.

40

Although he played football only one season at Wisconsin, Elroy Hirsch is one of the most beloved figures in Badger sports history. Hirsch, nicknamed "Crazylegs," rushed for 786 yards for Wisconsin's 8-1-1 team in 1942. He also starred for nine seasons with the Los Angeles Rams before returning to Wisconsin as Director of Athletics from 1969-87.

80

Dave Schreiner, the two-time all-America end, was named Western Conference Player of the Year in 1942. Schreiner lettered three years at the UW as an end both on offense and defense. He is a member of the National Football Foundation and the W Club Halls of Fame and the UW's all-time team.

83

The memory of former QB Allan Shafer is continued with the "Living Memorial" Scholarship that is given in his name. Shafer was fatally injured during the 1944 Wisconsin-Iowa game. Shafer is one of two Badgers (Jay Seiler is the other) to die from a football injury.

ALL-TIME TEAM

Alan Ameche

Heisman winner Ameche heads All-Time Team

In conjunction with the centennial celebration of college football in 1969, Wisconsin fans were asked to select the University's all-time team.

The 11-man unit features Heisman Trophy winner Alan Ameche, who was voted Wisconsin's "All-time Greatest Player." Ameche, a two-time all-American, concluded his career as the NCAA's career rushing leader.

Player	Years Lettered	Position
Alan Ameche	1951-54	Back
Ken Bowman	1961-63	Lineman
Howard Buck	1913-15	Lineman
Pat Harder	1941-42	Back
Elroy Hirsch	1942	Back
Dan Lanphear	1957-59	Lineman
Arlie Mucks, Sr.	1914	Lineman
Pat Richter	1960-62	End
Dave Schreiner	1940-42	End
Ron Vander Kelen	1962	Back
Robert Wilson	1946-49	Lineman

Six Badgers have won the Chicago Tribune's Silver Football, given to the Big Ten MVP.

HALL OF FAME

National Football Foundation

RICHTER NEWEST INDUCTEE

Seven Badgers have been named to the National Football Foundation's College Hall of Fame. The most recent addition was current Director of Athletics PAT RICHTER, who was inducted in 1996. Richter was a two-time all-American and led the nation in receiving as a junior. The other Badger inductees are ...

ALAN AMECHE (elected in 1975), the 1954 Heisman Trophy winner, was a two-time all-American in the classroom and on the field. His jersey No. 35 is retired at the University.

PAT O'DEA (elected in 1962) was a kicker and fullback from 1896-99. "The Kangaroo Kicker," as he was called, was a two-time all-America punter and team captain.

MARTY BELOW (elected in 1988) played right tackle for three seasons (1918, 22-23), earning all-America praise as a senior. "Below was the greatest lineman I ever played against," said Hall of Famer Red Grange.

ROBERT BUTLER (elected in 1972) was a three-year letterman at tackle and won all-league (1912-13) and all-America (1913) laurels. He played professionally for Canton.

DAVE SCHREINER (elected in 1955) was a two-time all-America end and the Western Conference MVP after the '42 season. Schreiner has his No. 80 jersey retired by Wisconsin.

PAT HARDER (elected in 1993), an all-America fullback, was the league's scoring and rushing champion in 1941. Harder was a three-time NFL scoring champ.

Two former Badger gridiron greats (Alan Ameche and Pat Richter) have been inducted into the GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-America Hall of Fame.

To gain admittance to the Hall, student-athletes must be former academic all-Americans who have distinguished themselves off the playing field after graduation.

Ameche, who played professionally after graduation, retired in Philadelphia after his career and became one of the city's philanthropic leaders. Richter also played pro football before returning to the UW to earn his law degree. He worked at a Madison law firm and at Oscar Mayer before his appointment as Director of Athletics.

NFL HALL OF FAMERS

ELROY "CRAZYLEGS" HIRSCH

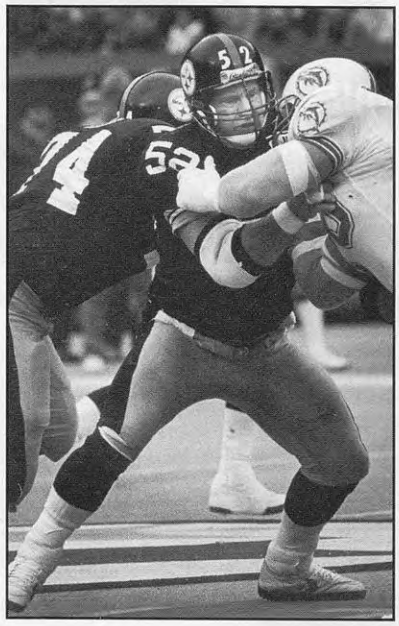
Highlights: 387 receptions for 7,029 yards, 60 touchdowns. Key part of Rams' revolutionary "three end" offense in 1949. Recorded 15 career interceptions and averaged 13.6 yards on punt returns and 27.0 on kickoff returns. Inducted into Hall of Fame in 1968.



MICHAEL FABUS

MIKE WEBSTER

Highlights: Played more seasons (15) and more games (220) than anybody in Pittsburgh history ... nine-time Pro Bowl selection, including first five as a starter ... fifth-round pick in 1974 ... won four Super Bowls with the Steelers ... had a string of 150 consecutive starts between 1976-86 ... only the fifth modern-era center to make the Hall of Fame.

BADGER HISTORY

1890 — First win, a 106-0 shutout over UW-Whitewater. Wisconsin played Minnesota for the first time. Except for 1906, the Badgers and Gophers have played every year since. It is the longest running series in Division I-A.

1895 — Wisconsin played a vital role in the organization of the Intercollegiate Conference of Faculty Representatives, which eventually became the Big Ten.

1901 — First undefeated team (9-0) in UW history. Coach Phil King wins third conference title. Eight shutouts highlight the season as UW has 317-5 scoring margin.

1906 — Dr. C.P. Hutchins coaches Badgers to 5-0 record and the Big Ten title.

1912 — Last undefeated team (7-0) won the school's fifth Big Ten title for first-year coach William Juneau. Nine Badgers named to Walter Eckersall's all-Western team.

1942 — UW is named mythical national champion by the Helms Foundation after 8-1-1 season. A stunning 6-0 loss to Iowa prevented the Badgers from earning a conference championship.

1951 — The "Hard Rocks" team led the nation in total defense and set five Big Ten records in a 7-1-1 season. The UW defense outscored the opponents' offense 58-53.

1952 — Wisconsin voted to represent Big Ten in '53 Rose Bowl after tying Purdue for the conference title. USC scores a third-period TD for a 7-0 Rose Bowl victory.

1959 — UW rallies to defeat Minnesota 11-7 and earn second Rose Bowl berth. Badgers lose to Washington 44-8 at Pasadena.

1962 — The No. 2-ranked Badgers make second Rose Bowl appearance in three years. The foe was top-rated USC. Badgers' 23-point fourth quarter rally falls short in 42-37 Rose Bowl loss. Ron Vander Kelen was named Big Ten MVP, and UW led the nation in total offense.

1974 — Billy Marek scores five TDs and rushes for 304 yards as Badgers defeat Minnesota 49-14.

1981 — Matt VandenBoom intercepts three passes to spark Badgers' 21-14 victory over No. 1-ranked Michigan. Wisconsin earns trip to Garden State Bowl, but falls to Tennessee 28-21.

1982 — John Williams tallies the only score in a 6-0 win at Ohio State, the Badgers' first triumph in Columbus since 1918. Badgers win their first bowl game, a 14-3 decision over Kansas State in the Independence Bowl.

1984 — Fourth consecutive seven-win season ends with 20-19 loss to Kentucky in the Hall of Fame Bowl.

1990 — Don Davey becomes the first four-time first-team academic all-American in NCAA university division history.

1993 — The UW shares the Big Ten title and defeats UCLA 21-16 in the Rose Bowl to finish sixth in the AP poll. Brent Moss is the Big Ten and Rose Bowl MVP. Eight Badgers are named first-team all-conference, and three earn second-team all-America honors.

1994 — The Badgers claim their second straight bowl victory, a 34-20 win over Duke in the Hall of Fame Bowl. Terrell Fletcher is game MVP with 241 yards rushing. Cory Raymer is a consensus all-American, and the NFL drafts seven Badgers.

1996 — Wisconsin wins five of its final six games, including a 38-10 Copper Bowl triumph over Utah. Ron Dayne breaks five NCAA records in a 2,109-yard season. That total is the highest in Big Ten history and betters the NCAA all-time freshman mark by more than 300 yards.

HEISMAN TROPHY

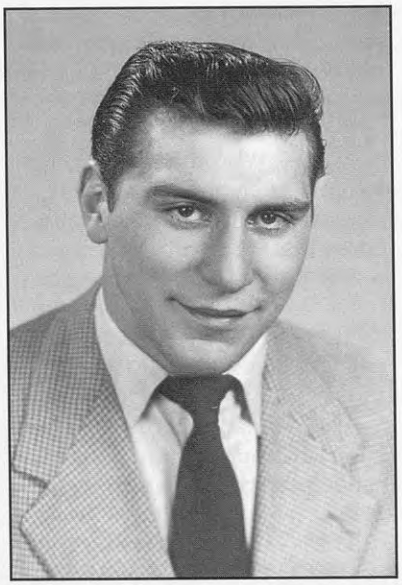
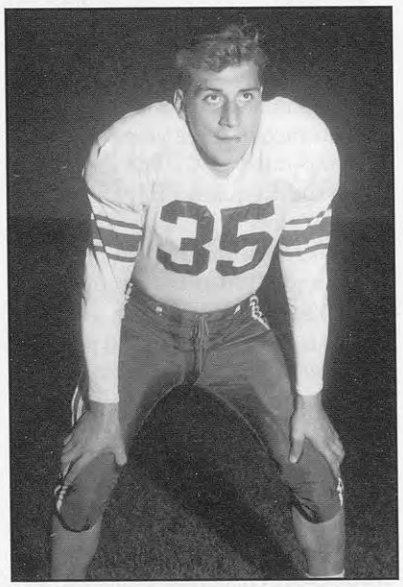
Ameche, a two-time all-American, won the trophy in 1954 after rushing for 641 yards and nine touchdowns.

Additionally, he made first-team all-America squads by the Football Writers' Association, Look, NEA, Paramount News, All-Academic, Athletic Publications, Catholic Weekly and UNICO (National Italian Association). He was also named United Press National Back-of-the-Year as a senior.

The Big Ten's leading rusher twice in his career, Ameche brought much distinction and honor to the UW. He was an academic all-American twice. Ameche also became the first Badger to earn membership in the CoSIDA Academic All-America Hall of Fame. He was inducted in 1992.

Nicknamed "The Horse" for his rugged running style, Ameche left Wisconsin as the NCAA's career rushing leader. His 3,345 yards are currently fourth in Wisconsin history. Ameche led the Badgers to a 26-8-3 record during his career and a berth in the 1953 Rose Bowl.





Why was he called "The Horse?"

In 1953, when the rules made it necessary to be an all-purpose player, Ameche was a workhorse in the drills. His ability to play 55 minutes or more per game in 1953 created his nickname, "The Iron Horse." It was later shortened to "The Horse."

KANGAROO KICKER

The first time Pat O'Dea kicked a football on the Wisconsin campus, the reaction of spectators was so violent that he thought he had committed a public offense.

O'Dea was a football star shining 50 years too soon. He had everything which goes to make up a modern athletic idol — personal charm, magnificent appearance, supreme skill. Playing football as he did for the UW from 1896-99, his name would be on the lips of every sports enthusiast.

Just imagine a player today drop-kicking four field goals in one game, or getting credit for 14 field goals in a season or sending punts down field 80 to 100 yards or booting field goals from 65 yards out.

Patrick John O'Dea was born in Melbourne, Australia, and was an athletic luminary at Victoria High School and Krew College in his native city.

Pat's older brother, Andy, came to the United States early in the '90s. Andy, a famous oarsman, football player and boxer in his youth, turned to coaching rowing soon after he reached the states. He came to Wisconsin as varsity crew coach in 1895, and he probably was the most surprised man in the world when, one sunny afternoon, his younger brother Pat showed up on his boat deck.

RECORD KICKS

PUNTING

- Averaged 50 yards punting for 4-year career
- 110-yard punt vs. Minnesota, 1897
- 100-yard punt vs. Yale, 1899

DROP-KICKING

- Field goals, career — 31
- Field goals, season — 13 in 1899
- Field goals, game — 3 vs. Lawrence, 1899
- 65-yard field goal vs. Northwestern, 1898
- 60-yard field goal vs. Minnesota, 1899

PLACE-KICKING

- 57-yard field goal vs. Illinois, 1899

RUSHING

- 100-yard touchdown run vs. Beloit, 1899

Pat took whatever work he could find that spring and in September enrolled in the pre-legal course at Wisconsin. One day when football practice was going on in front of the Old Red Armory, the ball bounded over to Pat. To return the ball, Pat simply reverted to form and booted the pigskin the length of the field.

Coaches, players and sideliners erupted with a concerted shout and converged on Pat who feared he had committed an offense by touching the ball. But the rush toward Pat was to recruit him, so he agreed to join the team the following day and "try and learn something about the crazy American version of this game."

Often Pat would open scoring with a drop kick (five points) and Wisconsin would follow that up with TDs against a demoralized opponent still dazed from seeing the ball soar through the goal posts from mid-field.

O'Dea was a greyhound type of athlete. His legs were abnormally long and highly developed. He had real speed and covered 100 yards in 10 seconds.

He was used as a high hurdler in track and once ran a dead heat for first place in the Big Ten finals within one-fifth of a second of the then world's record.

O'Dea's punting style was peculiarly his own. As he swung his right foot into the ball, he lifted himself completely into the air, his left foot lifting 6-8 inches off the ground. Although the spiral kick was new to him when he started in American football, he mastered it but always reverted to his Australian style of "end-over-end" kicking during games.

He got his punts off very fast and often electrified crowds by dodging tacklers on the run and kicking the ball 60 yards. Rarely was he called upon to make short kicks and that's why so few of them appear in the record books.

Alvarez vs. Wisconsin — Coach Barry Alvarez was a linebacker for the Nebraska teams which played Wisconsin in 1965 and 1966. In the 1966 contest, Alvarez intercepted a John Ryan pass at the Nebraska 28-yard line and returned it 25 yards. Nebraska won both games — 37-0 (in '65) and 31-3 ('66) — in which Alvarez participated.

Ameche, Alan — Born in Italy as Lino Dante Ameche, the future Heisman Trophy winner changed his name to Alan at age 16. Lino, in his mind, was not rugged enough.

Widely respected for his strength as a youth, he won the light heavyweight Golden Gloves novice championship of Kenosha by default. All of his rivals dropped out after learning Ameche had entered the tournament.

During his college recruitment, he was being heavily pressured to attend Notre Dame by Fred Miller, the philanthropic owner of Milwaukee's Miller Brewing Co. Wisconsin partisans, however, threatened a boycott against the buying and consumption of Miller beer if Ameche attended Notre Dame. Under threat of boycott, Miller backed off and Ameche signed with Wisconsin.

In 1953, when rules changes made it necessary for him to be an all-purpose player, Ameche played defense with such ferocity that he ended up playing 55 minutes or more in each game, prompting a nickname, "The Iron Horse."

Ameche, drafted by Baltimore, eventually turned down a lucrative offer to join the pro wrestling tour and signed with the Colts. He led the NFL in rushing his first season and was named Rookie of the Year.

Artificial turf — The artificial turf at Camp Randall Stadium was first installed in 1968. Wisconsin was the second school in the nation to install Tartan Turf, which was designed by the 3M Company. The $210,000 project was funded by the UW Parking and Transportation Board in exchange for permission to convert practice fields on the north end of Camp Randall into a 500-car parking lot. The initial surface turned black in some areas when the green fiber tips broke off, so 3M sprayed the field green for the 1969 season.

Badger nickname — The team's nickname, "Badgers," was borrowed from the state of Wisconsin. The territory was dubbed the "Badger State," not because of animals in the region, but rather an association with lead miners in the 1820s. Prospectors came to the state looking for minerals. Without shelter in the winter, the miners had to "live like badgers" in tunnels burrowed into hillsides.

Bakken, Jim — Wisconsin's special events coordinator played 17 years in the NFL for St. Louis, setting almost all of the team's place-kicking records and retiring as the team's all-time leading scorer. He set NFL records in '70 converting seven of nine field goals in a 28-14 win over Pittsburgh. Bakken was selected by the Los Angeles Rams in the 1962 draft by general manager Elroy Hirsch.

Band caps — When a Badger team wins an athletic contest, members of the band turn their hats around and wear them backwards. The practice started in the 1920s to symbolize the band looking back at the victory in days when they marched out with the departing crowd.

Bucky Badger — Badgers in various forms have been recognized as the school mascot for decades. The version currently known as Bucky, sporting a cardinal and white letter sweater, was first drawn in 1940 by artist Art Evans. At that time, the badger went by names like Benny, Buddy, Bernie, Bobby and Bouncey. Art Lentz, the department's publicity director, had the idea to bring the mascot to life.

The original badger mascot was too vicious to control. On more than one occasion, the live badger escaped handlers before a sideline hero recaptured the animal with a flying tackle. It was decided in the interest of fan and player safety that Wisconsin's mascot be retired to the Madison Zoo. The Badger Yearbook replaced the live badger with a small racoon named Regdab (badger backwards) and passed it off as a "badger in a racoon coat."

In 1949, a student in the university's art department, Connie Conrad, was commissioned to mold a paper-mache badger head. Gymnast and cheerleader, Bill Sagal, of Plymouth, Wis., was directed by homecoming chair Bill Sachse, to wear the outfit at the homecoming game. A contest was staged to name the popular mascot. The winner was Buckingham U. Badger, or Bucky. The name apparently came from the lyrics in a song which encouraged the football team to "buck right through that line."

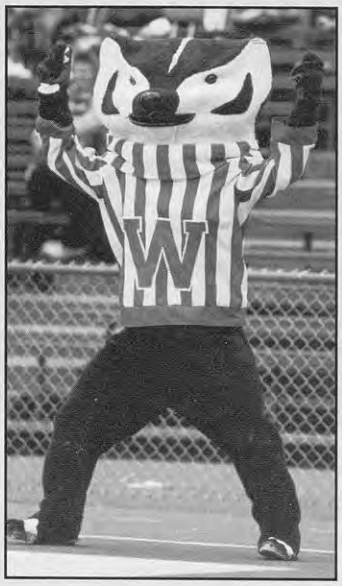
Bucky Badger has persevered through the years, even surviving a threat by then assistant attorney general, Howard Koop, in 1973. He suggested that Bucky be replaced by Henrietta Holstein, a loveable cow. Koop argued that "kids love cows. A generation could grow up supporting the university and Henrietta Holstein." Koop's effort to overthrow Bucky failed.

Bucky even survived a cameo appearance by Sports Illustrated writer Rick Telander. In preparation for a book about the athletic department, Telander wore Bucky's costume at a '91 volleyball game. Telander overcame "terminal claustrophobia" in his appearance.

Bud Song — An integral part of any Wisconsin band performance is the playing of the Bud song. The tune is a spinoff of the song "You've Said It All," a jingle with words and music originally written by Steve Karmen for Budweiser beer commercials. Copyrighted by Sandlee Publishing Corporation in 1970, the song has become legendary at the University because of its polka-like rhythm. Band director Michael Leckrone said the song's popularity got started at a 1975 hockey game. "The crowd wanted to hear a polka," he said. "I didn't have any polkas. We had, just by accident, this beer commercial in the tunes we play. I told the band if we substituted the word 'Wisconsin' for 'Budweiser' it would work."

Leckrone said the song became a football tradition after a 1978 come-from-behind victory over Oregon. "Wisconsin was behind by three touchdowns, and the crowd was really dead. I played the song to get everyone pepped up. About 20 seconds after that, Wisconsin scored a TD. I played it again, and Wisconsin scored another touchdown. From then on, the band could never play enough 'Bud.'"

BUCKY BADGER



Bucky Badger is the nation's second most-popular athletic department mascot. ESPNET SportsZone has staged a fan participation poll during the Final Four the last two years. Bucky won the championship in its inaugural season.

Colors — The University of Wisconsin Athletic Department's official colors are Cardinal and White. PMS 200 is the designated color of the cardinal.

Fifth Quarter — The Wisconsin band has become nationally famous for its post-game celebration called the Fifth Quarter. Win or lose, fans sing, dance and cheer with the band as they play traditional favorites, like "On, Wisconsin" and the Bud song. Originally, the post-game concert was designed to give the fans something to listen to on their way out of the stadium, but it developed into a post-game party as the band built in audience participation activities.

Pictured above is the annual cane ceremony on homecoming. Law students who catch their canes are supposed to win their first case. Those who drop their canes will lose their first case.

Graduating law students — At the homecoming game, graduating law students throw canes over the crossbar of the goal post in a pre-game ceremony. If students catch their cane, legend claims they will win their first case. If the cane is dropped, the case will be lost. The custom originated at Harvard and came to the UW-Madison in 1910.

"Hard Rocks" — The 1951 Wisconsin defense, known as the "Hard Rocks," led the country in total defense (154.8 per game) and was second in rushing defense (66.8). That defense allowed only 5.9 points per game and actually outscored the opponents 58-53 for the season. The defense was so terrorizing that the athletic department received a letter from one fan asking Wisconsin to "punt on first down" so he could see more of the defensive platoon.

Eight of the nine seniors on the "Hard Rocks" scored in their careers. The ninth, Bill Lane, came close. With Indiana backed up deep in its own territory for a punt, the seniors told Lane they would refrain from rushing in order to form a wedge, or "meatchopper," for him to run behind and score. Much to the seniors' dismay, freshman Don Voss missed the call and blocked the punt.

After the season, the defensive platoon challenged the offense in a charity game with one interesting twist. The offensive team could have the ball all the time, since the defense felt it could outscore its opponents even without the ball.

Hirsch, Elroy "Crazy Legs" — Though he only played one season in Madison, Hirsch's legacy grew through 18 years as Wisconsin's athletic director and many more as a goodwill ambassador.

Hirsch was first tagged "Crazy Legs" on Sept. 26, 1942, after a 60-yard touchdown run vs. Notre Dame prompted a local writer to say, "His crazy legs were gyrating." After leaving Wisconsin, he starred for nine seasons with the Los Angeles Rams.

During those days in L.A., he kept busy by making three movies, including "Crazy Legs, All-American" in which he portrayed himself. After retiring as a player, he worked in the Rams' front office before returning to Madison as athletic director from 1969-1987.

His No. 40, the number he wore at every stop in his football career but one, is retired at Wisconsin. Because of a mandatory league numbering system he wore No. 80 (double-40) for the Chicago Rockets, but had the No. 40 stitched on the inside of his jersey.

Leckrone, Michael — If the Wisconsin band is the heartbeat of spirit at UW football games, Director Michael Leckrone is its pacemaker. A merciless drill sergeant, he takes the field like a conquering general. During a football trip to Las Vegas, his band's performance earned the headline "Best Show in Town" in the local paper. Leckrone has maintained the dual role of band director and arranger, which are jobs normally divided at other schools. Leckrone is credited with beginning the "Fifth Quarter" ritual, one of the most entertaining post-game celebrations in college football.

Marek, Billy — The three-time first-team all-Big Ten running back wasn't recruited to play high school football because he had Osgood Slaughter disease (a knee ailment that affected teenagers) and didn't play seventh and eighth grade football.

The 5-foot-8 Marek carried the ball only once as a freshman at the UW, then put together three consecutive 1,200-yard seasons. In danger of falling shy of 1,000 yards in 1974 after missing nearly three full games with injuries, Marek rushed for 704 yards in the final three games, including 304 and five touchdowns in a 49-14 rout of Minnesota. His play earned him Sports Illustrated's national offensive back of the week honors.

Marek was at the center of an April Fool's Day joke played by Wisconsin State Journal columnist Tom Butler in 1975. Butler wrote a tongue-in-cheek piece about moving the Big Ten's leading rusher to the defensive secondary for his senior season. The article ended with the phrase, "April Fools!" Unfortunately, wire service reporters did not make it to the last line, and called head coach John Jardine's house for confirmation. The AP eventually moved the story on its national wire for about a half-an-hour before the hoax was discovered.

Motion "W" — When Barry Alvarez came to Madison, he decided that the helmet logo needed to be updated to signal a new era in Wisconsin football. He entertained 15-20 different designs in 1990 before Rayovac artist Rick Suchanek developed the "Motion W," which included a tail at the back of the logo. Alvarez thought the tail was a bit much, but when it was removed, decided to go with it. The University bought the rights to the design, and the logo has been adopted by all other UW sports.

Mott, Jim — There is no greater authority on UW athletics than former Sports Information Director Jim Mott. His association with the sports information office began as a student assistant in 1953. He was named assistant SID a year later and was appointed director in 1966, a position he held until his retirement in 1990.

He is a past president of the

Elroy "Crazy Legs" Hirsch

The "Motion W" was introduced as the football team's identifying mark in 1991. Since then, the Athletic Department has adopted the mark for all of its programs.

Band Director Michael Leckrone directs his troops at the 1993 Rose Bowl.

College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) and is a member of that organization's Hall of Fame.

Mott's memory is legendary among athletic department staffers. When the question of previous home night games was being tossed around the sports information office in anticipation of a 1995 contest against Colorado, Mott noted that the UW had two previous home night games in its history. Obvious was the 1986 battle with Michigan. Mott also recalled the 1896 loss to the Carlisle Indians, including the date of the game, final score, and the fact that it was played in Chicago Coliseum. Mott, a former basketball letterman at the UW, is currently writing a book on the history of Wisconsin athletics and is still a member of the school's football and basketball stat crews.

O'Dea, Pat — One of several Wisconsin greats from the pre-modern era of college football is kicker Pat O'Dea. The Australian-born O'Dea came to Madison in 1896 to join his brother Andy, who was crew coach and football trainer. Known as the "Kangaroo Kicker," O'Dea brought a different style to the American game of football. He learned to play the Australian game where all punting and drop-kicking was done on the run. O'Dea drop-kicked a legendary 62-yard field goal vs. Northwestern during a heavy blizzard. After his playing days, he coached at Notre Dame and Missouri before moving to San Francisco. O'Dea, who essentially had disappeared, was thought to have joined an Australian contingent which travelled through the country. Press releases surmised that he "probably lies beneath an unmarked grave in France."

The truth was, he had moved to California under the assumed name of Charles J. Mitchell, to escape the pressure of being a star ex-athlete. "Probably, I was wrong," he said in an interview with San Francisco sportswriter Bill Leiser after the 17-year exile. "I wanted to get away from my past. As Pat O'Dea, I seemed very much just an ex-football player. I was very happy as Charles Mitchell for awhile."

"On, Wisconsin" — The tune was originally composed in 1909 by Chicago's William Purdy, and the words were written by Carl Beck. Purdy and Beck had been fraternity brothers at Hamilton College (Clinton, N.Y.) and were roommates in Chicago. Purdy was going to submit the song for a $100 prize the University of Minnesota was offering for a new football song. When Beck heard the music, he offered to write words and suggested that Purdy offer it to Wisconsin, where Beck had once studied. The song was an instant hit on campus and spread throughout the world. It was especially popular with military bands.

Some 2,500 schools and colleges have adopted the music and changed the words to suit their needs. "On, Wisconsin" was sung for the first time at the 1909 homecoming game vs. Minnesota.

The music was adapted by current Band Director Michael Leckrone in 1969. The original version had been played virtually unchanged since its inception. "I got a lot of flak for that," Leckrone said. "The old version was one you had to wait on. I wanted to generate immediate crowd reaction, so I stepped it up a bit."

On Wisconsin, On Wisconsin
Plunge right through that line,
Run the ball clear down the field, boys
Touchdown sure this time
On Wisconsin, On Wisconsin
Fight on for her fame,
Fight, Fellows, Fight, Fight, Fight
We'll win this game!

Paul Bunyan Axe — The most-played rivalry in Division I football continues this fall when Wisconsin and Minnesota meet. The UW-UM series is the nation's oldest and has been played continuously for 89 years. The neighboring schools have met on the gridiron in 105 of the last 106 seasons (the exception was 1906). The game has alternated sites between the university campuses since 1946. Much prestige was always associated with the game, and the significance was emphasized with its place on the schedule. Between 1933 and 1982, the Wisconsin-Minnesota game was always the final regular-season contest for each school.

The series took an added twist in 1948 when more than state bragging rights were on the line. After a 16-0 setback that season, the Wisconsin lettermen's group, the National "W" Club, presented Minnesota with an axe wielded by Paul Bunyan. He was the mythical giant of Midwestern lumber camps. Each year since, the winner of the annual battle between the Big Ten rivals is presented with the axe, complete with scores inscribed on the handle, for display on its campus.

Richter, Pat — One of the most successful athletes in UW-Madison history is Pat Richter, the last nine-time letterwinner in school history. The 6-5 Richter attended Wisconsin on a basketball scholarship, but was better known for his football and baseball exploits. Richter, of course, has been the UW's Director of Athletics since 1989.

Shalala, Donna — Secretary of Health and Human Services Donna Shalala is credited with being a major force in the Wisconsin football program's recent success. When Shalala became UW chancellor in 1988, it was the first time she led a school with a football program. Following the 1989 season, she hired Director of Athletics Pat Richter, who subsequently picked Barry Alvarez as head football coach. Her enthusiasm and support of the program won over many fans. Some boosters even sent roses to her Washington office when the Badgers earned a berth to the 1994 Rose Bowl. She attended the Badgers' Rose and Hall of Fame Bowl games.

Slab of Bacon — The Slab of Bacon trophy was the precursor to Paul Bunyan's Axe as the prize in the Wisconsin-Minnesota football series. Apparently, the trophy was presented to the winning school by a sorority from the losing institution. The trophy was discontinued in the 1940s and was discovered in a storage room at the UW Department of Athletics in 1994. It is currently housed in the football office at Wisconsin. "We took home the bacon," Coach Barry Alvarez said, "and kept it."

Var-sity! Var-sity!
U-rah-rah! Wisconsin!
Praise to thee we sing
Praise to thee our Alma Mater
U-rah-rah, Wisconsin!
Our Team is RED HOT!

The Slab of Bacon trophy was given to the winner of the Wisconsin-Minnesota game until the 1940s when it was replaced by the Paul Bunyan Axe.

STADIUM HISTORY

History of Camp Randall & the grounds

Camp Randall Stadium and its grounds had a rich history prior to its affiliation with UW athletics. In the days before the Civil War, the site was owned by the Wisconsin Agricultural Society, which held its annual state fair on the site.

When hostilities broke out in 1861, the society gave the land to the government for a military training center. More than 70,000 troops attended training drills at the Camp Randall complex.

After peace was restored nationally, the land was returned to state fair property. The fair later moved to Milwaukee, and Wisconsin's Civil War veterans urged the legislature to purchase the land. In 1893, the state presented the site to the university as a memorial athletic field.

Intercollegiate athletics began on campus in 1881, and football joined the scene in 1889. The first games were played on the lower part of campus. The stadium was built at its present site in 1913. A collapse of the wooden bleachers in 1915 prompted the UW to build concrete stands.

Stadium construction & additions

Two years later, a 10,000-seat concrete stadium was built with a grant of $15,000 from the state legislature. The first game played in the facility was a 10-7 victory over Minnesota in 1917.

Capacity of the structure has increased several times, jumping to 51,000 by 1951. A revision of the seating in 1955 boosted the capacity to 52,788. In 1958, the running track was removed, the field was lowered 10 feet and capacity increased to 63,435. A deck on the west side was added in 1966, raising the capacity to 77,745. Restructuring in the student section in '94, lowered capacity to its present level of 76,129.

The Communications Center, which is one of the Midwest's best facilities for working media, was built after the 1966 season. The three-level structure includes areas for media, game personnel, department officials and patrons.

Facility improvements have continued into this decade with the installation of an artificial turf playing field in 1990 and a computerized scoreboard and message center in 1992.

Jason Suttle was an honorable mention all-league choice as a junior after leading the Badgers with five interceptions. Suttle has started 23 games in his career, more than any other Badger.

Badger Gridiron & Track Stars

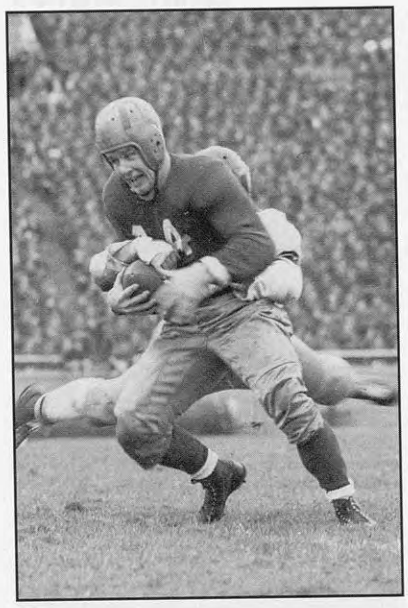
PRE-MODERN ERA

The National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) recognizes official football statistics and records beginning with the 1946 season.

The NCAA does not recognize marks set prior to the "modern era." Many great performances were turned in by Badgers prior to the 1946 season.

Following are some of the individual efforts by Wisconsin players, prior to the 1946 season, which would rank on the school's all-time lists.



Jerry Thompson

1,000-yard Rushers

The University of Wisconsin became the first team in Big Ten history to produce a different 1,000-yard rusher four years in a row when freshman Ron Dayne gained 2,109 yards in 1996. Brent Moss (a junior), Terrell Fletcher (a senior) and Carl McCullough (a sophomore) joined the 1,000-yard club in 1993, 1994 and 1995, respectively.

WE'RE #1

Wisconsin has defeated the nation's top-rated team three times in its history. The most recent was a 21-14 victory over Michigan in the 1981 season opener. The other UW wins over the nation's No. 1 team were over Northwestern (37-6) in 1962 and vs. Ohio State (17-7) in 1942.

The Badgers have been ranked as the nation's No. 1 squad just once in their school history. That was on Oct. 7, 1952, after a 20-6 win over Illinois. The Badgers lost the next week to Ohio State but went on to a 6-3-1 record and a Rose Bowl berth for Coach Ivy Williamson.

ORANGEMEN OUTLOOK

Syracuse, which won nine of its final 10 games a year ago, hopes to continue its fine play in '97. There is reason to think the Orangemen may very well do just that.

Quarterback Donovan McNabb is one of the reasons that Syracuse may meet its high goals. McNabb was the BIG EAST offensive player-of-the-year after passing for 1,776 yards and rushing for 458 yards in 1996. His top receiving target is Jim Turner (19.2-yard average). Kyle McIntosh (272 yards) is the heir apparent at tailback and senior Rob Konrad will handle the full-back spot. Three offensive line starters — tackles Brad Patkochis and Brent Warren and guard Scott Kiernan — return up front.

The Orangemen defense will have a lot of new faces up front. Jeff Danish, who played just three games in '96, is the best interior defensive lineman. Two senior ends — Jason Walters and Dulayne Morgan — have good experience. Three of last season's starting line-backers have departed, but the returnee (Antwaune Ponds) is a good one. He was second-team all-BIG EAST and led the team in sacks. Two former safeties have been moved to linebacker. Depth will be a concern in the secondary. Safety Donovin Darius, one of the nation's hardest hitters, is back after making 103 tackles.

Kicker Nathan Trout, who converted 11-15 field goals, returns. He led the Orangemen with 85 points last fall. Syracuse needs to identify a punter.

SERIES NOTES

Wisconsin and Syracuse will meet Aug. 24 (the earliest start in Badger history) in the Kickoff Classic at the Meadowlands ... the Badgers' only other appearance at the Meadowlands was in the 1981 Garden State Bowl ... the Badgers trail in the all-time series vs. Syracuse, 1-2-1 ... Wisconsin lost the first two meetings (1941 and 1969) and won the last encounter in 1972 ... the only game at Syracuse was a 20-20 tie in 1971 ... Wisconsin's all-time record against teams in the BIG EAST is 4-8-1 ... the last time the UW faced a team that currently plays in the BIG EAST was in 1990, a 24-18 loss to Temple ... the Owls were not in the BIG EAST at the time of that game.

BRONCOS OUTLOOK

Boise State begins a new era in 1997 with the arrival of Coach Houston Nutt, formerly the head mentor at Murray State. Nutt replaced Pokey Allen, who resigned his position last December before losing his personal fight with cancer. Nutt, whose last two Murray State teams registered a 22-3 mark, returns 37 letterwinners from last year's 2-10 BSU club.

The Broncos are auditioning four QBs to take the reins of the offense. BSU welcomes back its top rusher, Reggie Etheridge, who gained 811 yards. Etheridge is also the No. 1 returning pass catcher. Nutt is excited about his offensive line, which includes seven players who have started during their careers. Four-fifths of last season's lineup return led by two-year starter Jermaine Belin. Boise State has a pair of quality tight ends in Jim Brekke and Brad Arbon.

The BSU defense is strongest in the secondary with the return of three starters. Jeff Davis, a two-year player at free safety, is the veteran. Returning cornerbacks include Ross Farris and Jason Payne, who suffered a knee injury in '96. Only tackles Jon Rydman and Jay Gibson have experience on the line. The coaching staff moved a pair of former defensive backs — Ryan Brinkley and Kevin Chiles — to outside linebacker. Boise State must indentify replacements for both ILB spots.

Both Bronco specialists return. Kicker Todd Belcastro scored 42 points and punter Jeff Davis averaged 38.6 yards per punt.

SERIES NOTES

The Badgers and Broncos have never met on the gridiron. Wisconsin's all-time mark against teams from the Big West is 2-1. The breakdown is as follows: Nevada (1-0), New Mexico State (1-0) and Utah State (0-1). The last time the Badgers faced a Big West team was vs. Nevada (53-17 win) in 1993, the Badgers' Rose Bowl season. Alvarez has never faced Boise State, nor has Nutt coached against a Big Ten squad. Last year, Boise State played Rose Bowl participant Arizona State, losing 56-7.

SPARTAN OUTLOOK

New San Jose State Coach Dave Baldwin wants to bring his "fast-break" style of football to the Spartans as quickly as possible.

Baldwin's offense is built around a strong running game. Four veteran ballcarriers provide the optimism. Two-year starting center Harry Daniels and guards Oscar Garza and Curtice Macfarlane are holdovers on the line. The Spartans staged a four-man battle for the QB spot in the spring. The winner of that derby has several good targets. Windrell Hayes and Rommel Canon caught 58 and 29 passes, respectively in 1996.

Defensively, seven starters return from a unit that allowed more than 37 points and 499.0 yards per game last fall. On the perimeter of the defense, San Jose State returns OLB Eric Coughran (five sacks) and CBs Omarr Smith (top returning tackler with 74) and Eric Polk (a '95 starter). The Spartans have some experience up front with three-year starting tackle Jerald Perry and Shon Kendall. Zach Michalski, a 1995 starter, is the best inside linebacker. Michalski missed time in the spring with an injury.

Kicker Seth Wasserman and punter Jason Chapple have no competition for their spots. Wasserman is a transfer and Chapple averaged 36.3 yards per punt last year.

SERIES NOTES

The Badgers and Spartans have never met on the gridiron ... Wisconsin won all three of its meetings with the Western Athletic Conference last year, outscoring UNLV, Hawaii and Utah by a 149-37 margin ... Alvarez is 3-0 all-time against teams from the WAC, but has never faced San Jose State ... both schools play San Diego State this fall ... Baldwin has never coached against the Badgers.

AZTEC OUTLOOK

Coach Ted Tollner hopes his San Diego State ballclub can pick up where it left off last season when it finished 4-1 down the stretch. SDSU has 14 starters back from its 8-3 club.

Tollner, however, needs to identify some replacements from that potent '96 offense, which averaged 38.9 points per game. Gone are QB Billy Blanton (3,221 yards passing) and TB George Jones (968 yards and 11 TDs in seven games). Kevin McKechnie, a two-year reserve, gets the nod at quarterback. Justin Watson, who averaged 6.8 yards per carry, is the heir apparent at tailback. The Aztecs do return three offensive line all-stars led by 305-pound Kyle Turley, a first-team all-WAC Pacific Division choice. As always, the pass-oriented offense has an outstanding receiver. Senior Az Hakim, who made 36 catches (17.6 average) in seven games before breaking his leg, is the headliner.

The club's top two tacklers from a year ago — safeties Jason Moore (92 tackles) and Julius McChristian (77) — bring expectations to the secondary. Moore intercepted five passes en route to earning second-team all-WAC honors. Joining that duo as a returning starter is Eric Lewis, a 5-foot-7 cornerback, who has started 22 games. Linebacker Joseph Tuipala is the top player in the front seven after making 56 stops as a sophomore.

The kicking game has a couple of holes after the departures of Peter Holt (86 points, including 15-19 field goals) and Noel Prefontaine (46.5 punting average).

SERIES NOTES

The Badgers and Aztecs have played twice previously and the schools split those contests ... SDSU won 24-17 at San Diego in 1979 and Wisconsin posted a 35-12 homecoming victory in 1980 ... the Badgers were 3-0 last year vs. the WAC, beating UNLV (52-17), Hawaii (59-10) and Utah (38-10) ... Alvarez is 3-0 all-time against teams from the WAC, but has never faced San Diego State ... he was an assistant at Iowa when the Hawkeyes defeated the Aztecs 39-38 in the 1986 Holiday Bowl ... Tollner is 0-1 vs. squads from the Big Ten while at SDSU (lost to Minnesota in '94) ... both schools play San Jose State this fall.

HOOSIER OUTLOOK

Cam Cameron, the former Hoosier football and basketball letterman, returns to his alma mater to bring some respect back to the IU grid program. Cameron welcomes back the services of 44 letterwinners and 12 starters from the Hoosiers' 3-8 club of '96.

Cameron, the former Washington Redskins' quarterback coach, has some challenges ahead with his Indiana offense. Alex Smith took his 1,248 yards rushing to the pro ranks after declaring for the NFL draft a year early. Jason Spear (226 yards) gets top billing. The QB battle will feature state prep phenom Earl Haniford versus sophomore Jay Rodgers (600 yards in '96). Receiver Dorian Wilkerson (490 yards) is the top pass catcher. Three of last year's regulars on the offensive line — Chris Liwienski (11 starts), Khalfani Banks and Victor Allotey — are available up front.

A pair of defensive line veterans lead the way up front. Tackle Benyard Jones started every game a year ago and Adewale Ogunleye topped the team in sacks (8.5). Linebacker Jabar Robinson was fifth on the squad with 63 tackles. Three of the secondary members are on hand. Aaron Warnecke is the top returning tackler (96), Joe King was an every-game starter and Joey Eloms will return after a broken leg.

Alan Sutkowski was second-team all-Big Ten as a punter, averaging 43.3 yards. A placekicker must be identified in camp.

SERIES NOTES

Wisconsin leads the all-time series against Indiana, 27-16-2 ... the schools have not faced each other for two seasons ... the resumption of the series this fall marks the third time in a row that UW and IU will meet in their league openers ... the Badgers won the two most-recent meetings in 1993 and 1994 ... the series is even (10-10-1) since 1972 ... the only time in series history that both teams were ranked at the time of the meeting was 1994, when No. 16 Wisconsin defeated No. 21 Indiana, 62-13 ... Wisconsin has a 16-6-1 advantage in games at Madison (although the series is 4-4-1 in Camp Randall Stadium since '75) ... Alvarez is 2-3 vs. Indiana, and Cameron has never faced UW.

WILDCAT OUTLOOK

For the first time since 1930-31, the Wildcats are two-time defending Big Ten football champs. What does Coach Gary Barnett have in store for this season? "We've got to find a way to win a third one," says Barnett. That could be a challenge since the Wildcats lost many of the stars who spurred the success. Barnett's optimism is based on the belief that he has a better defense than a year ago, and he has some explosive performers on offense.

D'Wayne Bates caught 75 passes for 1,196 yards last fall to spearhead a strong aerial attack. Adrian Autry gained 421 yards rushing in a relief role last fall and is poised to takeover for Darnell Autry. The question on offense is who will throw to Bates and handoff to Autry. The choices are Tim Hughes and Chris Hamdorf. Nathan Strikwerda and Paul Janus are the best offensive linemen.

The Wildcats are thin on the defensive line, but ends Casey Dailey and Keith Lozowski combined for 20 tackles for loss in 1996. Barry Gardner (106 tackles) is the top linebacker. Barnett is happy with his experience in the back end, where all four starters from the Citrus Bowl are back. The secondary star is Eric Collier, the club's top returning tackler (107).

Barnett has had the luxury of the league's top special teams the last two years. All-star punter Paul Burton has completed his eligibility, but kicker Brian Gowins (82 points) is back. Brian Musso averaged 11.2 yards on punt returns last year, second-best in the Big Ten.

SERIES NOTES

The Badgers lead the all-time series, 50-29-5 ... the Wildcats have won four of the last five meetings in Evanston ... Northwestern has a two-game win streak in the series for the first time since 1987-88 ... Wisconsin has beaten NU more times than any other foe ... the schools have split their last 14 meetings ... the Badgers won 13 straight in the series (1972-84), their longest skein vs. any Big Ten opponent ... four of the Badgers' 11 largest margins of victory have come vs. the Wildcats ... Alvarez is 3-4 vs. Northwestern, and Barnett is 3-2 vs. the UW.

FIGHTING ILLINI OUTLOOK

First-year Illinois coach Ron Turner hopes to restore some respectability to the Fighting Illini program, which finished 2-9 last fall. The former Chicago Bears' assistant coach welcomes back 38 lettermen, including 15 starters.

Illinois must improve its offense which averaged just 17 points per game in '96. The Fighting Illini graduated its starting QB and top WR, but they do return all-star runner Robert Holcombe. The senior is a two-time 1,000-yard rusher and needs 35 yards to become the school's all-time leader. Junior Mark Hoekstra is the heir apparent at quarterback, and Marquis Mosely (28 receptions) is the top receiver. Three-time letterman Matt Cushing is an accomplished tight end, and he joins four returning regulars on the offensive front line. Guard Brent Taylor is the best blocker.

Eric Guenther, the team's top returning tackler (89), hopes to continue the Fighting Illini's strong play at linebacker. Several defensive backs — James Williams (67 tackles), Asim Pleas (four interceptions) and Trevor Starghill (three-year starter) — are back. The play of the corners, Turner says, will determine what Illinois can do on defense. The main area of concern is on the defensive line, which features Garrett Johnson, Rameel Connor and Jeff Weisse.

Punter Jason Higgins (39.1 yards) and the kicking duo of Neil Rackers and Bret Scheuplein all return to the special teams.

SERIES NOTES

Illinois leads the series 33-27-7 ... the Badgers are 3-0-1 vs. Illinois (outscoring the Illini 92-41) since 1993, their best stretch in the series since a 3-0 run from 1919-21 ... prior to the recent success, Illinois had won 11 of 12 ... Wisconsin's record vs. Illinois in Madison is 15-15-4 ... the most recent meeting in Camp Randall Stadium was a 3-3 tie that ended the '95 campaign ... there have been seven tie games between the schools and four one-point decisions ... the Badgers are 6-2 against Illinois when the UW is ranked, including a 20-6 triumph over the second-ranked Fighting Illini in 1952 ... Alvarez is 3-3-1 vs. Illinois, and Turner has never coached against Wisconsin.

BOILERMAKER OUTLOOK

Optimism is running high at Purdue where former defensive coordinator Joe Tiller returns to West Lafayette after five years as head coach at Wyoming. Tiller has 50 letterwinners returning, 15 of whom were starters last fall.

Nine regulars are back on offense, including the entire backfield. John Reeves and Billy Dicken will battle for top billing at QB. Whoever wins that competition will hand the ball to tailback Ed Watson, the 12th leading rusher in school history. Senior Willie Tillman and junior Isaac Jones are able receivers. The Boilermakers offensive line includes four returning starters. Mark Fischer anchors the line as a third-year regular.

Tiller plans to maintain the Boilermakers' 4-3 defensive formation. His star on defense is two-time Butkus Award candidate Chike Okeafor. The senior has 253 career tackles. Purdue has an all-star on the line in Rosevelt Colvin, who was third in the Big Ten in tackles for loss. Senior tackles Leo Perez and Greg Smith have started 12 and eight times, respectively, in their careers. The secondary returns three-fourths of the starters. Jamel Coleman, Derrick Brown and Willie Burroughs have started 66 times and intercepted 15 passes. Brown was Purdue's leading tackler a year ago (102 stops).

Danny Rogers and Brandon Kaser shared punting chores last fall and both return. The kicking duties were split between Chris Arnce and Shane Ryan and each is back in '97.

SERIES NOTES

Wisconsin leads the series 34-26-8, although the Boilers lead 16-14-3 at West Lafayette ... the Badgers are 3-1-1 vs. Purdue since 1992 ... the series is deadlocked at 10-10-2 since 1971 ... Wisconsin's longest win streak during the series was a four-game stretch from '81-84 ... Alvarez is 3-2-1 vs. Purdue and Tiller has not faced the Badgers as a head coach ... Tiller was an assistant coach at Purdue from 1983-86, and the Boilers lost both meetings with Wisconsin (1983-84) ... the schools did not play in 1985 or 1986.

GOLDEN GOPHER OUTLOOK

Don't tell first-year coach Glen Mason that he is rebuilding the football fortunes at Minnesota. "I just don't like the word rebuilding," Mason says. "I want us to be as good and competitive as we can be right away." The cupboard is hardly bare as Mason welcomes back 47 letterwinners.

The Golden Gopher offense has been heavily weighted toward the pass recently, and Mason wants to balance things out. He will have a strong air attack with QB Cory Sauter (more than 5,000 career passing yards) in control. Ryan Thelwell and Tutu Atwell are the main targets after 116 catches last season. Thomas Hamner (883 yards) is the key to the running attack. Three of the offensive line starters provide a good foundation up front. Troy Duerr, who played on the defensive line last season, assumes the No. 1 slot at tight end.

Minnesota's defensive troops have been a sore spot recently, and Mason is keying hopes around a strong linebacking corps. Parc Williams (98 tackles) was the team's defensive MVP. Rufus Smith and Donny Dalton also return. Crawford Jordan, Craig Scruggs and Tyrone Carter are impressive defensive backs. Carter and Jordan ranked second and third on the club in tackles last fall. Raymond Baylor is the lone returnee on the defensive line after starting nine times.

Adam Bailey led the team in scoring and connected on 16-20 field goals. Steve Kemph averaged 38.2 yards per punt.

SERIES NOTES

The most-played rivalry in Division I-A football is the matchup between Wisconsin and Minnesota ... the Badgers and Golden Gophers have played 106 times (UM leads 57-41-8) previously, including every year consecutively since 1907 ... the winner of the game receives the Paul Bunyan Axe to display on its campus ... Wisconsin kept possession of the Axe for just the second time since 1984 with its 45-28 triumph last fall ... the teams are 5-5 in the last 10 games at Minnesota and have split 28 games overall since 1969 ... Alvarez is 4-3 vs. Minnesota, and Mason has never faced the UW.

HAWKEYE OUTLOOK

Iowa's goal in 1997 is to continue its fine play of the last two seasons when the Hawkeyes combined to win 17 games. Fourteen starters return from the '96 team that posted a 9-3 record. Hayden Fry, who has coached more games (397) than any active Division I-A coach, likes the prospects for this fall.

Fry has excelled when he retained the services of a veteran QB. That player in '97 is senior Matt Sherman, who has thrown for 5,200 career yards. His top target is Tim Dwight, who snared 97 passes the last two years. Iowa must replace all-time rushing leader Sedrick Shaw, but it does return highly regarded Tavian Banks (12 TDs). Michael Burger is an aggressive blocker at fullback, and the offensive line offers three returning starters. Former guard Derek Rose moves to center, the line's key slot. Chris Knipper earned all-conference praise at TE in 1996.

Three defensive line performers are back led by Jared DeVries, the Big Ten leader in tackles for loss (22). Linebackers Matt Hughes (136) and Vernon Rollins (126) were the team's top two tacklers as sophomores. The Hawkeyes are missing a pair of all-Big Ten defensive backs (Tommy Knight and Damien Robinson). Plez Atkins, a CB, and Kerry Crooks, a SS, are both three-year letterwinners.

Two-time all-Big Ten punter Nick Gallery and long-distance field goal kicker Brion Hurley have graduated. Zach Bromert will handle short placements.

SERIES NOTES

Iowa leads the all-time series 36-34-2 ... a tie in 1984 is the only game Iowa has failed to win vs. the UW since 1976 ... the Hawkeyes are 17-0-1 vs. the Badgers since 1977 ... the schools did not face each other in 1993 or 1994, the years that the Badgers earned Rose and Hall of Fame Bowl berths ... UW holds a 22-15-1 margin in games at Madison ... the Badgers registered a six- and a pair of five-game winning streaks early in the series ... Iowa is the only Big Ten team that Alvarez has not defeated ... Alvarez is 0-5 vs. Iowa, and Fry is 14-0-1 vs. UW ... Alvarez was Fry's linebackers coach from 1979-86.

WOLVERINE OUTLOOK

The '97 Wolverine football team faces one of the nation's most-difficult schedules. It does so, however, with the knowledge that 45 letter-winners, including 14 starters from last season's Outback Bowl team are back.

Coach Lloyd Carr is well stocked at quarterback with Scott Dreisbach and Brian Griese (25 starts between them). Guard Zach Adami and tackle Jon Jansen are the top blockers on a line unit that must find three replacements. Jerame Tuman (33 catches) is a superb tight end. Chris Howard and Clarence Williams are fighting for the nod at tailback. That pair split time last fall and gained 1,562 yards. Tai Streets (44 catches, 730 yards) is the best receiver. He also lettered on the UM basketball team.

Defense figures to be the team strength. Charles Woodson, a do-everything cornerback, is the star. Strong safety Marcus Ray also returns to the back end after leading the secondary with 98 tackles. The Wolverines lost an all-American at linebacker (Jarrett Irons), but the return of leading tackler Sam Sword (99 tackles) eases the burden. The best defensive lineman is senior end Glen Steele, who registered 13 tackles for loss in 1996.

Both of last year's kickers are gone, so Coach Carr will audition a number of unproven players for those roles.

SERIES NOTES

Wisconsin trails in the all-time series 41-10-1, but the Badgers have won two straight ... the schools did not face each other in 1995 or 1996 ... the UW has won three straight games in the series just once (1959-60-62) ... Michigan won 23 of 24 games vs. the UW prior to the recent two-game streak ... the Badgers' win during that skein was a 21-14 win over the No. 1 rated Wolves in 1981 ... Alvarez is 2-1 against Michigan as a head coach and Carr has not faced the Badgers.

NITTANY LION OUTLOOK

Riding the wave of a five-game winning streak to end the year, Coach Joe Paterno is very excited about the prospects for his 1997 club. Forty-two returning letter-winners hope to make a run at the league title.

Replacing Wally Richardson at QB is one of the Nittany Lions keys. Mike McQueary is a fifth-year senior and should get the strongest consideration. Curtis Enis led the squad in rushing (1,210) for the second year in a row and is a seasoned tailback. Four fullbacks also return. The offensive line must be rebuilt after three starters departed. Phil Ostrowski is an honors candidate. Senior Joe Jurevicius (41 catches for 869 yards) is a game-breaker at WR.

Seven starters return to a defense which was 13th nationally in points allowed. Senior tackles Matt Fornadel and Chris Snyder are the vets up front. Junior Brad Scioli also returns after a knee injury. Aaron Collins and Jim Nelson, a pair of two-year starters, will continue the tradition of strong linebacker play at PSU. Brandon Short will play MLB after leading the team in TFLs (12) last year. Shino Prater is the most-experienced secondary performer in an area that concerns Paterno.

Both kicking specialists have departed, so Penn State has a wide-open race for both jobs. Travis Forner and Pat Pidgeon are the favorites at kicker and punter, respectively.

SERIES NOTES

Wisconsin has a 3-1 edge in the series ... last year's 23-20 Nittany Lion win was their first triumph in the series ... the Badgers opened the 1953 campaign with a 20-0 victory over PSU, and the UW added a 29-16 triumph vs. the Nittany Lions in 1970 ... a 1993 Badger victory in Beaver Stadium broke the Nittany Lions' 20-game winning streak ... Alvarez is 1-1 vs. Penn State as a head coach and was 2-3 against PSU while on the Iowa and Notre Dame coaching staffs ... Paterno is 1-2 vs. the UW.

Releases & Statistics

Big Ten Fax-on-Demand — The Big Ten and its schools provide 24-hour access to the latest press releases, statistics and notes on Big Ten sports. Media members simply call the Fax-On-Demand phone number (available from the Big Ten Office) and request the information they wish to receive. Requested information will be faxed back immediately. Because of this technology, Wisconsin no longer mails its football release.

3206	Most recent game stats
3207	Most recent game play-by-play

The Big Ten Conference Code is 282

Credentials

Press box — Requests for credentials to cover Wisconsin football should be sent on company letterhead to: Steve Malchow, Director of Sports Information, University of Wisconsin, 1440 Monroe Street, Madison, WI 53711. The fax number is (608) 262-8184. Requests should be received at least 10 days in advance of the game.

Credentials will be mailed if time permits. Those passes which cannot be mailed will be left with the parking attendant (white vehicle) at Lot 18 (southeast corner of the Stadium across the street from the fire station).

Credentials will be issued according to the following priorities: 1) television and radio stations originating a live broadcast; 2) national publications and newspapers filing for the following day's publication; 3) newspapers designated by the visiting sports information director; 4) television and radio stations covering for nightly news; and 5) other requests, which will be evaluated on a space-available basis. Spouses, dates, non-workers and children are not allowed in the media areas as dictated by the NCAA Media Guidelines book.

Photographers — Sideline credentials will be issued only to accredited photographers and TV reporters / camera operators on assignment. You must display both a credential and an armband prominently to be on the field level. Your game credential alone will not give you access to the sidelines. Armbands can be picked up in the Reinke Room of the Field House. Media members cannot shoot between the 25-yard lines.

Parking — A very limited number of parking passes are available to working media.

Game-day Services

Media services — Facilities for the press are located on the fourth level of the Press Box. Flipcards, notes and programs are delivered to each working location prior to kickoff. A complete stat packet will be available after the game.

Fax service — Final game statistics are entered immediately after the game on the Big Ten's Fax-On-Demand service. If you do not wish to use the Fax-On-Demand service, statistical packets will be faxed to your outlet for $10 (payable at the game).

Interviews — With approximately four minutes left in the game, media members will be escorted to the interview areas by Associate SID Justin Doherty. Barry Alvarez meets the media in the McClain Lounge (first floor). Requested players are available in the weight room (lower level of the McClain facility). The Wisconsin locker room is closed to the media.

Phones — Several courtesy phone lines on level four of the Communications Center are available on a first-come, first-served basis. Media requiring their own phones should call Wisconsin Bell (800/447-7738) to order lines.

Interview Requests

Practices — All Wisconsin practices, including Friday walk-throughs, are closed to the media. Interviews are conducted according to the following guidelines.

Head Coach — Barry Alvarez holds a weekly media conference Mondays at 1 p.m. in the "W" Club Room. Audio cuts from Alvarez' Monday media conference are available after 4 p.m. on Mondays by calling (608) 263-3100 (option 3). Comments from Alvarez' Monday media session are also available through the Fax-on-Demand System. Alvarez is available for interviews after practice Tuesday through Friday. He will do interviews after Friday walk-throughs on the road. Call the Wisconsin SID office if you wish to visit with Alvarez at a walk-through.

Additionally, Alvarez is available every Tuesday from 11:50-noon CT on the Big Ten Teleconference. This session is for media use only. Call the SID Office if you need the phone number for this session.

Players — Badger players can be interviewed during the week on Tuesdays and Wednesdays after practice (approximately 6 p.m.). Phone calls by players to out-of-town media are made at the players' convenience between 7:30-10 p.m. CT on Tuesdays and Wednesdays only. Interviews should be arranged through Associate SID Justin Doherty (608/262-1811) by noon of the day the player is requested. Home numbers will not be made available to the media, and players have been instructed not to conduct interviews when contacted without prior approval from the Wisconsin Sports Information Staff.

BIG TEN TUESDAY TELECONFERENCE

Throughout the Big Ten football season, media members can gain access to conference coaches on Tuesdays via the Big Ten Teleconference. For the phone number, media members should contact the Big Ten Conference Communications Department at (708) 696-1010.

Each coach will be on the line for 10 minutes according to the schedule below. Questions will be limited to the media from that coach's Saturday opponent. If time remains after those questions, media members not covering that coaches' game may ask questions.

11:00-11:10 CT	John Cooper, Ohio State
11:10-11:20 CT	Lloyd Carr, Michigan
11:20-11:30 CT	Cam Cameron, Indiana

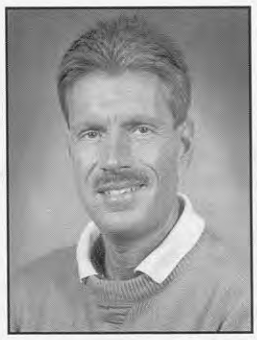
Matt Lepay



Mike Lucas

For the fourth year in a row, exclusive radio coverage of Badger football can be heard on the 43-station Wisconsin Radio Network. The Athletic Department and Learfield Communications entered into an agreement for radio broadcast rights for Wisconsin football and basketball prior to the 1994 season.

WIBA (1310 AM) and WOLX (94.9 FM) are the rights holders in the Madison market, and WTMJ (620 AM) carries the games in Milwaukee.

Entering his fourth season handling play-by-play duties is Matt Lepay. He has called Badger basketball the past nine seasons. A 1984 graduate of Ohio State, Lepay was Sports Director at WTSO in Madison before joining WIBA in 1994. He previously served as Sports Director at WNCI in Columbus, and prior to that worked at stations in Athens and Piqua, Ohio.

Joining Lepay is Mike Lucas, long-time sports columnist at the Capital Times. Lucas, who worked on the broadcast team for Wisconsin's delay TV package before assuming color commentary duties on the radio, also provides daily sports commentaries on WIBA.

LISTENING TO BADGER FOOTBALL

Wisconsin football games can be heard from around the world via Learfield Communications and AudioNet on the world wide web. The AudioNet connection is available through the football section of the Athletic Department's website address.

The Badgers' internet site is: http://www.wisc.edu/ath/

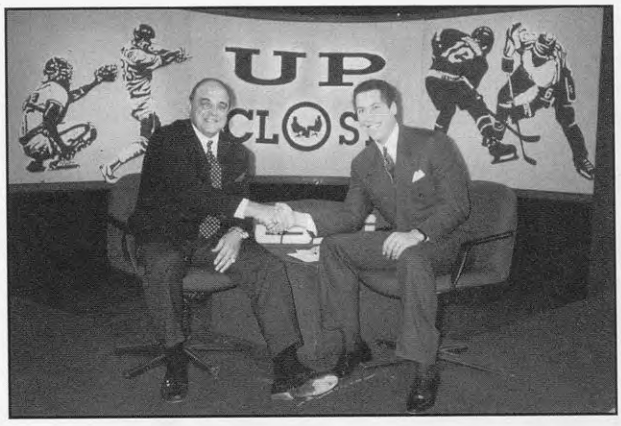
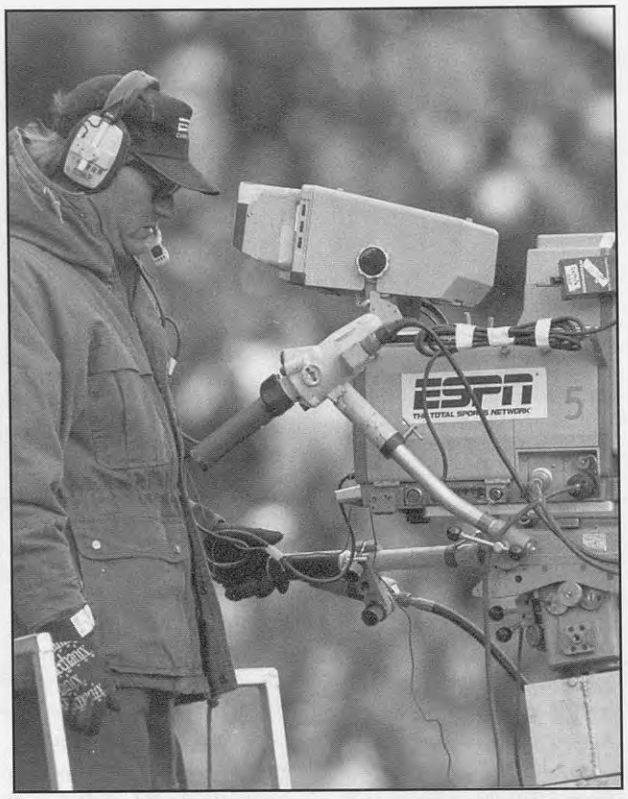
Radio broadcasts of Wisconsin's games are also available via the telephone through TRZ's Teamline program. Fans should call 800-846-4700 (dial code 5395) and listen to the broadcast. A valid VISA or MasterCard is required to access that system.

TV COVERAGE





Badgers on TV

The resurgence of Wisconsin football has dramatically increased live television exposure for the Badgers.

Most Wisconsin games will be selected for live television coverage again this fall, but those schedules are not released until 1-2 weeks prior to each game.

For the 22nd consecutive season, Badger home football games will be televised on a delayed basis by Wisconsin Public Television. Veteran broadcaster Van Stoutt of WIBA Radio is the play-by-play announcer. Pat Stiegman, sports editor of the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel's on-line service, handles color commentary.

Broadcast across the state educational network, Badger football replays air Saturdays at 10:30 p.m. The network includes WHA-Madison (channel 21 or cable channel 11), WPNE-Green Bay, WLEF-Park Falls, WHWC-Menomonie, WHLA-La Crosse, WHRM-Wausau and WMVT-Milwaukee.

Alvarez TV Show

The "Barry Alvarez Television Show," produced by WISC-TV (channel 3 or cable channel 9) in Madison, is a 30-minute program of highlights, interviews and features on Badger football. Seven stations — WISC-Madison (11 a.m.), WISN-Milwaukee (11 a.m.), WSAW-Wausau (11 a.m.), WFRV-Green Bay (11 a.m.), WXOW-La Crosse (11:00 p.m.), WQOW-Eau Claire (11:00 p.m.) and WJMN-Marquette, Mich. (11 a.m.) — show the program each Sunday throughout the season.

Steve Malchow is in his eighth season as Director of Sports Information at the UW. He is in charge of publicity for all 11 Badger men's sports programs.

Malchow worked from 1979-89 at Iowa as a student, graduate and full-time assistant in the Sports Information Office before accepting his post at the UW-Madison.

He is a member of the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA), which has honored more than 40 of his press guides for excellence. His 1985 football and basketball books were rated first and second in the nation, respectively.

The 1983 graduate of Iowa earned degrees in marketing, journalism and management sciences. A native of Sioux City, Iowa, Steve is single and resides in Madison.

Justin Doherty begins his third year as an Associate SID at Wisconsin after two-and-a-half years as SID at North Dakota.

Doherty coordinates media relations for men's basketball and assists with football. He serves as editor of the football and basketball game programs and oversees publicity for golf, tennis and swimming.

At UND he directed publicity efforts for a 15-sport athletics program. He was also assistant SID at Northern Michigan (1990-92) and sports editor at the Marshall (Mich.) Chronicle after earning his B.A. in journalism from Michigan State. He was a student assistant in the MSU sports information office from 1984-89.

Julie Kluge is in her eighth campaign as a full-time member of the UW Sports Information staff. She has worked for the Department of Athletics since 1984.

Kluge directs publicity for the Badgers' nationally recognized hockey, cross country and track teams. The 1988 UW-Madison graduate has B.S. degrees in zoology and secondary education.

Kluge is editor of both the Wisconsin hockey media guide and game program. Her 1996-97 hockey media guide was named "Best in the Nation" by CoSIDA.

She was an assistant director in the publicity office of the WCHA (1989) and has worked for the NCAA at its hockey championship.
